THE BOOK OF LIFE

IS IN LOVING

REMEMBRANCE OF THE MEMBERS

OF RODEPH SHOLOM AND THEIR

DEAR ONES WHO HAVE GONE ON TO THEIR

ETERNAL REST.

AS THEIR NAMES ARE RECALLED DURING

THIS SOLEMN MEMORIAL SERVICE

WE PRAY THAT THEIR

MEMORY WILL REMAIN A BLESSING

TO ALL WHO TREASURE IT.

יהוה, מָה־אָדָם וַתֵּדָעֵהוּ,
בֶּן־אֱנוֹשׁ וַתְּחַשְּׁבֵהוּ.
אָדָם לַהֶבֶל דָּמָה,
יָמָיו כְּצֵל עוֹבֵר.
בַּבֹּקֶר יָצִיץ וְחָלָף,
לָעֶרֶב יְמוֹלֵל וְיָבֵשׁ.
לִמְנוֹת יָמֵינוּ כֵּן הוֹדַע
וְנָבִיא לְבַב חָכְמָה.

ADONAI, what are human beings
that You take account of them,
mortals that You care for them?
Humans are as a breath, their days like a passing shadow.
In the morning they flourish anew, in the evening they shrivel and die.
Teach us to count each day,
that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.

On this solemn day we each make judgments about the quality of our life.

We re-examine our deeds and relationships with our community and with others.

We express our yearnings for a new year, a new beginning, a year during which we commit ourselves to work toward bringing health and peace to all.

We long for a year when individually and communally we shall strive to live in a way that is more reflective of the ideals that we cherish.

Now, in the midst of looking at our life and assessing its quality, we pause to reflect and to remember, and to dedicate ourselves anew.

Monuments need not be erected for the righteous; their deeds are their memorials

- The Jerusalem Talmud

שִׁוִּיתִי יהוה לְנֶגְדִּי תָמִיד,
כִּי מִימִינִי בַּל־אֶמּוֹט.
לָכֵן שָׂמַח לִבִּי וַיָּגֶל
כְּבוֹדִי, אַף בְּשָׂרִי יִשְׁכֹּן
לָבֶטַח.

God is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall.
Therefore I am glad, made happy, though I know that my flesh will lie in the ground forever.

The deaths of those we now remember left holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives and we are strengthened by the blessings that they left us and the precious memories that comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

WE RECALL

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love.

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated and are no more. And there are men whose scintillating memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights which shine in the darkest night are those which illumine for us the path...

- Hannah Senesh

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives.

So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us.

Though they are gone, we are grateful for the blessings they brought to our lives. We are sustained and comforted by the thought that their presence in our lives remains an enduring blessing that we can bequeath to others.

We can show our devotion to them by our devotion to those ideas that they cherished.

O God of love, make us worthy of the love we have received by teaching us to love You with all our heart and with all our soul and with all our might, and to spread the light of Your divine love on all whose lives touch ours.

Give us strength to live faithfully, for we are cheered by our confidence that You will not permit our lives to be wasted, but will bring all our worthy strivings to live on, even as we may not see their fulfillment.

—MORDECAI M. KAPLAN, EUGENE KOHN, AND IRA EISENSTEIN
(adapted from Mahzor Hadash)

The balm, according to the Rabbinical idea, is created before the wound… with the sorrow, come the remedy for it; for it is enfolded in the sorrow. We are taught by our trouble, uplifted by it, consoled by it… We take the ruins of the old happiness and build upon them a fairer and more durable edifice. We let our beloved go, but we receive him back, made dearer, more living, by sanctified and inspiring memories.

- Morris Joseph

A prayer for those reciting Yizkor, whose Parents are still living

Ruler of the Universe. I stand in this room surrounded by people in pain. The pain of loss is one that I have not experienced in an intensely personal way, and for this I am forever thankful. I am thankful for the continued presence of both of my parents in my life. I am grateful for the ability to speak with them and to be with them.

Today I am standing in this room to recall people who were dear to me… People who have made life a great one. I am here today to honor the lives of people that thanks to my parents I was able to have known. Please continue to help me to connect with my parents every day in this world. Please allow for them to continue to be the blessing that they are in my life. Today as I pledge to perform the mitzvah of tzedaka on behalf of loved ones, may the righteousness of my parents continue to flourish… As I request that my loved ones be granted a place in the Garden of Eden as were our Patriarchs and Matriarchs may the influence of my parents continue to shine in a way that will assure me and my descendants a place there as well.

God, Thank You for allowing me to be able to stand here this day and to recall the lives of incredible people while I enjoy those memories by the sides of my parents. Please allow me to merit to have them with me for many years to come.

Amen

May God remember the souls of our friends, members of our holy congregation, who have gone to their eternal home. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May these moments of meditation strenghten the ties that link us to their memory. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of our congregation. Help us to perpetuate everything that was worthy in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing.

If God didn't hide from all people the date of their death, nobody would build a home, nobody would plant a vineyard, because everyone would say, 'I'm going to die tomorrow, so of what purpose is it for me to work today?' For this reason, God denies us knowing the day of our death, in the hope that we will build and plant. If not for ourselves, others will benefit from our labor.

PSALM 23

A PSALM OF DAVID.

ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows,
and guides me over calm waters.
God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—
for that is God's way.
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.
Your staff and Your rod comfort me.
You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:
You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of ADONAI in the fullness of time.

Mourner's Kaddish

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the House of Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed—though God, who is blessed, b'rikh hu, is truly far beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And respond with: Amen.

May abundant peace from heaven, and life, come to us and to all Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May the One who brings harmony on high, bring harmony to us and to all Israel [and to all who dwell on earth]. And respond with: Amen.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBERANCE

On this most solemn day of the year, we recall those whose love for Judiasm prompted their families to establish everlasting memorials in our midst. Their memorials are preserved in the sanctury of Rodeph Sholom synagogue.

Yizkor is a short prayer that has a deep spiritual impact on the soul o departed relatives and leaves a powerful emotional impression on those who say it. Yizkor is founded on the Jewish belief that the prayers and actions of people in this world can have an elevating spiritual effect on the souls of the departed ones.Although the deceased can no longer perform Mitzvot, they can benefit from prayers, acts of charity, and other good deeds that their survivors perform on their behalf. Yizkor is an excellent time for personal reflection and to commit to particular actions or general self-improvement as a source of merit for the departed.
