FROM THE DESK OF RABBI ZERIN

Rabbi Hanina said: I have learned much from my teachers, and more from my colleagues, but from my students I have learned the most.

Babylonian Talmud, Ta'anit 7a

I have been blessed with wonderful teachers, colleagues, and students, and I have learned so much from all of them – from all of YOU. As I reflect on the past 14 months since the pandemic began, and on the past 5 years, since I came to Temple Emanu-El, I am in awe of all that we have learned together and done together. As I write this letter, we are on the eve of welcoming 120 households to our first ever Virtual Educational Weekend, over 155 people continue to participate in the Daily Jewish Values Project, and dozens are involved in regular learning, prayer, and conversation. We have shown up to learn Torah, build community, and support each other in remarkable ways.

While I am in awe of all that we have done, I am also humbled and grateful for all that you have taught me. The questions you have asked and the insights you have shared with me during classes and divrei Torah have made me a better student of Torah. The excitement and curiosity of your children has taught me to approach the world with wonder. The times you have opened up and allowed me to accompany you during life's most tender moments have taught me so much about the joys and challenges of what it means to be human, and the ways we can lighten each other's loads as we journey through life. Through your example, I have learned what it means to be a caring and supportive community. I have learned much from my teachers, more from my colleagues, and from my students I have learned the most.

Thank you for teaching me so much over these past five years. I look forward to celebrating all that we have done together and all that you have taught me on May 21–23.

Bivrakhah,
In blessing,

-Rabbi Rachel Zerin

RELIGIOUS SCHOOL CORNER

Many months have passed as we navigate the world of remote learning, maintaining relationships and building new ones, learning new skills and celebrating together, and welcoming new students and their families.

The culmination of our year will be a bit different, too. Plans include an outdoor celebration focused on our seventh-grade students who will have completed the first step in their educational journey. We will also honor our teachers who have shown resilience and flexibility as never before! On May 16th, at 9:30 am, all teachers and all students and families of seventh graders will gather for an outdoor presentation made by students and celebrated by families and staff. This portion of the program will be limited to the above-named participants, but there is much more!

Tikkun Olam (fixing the world) is an important concept in Judaism. On Sunday, May 16th, we will join with families at Temple Emanu-El for a morning of fun, repairs, organizing and some time spent outdoors. As a pre-Shavuot activity, we will all contribute to the upkeep and beautification of our beloved synagogue. Details will follow, and I look forward to being able to greet each one of you in person as we celebrate learning and community.

Please don't forget to register for school in the fall. The link for registering is available on the website under the LEARNING tab, or email for further information.

During the summer months we invite Temple Emanu-El members to deliver a d'var torah during Shabbat services. Speakers have addressed our community about their personal stories, both triumphs and trials, their work related professions, recent trips, Jewish identity and, of course, their individual take on the weekly Torah portion.

If you have an interest in speaking this summer to our community, or if you know an Emanu-El member with an interesting story you'd like to hear, please contact Shosh Jacob to sign up for a date.

97th Annual Meeting

JUNE 6, 2021 | 26 SIVAN 5781
10:00-11:00 AM

Meeting will take place via Zoom Details to follow

The Trustees and Staff of Temple Emanu-El cordially invite you to attend our 97th Annual Meeting.

Join us as we install our incoming board members and honor our volunteers, youth leaders and outgoing board members.

FROM THE DESK OF RABBI FEL

You shall count from the eve of the second day of Pesah, when an omer of grain is to be brought as an offering, seven complete weeks. The day after the seventh week of your counting will make 50 days.

LEVITICUS 23:15–16

Each night, since the second night of Pesah, the Jewish community has been engaged in the sacred act of "counting the omer." This practice connects the Festival of Pesah, which marks our redemption from Egypt, to Shavuot, which commemorates our receiving the Torah at Mount Sinai. Rather than count down (there are only 20 days until Shavuot), we count up (today is the 8th day) in the counting of the omer which corresponds to 1 week and 1 day. Counting this way reminds us that time is never meant to be "killed," and to recognize each moment as an opportunity to move forward towards a goal. The practice of counting up also reminds us of how much we have achieved.

As we continue on our journey towards Shavuot, I can't help but reflect on all that we have accomplished and learned during the last year.

We took care of each other's spiritual, social, emotional and physical needs.

We migrated our programs and services to an online platform.

We created TE-Talks, an online forum, that helped answer questions, find resources, and get vaccinated.

We thought creatively about how to gather in person.

None of this could have happened were it not for our talented staff, officers, lay leaders, and all of you. Thank you for your partnership over this past year and for what is yet to come.

