- ❖ We respectfully request that no food from the kiddushim should be taken out of the social hall or the lobby areas into other parts of our building. We also ask parents to watch that their children respect this rule as well. Thank you for helping us keep our shul clean and insect free.
- ❖ We regret to announce the passing of Helen Schiffmiller, A”H, beloved mother of Marty Schiffmiller. Shiva will continue at the Schiffmiller home in Oceanside, 3236 Judith Lane, from Thurs morning Nov 8th through Mon morning, Nov 12th.

- ❖ The Women’s Tehillim Group is looking for more members!
Details: Ladies meet every Monday night at 8 pm in the youth lounge (upstairs) at the YIO. It’s about a 15-20 minute commitment of your time and if you can’t make it to the shul at that time, you can always be part of the group by reading your designated tehillim at home. There is power in numbers so the more that join, the stronger the group! If interested in signing up, please contact Tamara Brand at 718-928-4773 or Eva Torczyner at (516) 287-4801.
- ❖ Refuah Shleima to Heshy Berenholz who is recuperating from hip surgery at home.
