

“May They Be Bound Up in the Bond of Eternal Life”

Yizkor Memorial Book
2020/5781 - Volume 60

WE REMEMBER

Rabbis Lauren Holtzblatt & Aaron Alexander

As we come together this Yizkor morning, we remember.
We remember their laughter,
Their sorrow and joy.

Moments in time become etched in our memories. Time stands still.
We stand this morning with individual memories, individual losses and sorrow, but we also stand together as an intricate web bound together through loss and love.

Just as love transcends boundaries, our memories have the powerful effect of evoking our heart's deepest treasures.

As we stand here today, may we feel the courage to open our hearts, to mark our losses and to be guided by the memories and commitments we have been entrusted to honor.

SEASONS

Carol Ansell

How many Springs have you seen, old man?
How many lovers have passed your eyes
On how many April days?
And the Summers. . .the Summers. . .
Does your mouth still go dry
Thinking of long stretches of sand
Walked alone. . . .

What of the autumns, old man?
How many trees have laid their burdens at your feet,
How many winds taught you the patterns
Of paper in the street?

Oh to have seen so much, and yet to know
That winter must descend.
For look, there is snow in your hair,
Frost begins to touch your eyes, and see
The dandelions that grew this morning
Are turning gray,

Tomorrow they'll be gone. . . .

WHEN DEATH COMES

Mary Oliver

When death comes
like the hungry bear in autumn;
when death comes and takes all the bright coins from his purse to buy me, and snaps the purse shut;

when death comes
like the measles-pox

when death comes
like an iceberg between the shoulder blades,

I want to step through the door full of curiosity, wondering:
what is it going to be like, that cottage of darkness?

And therefore I look upon everything as a brotherhood and a sisterhood, and I look upon time as no more than an idea,
and I consider eternity as another possibility, and I think of each life as a flower, as common as a field daisy, and as singular, and each name a comfortable music in the mouth,

tending, as all music does, toward silence,

and each body a lion of courage, and something precious to the earth.

When it's over, I want to say all my life
I was a bride married to amazement.
I was the bridegroom, taking the world into my arms.

When it's over, I don't want to wonder if I have made of my life something particular, and real.

I don't want to find myself sighing and frightened, or full of argument.

I don't want to end up simply having visited this world

YEISH KOCHAVIM

Original Hebrew text: Hannah Szenesh

Music & Translation: Jeff Klepper, Andrea Jill Higgins, Daniel Freelander

There are stars up above, so far away we only see their light
Long, long after the star itself is gone.
And so it is with people we have loved.
Their memories keep shining ever brightly,
Though their time with us is done.
But the stars that light up the darkest night,
These are the lights that guide us.
As we live our days, these are the ways we remember, we remember.
As we live our days, these are the ways we remember, we remember.

DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP

Mary Elizabeth Frye, adapted by Rabbi Jeffrey A. Wohlberg

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the field of ripening grain.

I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.

I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room,
I am the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,
Remember that I lived, forget I died.

WHEN ALL THAT'S LEFT IS LOVE

Rabbi Allen S. Maller

When I die
If you need to weep
Cry for someone
Walking the street beside you.
You can love me most by letting Hands touch hands, and Souls touch souls.
You can love me most by Sharing your Simchas and Multiplying your Mitzvot.
You can love me most by
Letting me live in your eyes
And not on your mind.
And when you say Kaddish for me
Remember what our Torah teaches,
Love doesn't die
People do.
So when all that's left of me is love
Give me away.

PLANTING FOR MY CHILDREN

Babylonian Talmud, Ta'anit 23a, as quoted in Jewish Wisdom by Joseph Telushkin

A rabbi named Choni saw a man planting a carob tree. “How many years does it take until this carob tree will bear fruit?” he asked the man.

“Seventy years.”

Choni said to him, “Do you think you will live seventy more years?”

The man replied, “I found a world containing fully grown carob trees, and just as my ancestors planted those trees for me, so too, will I plant them for my children.”

