Rabbi’s Message:
Rashi explains that the use of the word Behaalotcha, as you go up, teaches us that there was a platform upon which the Cohen stood in order to light the menorah in the Mishkan. Yet, the height of the Menorah was 18 tefachim which was somewhere in between 4.7 to 5.6 inches. According to this analysis the menorah could have been easily lit without the need for any platform. Why then was a platform necessary? The Mito Haomer explains that Aharon was wearing the Tzitz Hazahav, the gold head piece, upon which the name of Hashem was engraved. The Gemara in Masechet Tamid states the halacha that the Kohanim may not raise their hands above the Tzitz. It was for this reason that the platform was necessary, Aharon was able to light the Menorah without raising his hands above his head.

The Rav in Thought and Deed” takes place in the upstairs Beit Medrash 5 minutes after the 9:15 AM minyan concludes. We utilize the Koren/Rabbi Soloveitchik edition siddur to gain insight into the specifics of our regular weekly minyan.
