

SHANA TOVA – HAPPY NEW YEAR

From our Rabbi

It is said that perception is 99 percent of reality; and here is a parable that illustrates the need for a healthy attitude.

Two people, each carrying a load of rocks were walking side by side. One is singing while the other is kvetching (complaining). Why? The answer given; look at the content of the load. The one who is singing is carrying a load of precious stones and is happy, in fact he wishes the load was heavier. The one complaining is carrying a load of ordinary worthless rocks. He sees his load as a mere burden.

Life comes with responsibility. We carry heavy loads. Recognizing the true value of our load will determine our attitude to fulfilling our responsibilities.

This entire year has been extremely rewarding. Shul attendance has been strong with many new families and lots of young people joining us in services.

Our first virtual summer Gala honouring our families and Murray Dalfen raised a record sum of funds. Murray's devotion to our shul is evident and this Gala was a beautiful tribute to him. A Yasher Koach to all our gracious supporters and committee members of Gala 2021. May G-d fulfill all your wishes with much joy.

Much bracha to our President, Elliot Berzan, to our newly elected Board, Women's Council and to office staff. Our shul continues to thrive and may we continue to carry our load with much joy.

Spectacular is the word I feel describes our shul! We marvel at the mix of people we attract. Everyone enjoys, feels uplifted and very much at home. Our House of Israel can be called the 'Kotel' of Quebec.

Shana Tova; a happy, sweet New Year! May the coming year usher in peace, good health, prosperity and happiness for you and your families.

SHANA TOVA – HAPPY NEW YEAR

From our President

I am delighted to report that our House of Israel is thriving despite the Covid. Our Zoom Gala in honour of all our families and in tribute to Murray Dalfen was a huge success; by the quality of the presentation, the number of participants and viewers and the amount of money raised. A huge thank you to all and especially to Murray Dalfen.

We have made our synagogue as Covid proof as possible. Every second row is blocked off to ensure social distancing. Wearing face masks is mandatory while walking around and although not essential while sitting quietly in one's seat, most attendees keep their masks in place throughout the service.

Rabbi Carlebach has been incredibly busy delivering Challahs, signing up new members and staying in touch with as many members as possible. He also participated in a pre-Shabbat Flotilla on Lake Manitou. Yasher Koach Rabbi!

Our Nominating Committee has signed on a slew of young members to join our Board for the coming year and we are delighted to have them participate.

The High Holiday services at the present time are scheduled to be held inside the Shul this year. We can accommodate about 60 attendees, slightly more with families within the same bubble, all safely and social distanced. The Executive are closely monitoring the covid situation and will remain vigilant and flexible to ensure the safety of all.

The central obligation of Rosh Hashana is to hear; to listen to the Shofar. The Chassidic Masters liken the cry of the Shofar to the cry of a child wishing to be reunited with a parent. There are no words to express the longing that is so deep and so true. Rabbi Carlebach will be holding a special Shofar blowing on the two afternoons of Rosh Hashana at 2:00 p.m. for all who wish to attend. Please join us for this incredible event. For more information, call the Rabbi.

On behalf of my wife Gail and myself, we wish you all a good, sweet and peaceful year! Shana Tovah!

Elliot Berzan

A SPECIAL SUMMER VIRTUAL GALA 2021

The summer Gala this year had to be virtual again due to COVID restrictions however our President Elliot Berzan came up with a great idea. He suggested that the Gala be in tribute to one of our Past Presidents, Murray Dalfen and to all the Families of the House of Israel. Yasher Koach to Elliot and his committee for organizing this spectacular event!

A star performer from Israel, Gad Elbaz was selected as the first class entertainment and personal virtual videos were submitted by members of our shul. All the Tributes were beautiful and gracious and showed people's personal feelings about Murray's devotion to our shul and how very special our country shul is.

Murray often quotes - "The House of Israel is a beacon of light in the Laurentian Mountains." How true!

To honour Murray there were collages of photographs of his family and tributes to the many contributions he has made to support and upgrade the shul. But the highlight was Murray's wife Karen who interjected and shared personal and witty anecdotes about her husband. Very well done, articulate & quite humorous. Yasher Koach to Karen!

The Tributes made by other members and friends were heartwarming, complimentary, respectful and very appreciative and many "Brachas" were bestowed upon Murray.

Gad Elbaz ended the show with a star performance of two of the most beautiful songs about our homeland Israel. "Yerushalim shel Zahav" and "Hatikvah". These songs have a very special connection for all of us making us feel proud, inspired and grateful for our land Israel; reminding us of how thankful we are to have a homeland, our Democratic country Canada, our Jewish traditions that have kept us together throughout history, our shul in the mountains, our health and our families and friends! In all the event was a huge success and a great fundraiser!

* lit from a preexisting flame

Please refer to our calendar for the exact candle lighting times for subsequent Shabbats.

PROCEDURE: Candles are lit approximately eighteen minutes before sunset. A minimum of two candles should be lit. Light the candles at the prescribed time. To indicate your acceptance of the sanctity of the day, spread your hands out around the candles and then bring your hands inward in a circular motion three times. Cover your eyes with your hands and recite the blessing(s). Uncover your eyes and gaze at the candles briefly. Good Shabbos (Yom Tov)!!

From our Women's Council

Wow ! A year has passed and Rosh Hashanah is knocking at our doors. It has been quite a year! We have had many ups and downs, but we have demonstrated our resilience, compassion and understanding of one another during this time. We are now coming out of a fog.

