CHESED

With the assistance of several community members, Shoshana Poupko is coordinating efforts to stay in contact with our seniors and our more vulnerable neighbors. While the group of volunteers is sizable and diligent, there is always the possibility of missing an individual who is in need. If you know anyone who requires assistance, please contact:

Shoshana Poupko	shoshanakp@gmail.com	646-207-2256
Debbie Prince	dprince830@gmail.com	201-321-2193

Annette Schabes annette@annetteschabes.com 201-873-6347

Thank you Shoshana, Debbie, Annette and to all the volunteers for providing much needed help.

If you are able to help support the assistance efforts financially, your aid is welcome. Please donate as you are able to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund with the notation to earmark the donation "Chaverim".

MEMBERSHIP

- The CAT Welcoming Committee "buddy family program". Help a new family learn about and navigate the community. To participate - contact Ahuva Warburg Halpern or Sara Izrailev at welcome@ahavathtorah.org

GENERAL INFORMATION

- To respect the privacy of our Mikvah patrons, please enter and exit the building in the evenings from the front doors and do not loiter in the synagogue parking lot. Thank you.
- Ahavath Torah strives to maintain a safe environment and place of holiness, spirituality, and engagement for all our Members and guests. Due to concerns for nut allergies Congregation Ahavath Torah is a "nut aware" facility. Accordingly all food at Congregation Ahavath Torah for both public and private events, may not contain nuts or nut products of any kind. This includes, by way of example and not limitation, raw nuts of any kind and peanut butter products (cookies, cake, etc.) of any kind.
