Yom Kippur …… September 19, 2018
Shemini Atzeret …… October 1, 2018
8th Day of Passover …..April 27, 2019
2nd Day of Shavuot ….. June 10, 2019

Yizkor means God Will Remember

The Yizkor Service takes place four times each year:

Yom Kippur,
Shemini Atzeret
(the day between Sukkot and Simchat Torah),
the last day of Passover
and the second day of Shavuot.

The Yizkor Service allows individuals, whether mourning a recent or more-distant loss, to take solace in the words of Jewish tradition and to find comfort among the members of their Jewish community.
There is a time for everything;
There is a time for all things under the sun.

_A time to be born and a time to die_
_A time to laugh and a time to cry_
_A time to dance and a time to mourn_
_A time to seek and a time to lose_
_A time to forget and a time to remember_

This day in sacred convocation
We remember those who gave us life.

_This day we remember those who_ _Enriched our lives with love and with beauty,
With kindness, compassion, thoughtfulness, and understanding._

This day we renew the bonds that bind us to those Who have gone the way of all the earth.

_As we reflect upon those whose memories move us this day,
we seek consolation,
and we seek the strength and insight born of Faith._

EACH OF US HAS A NAME
(by Zelda; translated by Marcia Falk)

Each of us has a name
given by the Source of Life
and given by our parents

Each of us has a name
given by our stature and our smile and given by what we wear

Each of us has a name
given by the mountains
and given by our walls

Each of us has a name
given by the stars
and given by our neighbors

Each of us has a name
given by our sins
and given by our longing

Each of us has a name
given by our enemies
and given by our love

Each of us has a name
given by our celebrations
and given by our work

Each of us has a name
given by the seasons
and given by our blindness

Each of us has a name
given by the sea
and given by our death
WHEN I STRAY FROM YOU

When I Stray From You, Adonai, my life is as death; but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.

The earth inherits that which perishes.

But only the dust returns to dust; the soul, which is God’s, is immortal.

God has compassion for God’s creatures.

God has planted eternity within our soul, granting us a share in God’s unending life.

God redeems our life from the grave.

During our brief life on earth God gives us choices.

We can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we all be charitable in deed and thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

PSALM 23

A PSALM OF DAVID

ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God gives me repose in green meadows
and guides me over calm waters.
God will receive my spirit
and direct me on the right path—
for that is God’s way
Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death
I fear no harm for You are by my side.
Your staff and Your rod comfort me.
You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:
You anoint my head with oils; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion
all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of ADONAI forever.

MEDITATION

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death’s dominion as we now remember our brothers and sisters, grandparents, and other relatives and friends. The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessings which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

A PERSONAL MEDITATION

Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering. May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time, not falsified by sentimentality. Let me recall them, and love them, as they were.

Give me the gift of tears. Let me express my sense of loss, my sorrow, my pain, as well as my gratitude and my love.

Give me the gift of prayer. May I confront You with an open heart, with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed.

Give me the gift of hope. May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy. May I surrender my being, and the soul of the dead, to Your eternal compassion.
