Saturday, October 20th, 12:00 - 1:30 PM: Or Atid's Adult Education team proudly presents a lunch-and-learn series, taking place on selected Shabbats throughout the year. Join us for food and conversation as we discuss our first topic, "Jewish Prayer: What is going on at services, and what am I supposed to be doing?" Rabbi Hal will lead us in discussion and interactive activities, as we take a deeper look into the prayer service and how we connect to it. You are welcome to come to Shabbat services in the morning, or just to come for the lunch-and-learn. Click here to RSVP.

Saturday, October 20th, 6:00 - 8:00 PM: Or Atid teens in 8th-12th grade are invited to join Beth-El teens for our kickoff KOACH event. We will host a teen-led potluck dinner, centered around getting to know each other through team-building activities. We encourage parent participation as well, KOACH isn't just about bringing youth together, but about the whole community. Check out the evite page for more information, and to RSVP.

Sunday, October 21st, 10:00 AM: Please join us for a Congregational Meeting. We will be discussing changes to the constitution as well as the financial state of the congregation.

Bagels and coffee will be served at 9:30 AM. Click here to view the proposed constitutional changes.

Sunday, October 21st, 12:30 - 3:30 PM: Or Atid students in 2nd-7th grade are invited to our first Ruach/Kadima kickoff event. This is a joint youth program with Beth-El students, and we will all be meeting at the Gallmeyer Farms for an afternoon of Pumpkin Picking. Visit the evite page for more information, and to RSVP.

Tuesday, October 23rd, 9:00 AM - 12:00 PM: Please consider donating your time and joining the Mitzvah Corp to volunteer with Feedmore. For more information, contact Sandy Weiner.

Saturday, October 27th, 10:00 AM: Rabbi Hal and Jena Schevitz would like to invite the congregation to a special Shabbat service to celebrate the baby naming of their new daughter, Arielle Hannah Schevitz.

Sunday, November 11th, 10:30 AM: Ways and Means Committee is excited to announce that Congregation Or Atid will be hosting a showing of the movie, Big Sonia, at the Bow Tie Cinema, located at 1301 N. Boulevard. Following the movie, there will be a talkback discussion with special guests, Senator Jennifer McClellan, Sam Asher, CEO of the Virginia Holocaust Museum, and Jonathan Zur, President and CEO of the Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities. The discussion will focus on what the movie can teach us about injustice, tolerance, and inclusivity within our own community. Tickets are $15 and include popcorn and a drink, and student discounts are available. Click here for more information, and to order your tickets.

If you would like to sponsor Oneg or Kiddush, please contact Marilyn Wiener at 804 740-6856 or mbwiener48@yahoo.com.

October 18th, 7:00 PM: Visit the Sara D. November Gallery, located in the Weinstein JCC, for the opening reception of Hal

Horwitz's Orchid Exhibition. A Richmond native himself, Horwitz traveled across the U.S. in an attempt to photograph all 200 orchids native to the country. Over dozens of trips into the habitats of these plants, Horwitz created a photographic record as remarkable for its scope as for its beauty. The show will run until November 23rd, and is free and open to the public.

Wednesday, October 24th, 6:30 PM: The Virginia Museum of History and Culture invites you to a film screening of the documentary, G.I. JEWS: Jewish Americans in World War II. A profound and unique story of the 550,000 Jewish men and women who served in World War II, the film brings to life the little-known stories of Jews during the war. The event is free and open to all, click here for more information.

Sunday, October 28th, 4:00 PM: The JCC invites everyone to discover the unique combination of comedy, juggling, music, and technology in 4D. Watch, and be amazed by world champion juggler, Mark Nizer, as he juggles laser beams, a burning propane tank, and a 16 pound bowling ball. Every ticket includes 3D glasses, so you can experience the full effect! Click here for more information, and to register for the event.
