A Message from Our Interim Rabbi

Dear Friends:

Beginning on the evening of October 5, 2021, we will celebrate Rosh Hodesh, the first day, of the Hebrew month of Cheshvan. Cheshvan is the only month of all the month of the Jewish calendar in which there are absolutely no holiday celebrations. We of course have regular Shabbat celebrations, but no additional holidays. After all the celebrations in the preceding month of Tishri, the Cheshvan lull is welcome. It gives us a chance to reflect on the messages and demands made on us throughout our Days of Awe and our Sukkot and Simchat Torah celebrations. Cheshvan also gives us the time to perhaps put into action some of the changes we promised to make during our reflective High Holyday experience. But Cheshvan also gives us the chance to move forward, to try something new, to expand our views a bit about we can accomplish when we have some unimpeded time.

In the Midwest, this is a time to take walks outside to see the beautiful autumnal colors. We watch the birds begin to move to their winter homes, or to prepare their nests for winter. The squirrels are busy scavenging all the nuts fallings from trees. And we know as the days shorten and the weather cools, that another winter looms ahead. Some years these changes are very gradual, and some years, they seem so abrupt. This is so like our lives. Some years seem to pass quickly, others seem to drag on endlessly. Some people are good and welcome the new possibilities that changing the status quo bring. Some people always yearn for the "good ol' days" when they thought everything was just perfect. Most people fall somewhere in between these attitudes, needing time to adjust to changes around them.

In a commentary on Yom Kippur Rabbi Yitzchak Hutner, a Rabbi in Poland and the United States wrote: *The truth of the matter is that the power of change is the greatest innovation, after the wonder of the creation of Heaven and Earth," (*Pachad Yitzchak, Yom Kippur 1:8). The power to change is what makes the work we did during Tishri possible. The High Holyday prayer "U'netaneh Tokef" emphasizes the power of change. The prayer says: if we do these three right things, Repentance, Prayer and Righteous Deeds, we can change even the most severe decree against us.

Cheshvan is the time to reflect and to move forward. To accept the changes in the natural world, and to make changes in our own lives. We can choose to follow the pattern of the weather, making some gradual changes, or we can make decisive immediate change. But no matter which style suits us better, change is coming in nature and for all of us.
We hope and pray that most of the things that will alter our lives will be positive, healthy, and happy. We pray for the strength to overcome the difficult times surrounded by loving family, community, and friends.

May all of us embrace the power of innovation and change to help us continue to enjoy the wonders of our world, our life and our community.

Wishing you all a beautiful month of Cheshvan.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Paula Jayne Winnig | Interim Rabbi, Congregation Rodef Sholom

A Message from Our Interim President

Dear Congregants,

It's a new year- a new beginning- 5782. As we emerge from a time of deep introspection and repentance, we enter a time when we put into action all the vows we have made. The days grow short, but our ability to spread light in the world lengthens.

Opportunities to spread that light abound. Each moment of each day provides us with opportunities to seek joy- joy in volunteering, joy in reaching out to others, or in simply saying thank you.

There are 15 Hebrew words for joy, and the word joy is found 100 times in the Torah, but what is joy? My favorite definition defines joy as "a conscious commitment to have a sense of gratitude and contentment regardless of life's challenges." Joy comes from within; it is something to be shared with others.

As we look around us, we can see many things that are positive in our lives. Our congregation's home is a beautiful and historic synagogue, but it is those who enter its portals who provide a spiritual connection. It serves as an anchor in the community and the spiritual resting place for Shabbat services and life-cycle events.

As a congregation, we breathe life into a building. Our prayers rise up in unison and are joined by the prayers of Jews around the world. We are a small congregation in a small community, but a part of a bonded family committed to making the world a better place for generations to come. As we light our sabbath candles, we both remember and observe- our history, our tradition, our covenantal promises.

As we go out into this cool, crisp air of October, let us find reasons for joy in our daily lives, and let us find ways to make a difference in the lives of others.

Wishing you peace, health, and joy in this new year.

Nancy Burnett

President, Congregation Rodef Sholom

RODEF SHOLOM SISTERHOOD NEWS

Prayer - Study– Network– Get Connected! The future is ours to create!

Dear Sisterhood Members (Sisters), Board Members, Congregants, & Friends-

Sisterhood would like to extend their thanks to the entire congregation for all of the support that we have received for our Soup, Sweets, & Crusty Bread fundraiser. Due to COVID, this fundraiser is taking the place of our Annual Card Party, and it enables us to continue our commitments to the congregation. Although we cannot be together in person, Kandy and I are delighted that you are still able to enjoy and savor Kandy's delicious soup and treats! Thank you to Kandy for all of her hard work that she has put in to make this fundraiser a success!

Sisterhood will be having an important Virtual Meeting on Tuesday, November 2, 2021 at 10:30am. We have much to talk about, and there will be an agenda sent out before the meeting. Kandy and I are looking forward to seeing all of you. Zoom info will be sent prior to the meeting.

"Anything is possible when you have the right people all the time to support your endeavors."

With Love and Sisterhood,

Co-Presidents Sally M. Blau and Kandy Rawl