In particular, I'd like to acknowledge Rabbi Zerin for her dedication and kindness over these past two years. I will miss her wisdom and thoughtfulness, her beautiful singing and spiritual stewardship, and of course, our weekly study sessions. I know that our loss will be Beth El Temple's gain and wish her success and blessings as she continues to serve the Jewish people.

As we look forward to the summer and next programming year, I know that there are still many unknowns. How will Temple Emanu-El function with two clergy? How will the coronavirus affect in-person programs next year? What will the High Holy Days look like? These are all important questions that I am sure our lay leaders and professional staff will be able to address. We will be in touch, as we have been throughout the pandemic, to keep everyone updated with plans.

In moments like this, I think of Israeli's beloved Prime Minister, Shimon Peres, may his memory be a blessing, who stated, "There is no expert on what will be. And yet, without knowing the future, I remain a man full of hope."

I too am full of hope. Given what we have accomplished this year, I hope that you are as well.

-RABBI MICHAEL FEL

ARTS EMANU-EL SEASON ENDING EVENTS

PAINTING RESILIENCE: THE LIFE & ART OF FRED TERNA

Wednesday May 26, 2021 | 7:30–8:30 PM
Featuring: Julia Mayer, *Author
Special Guest: Fred Terna, *Artist/Holocaust Survivor

"Living through the Holocaust was luck, but living with it takes skill," says 97-year-old Holocaust survivor and still-active artist Fred Terna.

Julia Mayer's recently-released full-length biography of Terna is a personal, intergenerational exploration of the role Terna's art plays in living with the trauma of four concentration camps; his post-WWII marriage to his emotionally scarred childhood sweetheart; their escape to France, Canada, and the U.S.; their divorce; and his subsequent happy marriage to a daughter of survivors and the family they created. The book includes reproductions of more than two dozen of Terna's artworks.

As part of the Arts Emanu-El program, Mayer will do a brief reading, spotlight some of Terna's paintings (many held by the US Holocaust Memorial Museum, Yad Vashem, the Albertina, and other institutions), share a fireside chat with Terna focusing on the importance of younger generations carrying survivor stories into the future, and together entertain questions.

MORNING Z'MAN KODESH
Sunday–Friday at 8:00 AM
Includes a modified 30-minute service and either 10 minutes of teaching, Torah reading, or Hallel.

AFTERNOON Z'MAN KODESH
Sunday–Thursday at 5:45 PM
Minhah and learning

Kabbalat Shabbat
Fridays Evenings

KABBALAT SHABBAT & MA'ARIV
Friday at 6:00 PM
Bring in Shabbat with beautiful melodies and inspiring divrei torah/teachings.

Shabbat Morning Services

Saturday Mornings at 9:30 AM (9:15 AM on July 10); to view, visit our website

Join our clergy every week for Shabbat morning services, streamed live from the Main Sanctuary directly to your smartphone, tablet, or computer!

Soulful Shabbat

Soulful Shabbat will meet via zoom on May 15, June 19 and July 17 at 10:00 AM

Shabbat comes each week to remind us that true meaning in our lives won't be found in what we accomplish but rather in being part of the universe. Soulful Shabbat encourages people to spirituality stretch by creating a space for pause and reflection. Soulful Shabbat prayer is a blend of traditional davening, silence, chant, movement and poetry so that one's whole self – mind, body, breath and heart – can be engaged in prayer. Soulful Shabbat Services are coordinated by Rabbi Alan Flam, Judy Kaye and Dr. Bruce Phillips.

Zoom Havdalah

Saturday Nights – Refer to the calendar on pages 8–9 for times

Say goodbye to Shabbat and enter the new week with your Temple Emanu-El friends! We will join together for mini-Minhah and a brief Havdalah service to conclude Shabbat, complete with singing, candlelight, sweet-smelling spices, and wine. Those in mourning or observing yahrzeit will also have an opportunity to recite Mourner's Kaddish. Grab your landline, smartphone, tablet, or computer and join us as we transition from the holiness of Shabbat into the rest of the week!

Knitting Circle
Tuesdays, 12:00–1:00 PM

Looking for some fellow knitters? Join Ronni Guttin and members of the congregation for clacking needles, project inspiration and plenty of conversation. The group meets remotely every Tuesday!

The Stiff Necks
Wednesdays, 12:00–1:00 PM

"The Stiff Necks" is a registered meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous. It is a speaker/discussion meeting, in which a designated speaker (different each week) opens the meeting sharing their experience, strength, and hope in recovery for 10–15 minutes and then the meeting is open for sharing. This is an OPEN Meeting of AA which means anyone can attend, not just those who identify as alcoholics. People who are uncertain about their drinking, ("Am I an alcoholic?") and those in the medical and professional/counseling community wishing to learn more about recovery are welcome to attend.
