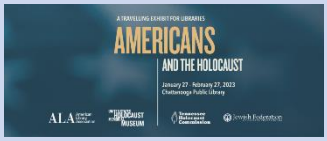
Rabbi Ken Kanter:
Scholar-in-Residence weekend
January 27-28, 2023

Rabbi Ken Kanter will will be our special guest at Friday services, January 27. Rabbi Kanter was a longtime rabbi at Mizpah from 1983 to 1993. He and his late wife Wendy Kanter were friends to so many here. Rabbi Kanter was the Associate Dean and Director of the Rabbinical School at Hebrew Union College in Cincinnati and now serves as the Rabbinic Director of Roots of Reform Judaism.

Rabbi Kanter will share the bimah on Friday with Rabbi Lewis, and join us to facilitate our Torah Study on Saturday.

Social Action Call to Action:



Please join me in volunteering to be a docent for the upcoming Holocaust exhibit from the end of January to the end of February. You can choose how many hours and which hours you would like to volunteer during that month. The library desperately needs 15 more volunteers for this important exhibit.

A new way to schedule an appointment with Rabbi Lewis.

Rabbi Lewis is now using Calendly. If you would like to schedule an appointment, please click the link below, select the time of 30 or 60 minutes, and let him know what the nature of the meeting is. If this involves a home visit or some other off-site location, please indicate that too so he may plan accordingly. If the meeting will be by phone or Zoom, please provide a contact number.
