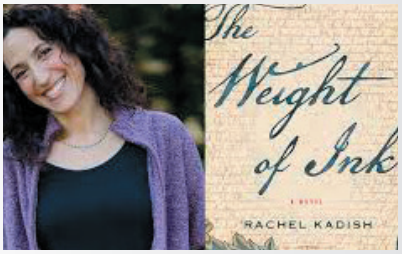
TUESDAY NIGHT LEARNING AT THE SHAAR

Spring 2019

7:30 PM – Free Admission – All Welcome

With the generous support from Friends of Tuesday Night Learning, we have assembled an incredibly impressive group of speakers.

MARCH 19



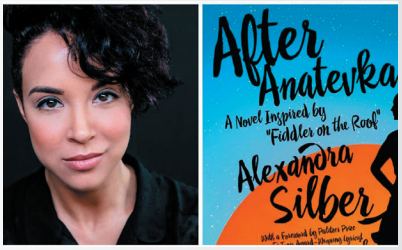
Author of "The Weight of Ink", a National Jewish Book Award winner

RACHEL KADISH

"Rarely have I read a contemporary novel that so immersed me in its world and drew me so deeply into the lives of its characters. Rachel Kadish is a brilliant storyteller, with a mystery writer's instinct for pacing and a willingness to take on the largest human questions. The Weight of Ink is astonishing."

- Carol Gilligan, author of "In a Different Voice"

MARCH 26



Author of "After Anatevka" and memoir "White Hot Grief Parade"

ALEXANDRA SILBER

American actress,writer, and singer, in conversation with LISA RUBIN, Artistic and Executive Director of the Segal Centre for Performing Arts

"After Anatevka does Fiddler on the Roof proud. It's no secret that Alexandra Silber is one of our theater's finest singing actors. But who knew she was a thrilling novelist as well?"

- Tony Award-winning playwright Terrence McNally

APRIL 2

The Challenge of a Shared Society in Israel

TOVA HARTMAN

Scholar and founder of Jerusalem- based Congregation Kehillat Shira Hadasha, Tova Hartman is the Dean of Humanities at the Kiryat Ono Academic College. Her book "Feminism Encounters Traditional Judaism" was the winner of the National Jewish Book Award in 2008. She most recently authored "Are You Not a Man of God? Devotion, Betrayal and Social Criticism in Jewish Tradition". She is the daughter of the late Rabbi David Hartman.

APRIL 9

Author of "Lioness: Golda Meir and the Nation of Israel", winner of the 2017 National Jewish Book Award

FRANCINE KLAGSBURN

"A masterwork, melding character and history.... Part biblically reminiscent drama, part novel-like interiority, part American-inspired pioneering.... Golda Meir's story ... has no parallel in the annals of nations."

- Cynthia Ozick
