

Temple Israel

Yom Kippur Yizkor

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

a loving keepsake from the Women of Temple Israel

“They still live on earth in the acts of goodness they performed and in the hearts of those who cherish their memory.”

We Remember Them

(adapted from reading by Sylvan Kamens and Jack Reimer)

At the rising of the sun and at its going down
we remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter
we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring
we remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn
we remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends
we remember them.

AS LONG AS WE LIVE, THEY TOO WILL LIVE;
FOR THEY ARE NOW PART OF US,
WE REMEMBER THEM.

When we are weary and in need of strength
we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart
we remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share
we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make
we remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs
we remember them.

AS LONG AS WE LIVE, THEY TOO WILL LIVE;
FOR THEY ARE NOW A PART OF US, AND WE REMEMBER THEM.

Rabbi's Message

The loss of a loved one throws every aspect of our lives out of balance. The closer we were to the person who died, the more havoc the loss creates. Love does not die quickly. Hence to grieve is also "to celebrate the depth of the union. Tears are then the jewels of remembrance, sad but glistening with the beauty of the past. So grief in its bitterness marks the end...but it also is praise to the one who is gone." (Judy Tatelbaum; in Mishkan Hanefesh: Machzor for the Days of Awe, p.549)

They are our parents and children, our spouses and siblings, our friends and role models. They inspired us, challenged us, and left their indelible mark of life upon our souls. When we come to the Yizkor service on Yom Kippur, in word and song we intone their names and let our hearts speak from the sacred inner chamber of grief and loss, of honor and love. Our tears, our "jewels of remembrance," bespeak our undying love.

This year on Yom Kippur, we may be physically distant but spiritually united by the presence of cherished memories and the power of Yizkor. Starting at 4:30pm on September 16 via livestream, we will take time to remember those whose lives have amplified our own through prayer, story, and song. Despite the imbalance we may feel from our individual loss and grief, we will strive for menuchat hanefesh - equanimity - together in community.

Zichronam livracha - May 5782 be a year filled with strengthening memories of everyone who gave our lives meaning, and may you know abiding safety, health, and peace.

Rabbi Sharon Mars

In Loving Remembrance

On this day of Atonement we recall with gratitude our loved ones whose days on earth were a blessing and whose memory is for us a source of consolation and high inspiration.

Guided by their teaching, enriched by their example, ennobled by their love, we tread our road of life. Thus, in deed and word we do honor their memory and render them our tribute of love.

These We Remember...

“All you who mourn the loss of loved ones, and, at this hour, remember the sweet companionship and the cherished hopes that have passed away with them, give ear to the word of comfort spoken in the name of God. Only the body has died and has been laid in the dust. The spirit lives in the shelter of God’s love and mercy. Our loved ones continue, also in the remembrance of those to whom they were precious. Their deeds of loving-kindness, the true and beautiful words they spoke are treasured up as incentives to conduct by which the living honor the dead.”

REFLECTIONS

There are stars whose radiance is visible on earth though they have long been extinct.

There are people whose brilliance continues to light the world though they are no longer among the living.

These lights are particularly bright when the night is dark.
They light the way for humankind.

~ Hannah Senesh

Let the glory of God be extolled, and God's great name be hallowed in the world whose creation God willed.
May God rule in our own day, in our own lives, and in the life of all Israel, and let us say: Amen.

Let God's great name be blessed for ever and ever.

Beyond all the praises, songs, and adorations that we can utter is the Holy One, the Blessed One, whom yet we glorify, honor, and exalt. And let us say: Amen.

For us and for all Israel, may the blessing of peace and the promise of life come true, and let us say: Amen.

May the One who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, cause peace to reign among us, all Israel, and all the world, and let us say: Amen.

“In the life of the spirit, there is no ending that is not a beginning.”

~ Henrietta Szold

God is my shepherd, I shall not want.
God makes me lie down in green pastures,
Leads me beside still waters, and restores my soul.

You lead me in right paths for the sake of Your name.
Even when I walk in the valley of the shadow of death
I shall fear no evil, for You are with me;

Your rod and Your staff - they comfort me.
You have set a table before me
In the presence of my enemies;
You have anointed my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of God forever.

*The ancient words, I don't understand them
They are in a language, I do not know*

Why are they so familiar?

There is a rhythm to them, a beat a pulse I understand

*From somewhere very deep inside me
My heart, my soul
I am connected to a past I never lived and to a future I shall not know*

*A member of the human race
Running through my time*

And still, connected to many lives which came before me so many cultures, faces, tears and joys

A Jew, connected To the past, to a future

*Hoping always
That peace and love will finally come to all the world
That we may really live with no barriers
And each of us, in the comfort and beauty of our varied traditions*

Long before I understood what it means to be Jewish I knew that I was part of something larger than myself beyond my comprehension

The Kaddish reminds me every week of my family, and my friends
