From the Rabbi

Dear Friends,

It has been a beautiful transition from the Hebrew month of Av into Elul and the season of reflection at TOL. We will soon welcome in the New Year of 5779, make good on our vows to do better in the coming year with Yom Kippur, properly welcome in fall with the celebration of Sukkot, and begin the new cycle of Torah reading with Simchat Torah. Before moving forward, we look back on a wonderful month that celebrated the b'nei mitzvah of Kerry Reddy and Sheldon Coffman. As the culmination of many long hours of study, these outstanding students led beautiful and inspiring Shabbat Evening and Morning Services. Kerry spoke about the importance of staying humble and Sheldon reminded us about what it takes to be a good, impactful leader. I wish them and their families Mazal Tov on a job well done!

On September 1st, we will welcome members from Beth Shalom Synagogue to Tree of Life for our joint observance of Selichot. At 7:00 pm we will come together to catch up, at 7:30 pm we will screen a short film on forgiveness with discussion to follow, and at 8:00 pm we will transition into the spirit of the High Holy days with Havdalah and our Selichot service. Between September 9th and September 30th, there will be many opportunities to reflect, pray, and learn. As such, I encourage everyone to please look over the full schedule of services and events during the very busy Hebrew month of Tishrei. After the High Holy Days, things really get going again at TOL. Be sure to check out our calendar of events for upcoming Adult Education opportunities and special events starting in October!

From my family to yours,

Shanah Tovah U'Metukah
Wishing us all a sweet, happy, and healthy 5779!

We have a wonderful program here at TOL, one in which our kids are not only learning about Judaism and Hebrew, but also critical thinking, social and emotional intelligence, and problem solving. Be sure to recommend the program to your friends and let them know about all the advantages of being a member at TOL!

Is Simchat Torah usually past your bed time?

Please join us for our community-wide morning celebration!

*To celebrate on Erev Simchat Torah proper, Beth Shalom will be hosting evening services on Monday, October 1st at 6:30 pm.

Brotherhood

The Brotherhood has several events coming up in September. On Sunday, September 16th, we will be preparing our annual pancake breakfast for the first day of Sunday School. Also on September 16th, we will be doing some needed maintenance on the Sukkah in preparation for our Sukkah construction on Sunday, September 23rd. We will needs lots of volunteers to cut bamboo and help construct our Sukkah. Please bring ladders, gloves, and tools for cutting the bamboo for the roof.

Please plan on coming out and supporting the Tree of Life Brotherhood and the Tree of Life on both these Sundays. Contact me at treeoflifebh@gmail.com or call me at (803) 261-1041 to let me know if you can help out.

Thanks and Shalom,

Brotherhood president

WRJ / Sisterhood

First of all, WRJ would like to wish everyone in the Tree of Life family a joyous and meaningful High Holy Day experience, and a healthy, happy, and prosperous New Year!

Two successful events happened in August. First, on August 12th was our annual event to benefit the WRJ Youth, Education, and Special Projects (YES) Fund. Two special guest speakers from WRJ Southeast District brought us up-to-date on new activities in advocacy for women's issues that YES is funding, in addition to the youth and rabbinical education activities that we have known them for in years past. Although attendance was light, the ladies were quite generous in response to the program.

Then on August 24th WRJ helped to revive the annual TOL New Member Ice Cream Social. This special Oneg Shabbat was well attended, and new members and visitors were recognized and welcomed. There was plenty of ice cream and toppings for all!

We also have two upcoming events in the works. Meredith Sella, with the rest of the WRJ Board, is hard at work on the special Rosh Hashanah Oneg, traditionally provided by WRJ. Thanks to everyone who has volunteered to bring goodies for the Oneg – it promises to be bigger and better than ever to welcome in a sweet New Year.

Also on the books is our 2018-2019 membership drive, focusing on our Opening Meeting scheduled for Sunday, October 14th. Mark your calendars, and stay tuned for more details! Our new membership policy states that all Tree of Life women are automatically members of WRJ, and we are extending membership to ladies in the greater Columbia area who do not have their own organizations, including Beth Shalom, Sumter, and Camden. However, we do still need funds to operate, so we are asking for as many as possible to take the additional step of becoming dues-paying members.

Again, L'Shanah Tovah from WRJ!

Terry Garber
Sisterhood President

Green Team

The Green Team is reorganizing as part of the House and Grounds Committee. A major undertaking this year will be completing the GreenFaith Energy Shield. The House and Grounds Utilities Subcommittee will be heading this effort. Special thanks go to Erica Pfister and Paul Westfall for handling conversion to programmable thermo-stats. We will save money on power bills in the future. We will have an Energy Shabbat service on November 30, and activities for kids and teens. We will also be asking households to complete an Energy Pledge. Please help us earn the Energy Shield by taking the Energy Pledge.

Special thanks to Cheri Dawson, who ran our annual Holland Bulb sale. The profits benefit our projects.

For those who have not visited our award winning rain garden, there is an ADA compliant walkway near the right side of the building.

We continue our trek through National Geographic's "50 Most Influential Figures of the Bible" and discuss the more obscure aspects of our most beloved biblical accounts.

Caring Committee

Taking Care of each other at Tree of Life

Members of Tree of Life worship, celebrate and learn together but we also need to do more – we need to support one another in times of illness, injury, loss and isolation, and other life changing situations.

To better meet the needs of our TOL community in their time of need, a Caring Committee has been formed. This committee will work together with the Rabbi to make sure that no member of the congregation feels alone and to provide meals and other support to our members when they need help.

The core committee members are Linda Ackerman, Terry Garber, Laney Cohen and Debbie Brett and chaired by Annette Goldstein. Members of our congregation are being asked to join as our "army of volunteers". Once a need is determined, the list of volunteers would be notified of what is needed allowing our army to spring into action!

One volunteer could prepare all or part of a meal (or pick up food rather than cook) and another volunteer might deliver the meal. The goal is to provide what is needed without over burdening the volunteer.

This provides the opportunity for many people to share leadership roles in a given year, while ensuring that everyone who wants to contribute can do so without feeling overwhelmed.

The committee recognizes that there are many needs during stressful times; however, as a new committee, we will initially start with only providing meals. It is our desire to eventually provide assistance for other needs during stressful life changing situations.
