LAWS OF THE THREE WEEKS
The three weeks between Shiva Assar B’Tammuz and Tisha B’Av are a period of national mourning for our people over the loss of our first and second Beit Hamikdash. The mourning intensifies as the period progresses until it reaches a climax on Tisha B’Av itself. Following is a summary of the laws that apply during the various stages.

Laws for the Entire Three Weeks

1. Shiva Assar B’Tammuz, which ushers in the Three Weeks, is a fast day. This year it falls out on Tuesday, July 19th. The fast begins at 3:58AM and ends at 9:12PM.
2. It is forbidden to take haircuts during the three weeks.
3. Weddings and social gatherings are forbidden.
4. New clothes should not be purchased during the Three Weeks so as to avoid the need to recite the blessing of "Shehecheyanu".

YOUTH

Many thanks to Sarah and Etan Walls for sponsoring all group snacks in honor of their son Joe's 2nd birthday.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING UPDATES FOR OUR SHABBOS GROUPS

In an effort to improve fire safety, we will be moving the 2 and 3 year old shabbos groups to the middle classroom in the Justin Family Center. We are pleased to have Raimi Tuchinsky as our summer morah in this group.

To ensure that shabbos groups run smoothly, we ask that parents do NOT stay in the classrooms with their children. If your child is uncomfortable staying in groups without you, there is a designated playroom for parents and toddlers in Shoshana's old office. Children should also be the appropriate age for the group in which they are participating. Older siblings should NOT be left in the rooms to care for their younger siblings. We have hired sufficient staff to make sure the kids are well taken care of while in groups.

Thank you for your cooperation. If you have any questions or comments, please contact Etan Walls or Allegra Goldberg.
