The desire to be remembered lives within our genetic makeup. It is the age-old reason people carve their initials in trees, place their hands in cement, and chalk their names on rocks. They want to leave their mark. They want to be remembered. But for the living, the real marks they leave are the ones they’ve left on us. A hug. A smile. A timely word of advice. We want to remember those we’ve loved and lost, not only for them, but also as importantly for ourselves, to mend, to heal, to live, and never to forget.

It is the custom of our congregation to inscribe the names of departed loved ones in the Roll of Remembrance. If you would like to memorialize a departed family member or friend this year, please complete the online form below.

A PDF version of this booklet will be available on our website or at your request indicated below, a printed copy available prior to Yom Kippur Services.
