RABBI’S MESSAGE
This Pesach will certainly be a little strange. However, that doesn't mean we can't enjoy it or take meaning from it.
We have 3 days to switch off from the news and concentrate on Hashem and His mitzvos. I have attached some useful resources to help guide you through preparing for pesach, the seder, and chol hamoed davening.

I know it has been a difficult time and we have all been going stir-crazy in isolation: but we made it to Pesach.
It's times like this I am comforted that as Jews, no matter what happens around the world or whatever situations we may come to,
we continue to keep our traditions. Just as 3332 years ago, we made the brave Exodus to Yerushalayim, we should return there (without 40 years interim in the wilderness). May we appreciate freedom a bit more this year because we have had a taste of what it's like to not be able to live and do exactly as we please these days. Reading the haggadah should be a comfort for all of us that no matter how difficult things may be now, we are nowhere near the enslavement we experienced in Egypt. This is an opportunity for us to connect more deeply to the story of Pesach and truly count our blessings.

On behalf of myself and my wife, I wish you a Kasher v'Sameach Pesach.

JEWISH HUMOR
A Jewish woman goes to see her Rabbi and asks, "Yankele and Yosele are both in love with me, who will be the lucky one?" The wise old Rabbi answers, "Yankele will marry you; Yosele will be the lucky one!