PSALM 121

PRELUDE: A SONG OF ASCENT

אָשָׁא עַיִןִי אֶל הַהֲרִים מֵאַיִן יָבֹא עֹזֶרֶי.
עֹזֶרֶי מִعְםַי ה' עָשָׂה שְׁמִים וְאָרֶץ.
אֶל-יִתּוֹ לְפָמֹת רְגָדָךְ, אֶל-יִנוּם שְׁמָרָךְ.
הַנִּיחָה לְאַיִנוּם וְלֹא יִשְׁחַן שָׁוֹמֵר יִשְׁרָאֵל.
ה' שְׁמָרָךְ ה' צָלָךְ עַל יְדֵי מְנֻכָּה.
יוֹמָם הַשְׁמָשָׁה לֹא יַכְפֵּה, וַיַּרְתֵּם בְּלִילָה.
ה' יִשְׁמָרָךְ מִכְלְרָעָה, יִשְׁמָר אֶת-נְפָשָׁךְ.
ה' יִשְׁמָר צָאתְךָ וּבָואָךְ מַעֲטָה וְעַד עַזְלָם.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
What is the source of my help?

My help comes from the Lord,
Maker of the heavens and the earth.

The Lord will not allow you to stumble,
Your Guardian will not slumber.

Indeed, the Guardian of Israel
Neither slumbers nor sleeps.

The Lord is your Guardian,
Your shelter at your side.

The sun will not smite you by day
Nor the moon by night.

The Lord will guard you against all evil;
The Lord will guard you, body and soul.

The Lord will guard your going out
And your coming home, now and forever.

VE'ULAI (DID I DREAM?)

וְאֹולִי

וְאֹולִי לֹא חָיו מְדֻבְּרִים מַעוֹלִים,
אוֹלִי . . . מַעוֹלִים לֹא חֶשְׁכָּמָתִי עִם שְׁמָרְלָגָנוּ,
לְעִבְדוֹ בֵּיעַת אֲפִי
מַעוֹלִים, בִּינִים אֲרָכִים וַיּוֹקְדִים שֶׁל קָצִיר,
בְּמִרְזָמִי עַגְלָה צָמֹיסָת אַלְמֹות,
לֹא נִתְתַּחַטְתִּי קּוֹלִי בְּשִׁירִי?
מַעוֹלִים לֹא טְמָרָתִי בְּתִיכְלָת שְׂוֹקָטָה וּבְתוּם
שֶׁל כְּנֶרֶת שֶׁלִי . . . הָוי כְּנֶרֶת שֶׁלִי, חַמְּיִית אוֹ חַלְמָתִי מְלוּסָם?

Did I dream?

Was our valley not bathed in a soft, mystic gleam?

Did I dream -- when I woke

And I hastened to go to my garden down by the stream?

There to plow -- and to plant all the seeds of the fields

With my hands and the sweat of my brow,

Through the day -- 'til the shadows of evening would fall

And the sky would once more be gray.

And the singing I heard came from gardens close by

Where I saw the Kinneret was blue

As if part of the sky.

Can it be that my dream has come true?

Shel Kinneret sheli,

Hoi, Kinneret sheli,

He-hayit o chalam-ti chalom.

High Holy Day Prayerbook

We pay reverential tribute to the young men in our congregation who sanctified our liberty with their lives. Our debt to them can never be fully repaid except by our own consecration to the principles of democracy and by our dedication to the doctrine of the sanctity of each human being.

"For this shall the earth mourn and the heaven above be black."
(Jeremiah)

In the dark era of Nazi infamy, one-third of our people were brutally annihilated. Neither time nor distance shall cause memory to dim. Their travail must remain a solemn admonition to the conscience of mankind. Let the eternal spirit of Israel redeem their martyrdom from the ashes of oblivion.

These lives are sacred to members of our Congregation:

O God of Life, in whom there is no death and in whose presence we are called to live as immortal spirits, our thoughts turn to loved ones whom we greatly miss. Their absence has taken from us a treasure the world cannot restore. Yesterday they were with us; now they are with Thee.