The beauty of Rosh Hashanah, a time of prayer and retrospect, is that we can wipe the slate clean from the past and start afresh with outlooks of being a better human being to ourselves and the people around us. We have our faith, optimism and belief that tomorrow will be better.

On behalf of the Women's Council, we would like to wish you a Shanna Tovah U'Metukah.

G-D willing may this New Year start to bring all of us closer to our family, friends and fellow neighbours in health and peace.

YOUR HOLIDAY GUIDE - THE MONTH OF TISHREI

Rosh Hashanah

Monday evening, September 6, 2021

Tuesday, September 7, 2021 (1st day) • Wednesday, September 8, 2021 (2nd day)

Shana Tova

Rosh Hashanah is the “Head of the Year.” Just as the brain controls the entire body, so does Rosh Hashanah contain within it the potential for life, blessing and sustenance, setting the tone for the entire year.

Rosh Hashanah is the anniversary of Adam’s creation. Adam, the first human, called on all creation to proclaim G-D as King of the Universe. Each Rosh Hashanah we renew this proclamation and commit to live according to G-D’s will. We pray to be inscribed in the “Book of Life” and be granted a good and sweet year.”

We usher in Rosh Hashanah, as the Shabbat and all holidays, with the lighting of the candles by the women and girls. On the first night of Rosh Hashanah, we exchange the traditional Lshana Tova, greeting: “May you be inscribed and sealed for a good new year.” It is customary to eat food symbolizing sweetness, blessing and abundance. We eat a piece of apple dipped in honey, as well as dip the challah bread in honey. Other customs include serving the head of a fish and eating pomegranates. At candle lighting on the second night, a new fruit, which was not eaten that season, is placed on the table. The new fruit is eaten right after reciting Kiddush.

Shofar

The highlight of Rosh Hashanah is to hear the sounding of the Ram’s Horn. The Shofar is sounded on both days of Rosh Hashanah.

Tashlich – ‘cast away’ our stowaways

After the Mincha Service, Tuesday afternoon, September 7, we visit a lake or a pond to recite the Tashlich prayers.

The Ten Days of Repentance

Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and the days between them are known as the “Ten days of Teshuva.” A time to return to goodness, to do mitzvot, and be true to our inner self.

The Fast of Gedaliah

Thursday, September 9, 2021

The fast of Gedaliah is one of the four fasts connected with the destruction of the Beit Hamikdash (Holy Temple). This fast commemorates the tragic assassination of Gedaliah, a Jewish Leader, during the Babylonian exile. Fast begins Thursday morning, September 9 at 4:49 a.m. and ends at 7:47 p.m. on the same day.

Yom Kippur – Atonement and Holiness

Wednesday evening, September 15, 2021 – Fast begins at 6:47 p.m.

Thursday, September 16, 2021 – Fast Ends at 7:51 p.m.

Preparation

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, begins on Wednesday, September 15, 2021 at sundown and continues till nightfall of the following day. This 25 hour period is the holiest day of our year. On this day it is prohibited to eat / drink, wear leather shoes, bathe / wash, use lotion / perfume and have marital relations. All restrictions of Shabbat apply as well.

Before Yom Kippur we perform the customary ritual of Kapparot by circling a rooster (man) or hen (woman) over one’s head. One can perform this ritual with money as well. We then donate the value of the fowl to charity.

On Sunday, the day preceding Yom Kippur, we eat two festive meals. Eating before Yom Kippur is both a preparation for the Yom Kippur fast and a mitzvah in itself.

After the 2nd meal, parents / grandparents bless their children individually by placing their hands on on their (grand)child’s head and recite the “Priestly Blessings”; and the words “May G-D make you like Ephraim and Menashe” (boy); as Sara, Rivka, Rachel, and Leah” (girl).

Theme of the Day

It is customary to wear white clothes, symbolizing purity. We spend many hours in the synagogue in prayer, confessing our sins, reflecting on our past misdeeds and resolving to improve in the future.

Yom Kippur atones for sins against G-d. However, for all wrongdoings between one another we must seek forgiveness directly. A sincere apology is a healthy step towards healing; it is one of the signs of strength and appreciation in maintaining relationships.

Yizkor, the memorial prayer for the departed, is chanted at the end of the morning service. Only those who have lost a parent remain in the synagogue during this prayer. (Yizkor may be said at home if necessary.)

Sukkot – Unity and Joy

Tuesday evening, September 21 until Monday evening, September 27, 2021

Sukkah

Sukkot lasts for eight days. The word “sukkah” means booth or tent. When the Jews left Egypt and wandered in the wilderness, they made rough huts out of branches. The sukkah also commemorates the protective ‘Cloud of glory’, which surrounded the Jewish people during the forty years in the desert.

The Four Kinds

On Sukkot we make a special blessing and shake the “Four Species” – the etrog (citron), lulav (palm branch), hadassim (myrtle branches) and aravot (willow branches). This is done each day of Sukkot except Shabbat.

Hoshanah Rabbah

Sunday evening, September 26, 2021 – Time to stay awake!

Monday, September 27, 2021

Hoshanah Rabbah is the 7th day of Sukkot; it is so called because of the special prayers recited on that day. On Friday, during the morning service, we circle the Bima (platform) seven times with the Lulav and Etrog. We then recite special prayers called, ‘Hoshanot’ while holding the five willow branches together. We beat the willow branches on the floor, symbolizing sweetening G-D’s judgement.

Shmini Atzeret

Monday evening, September 27, 2021

Tuesday, September 28, 2021

It’s Hard to Say... Good-Bye

Shmini Atzeret (and Simchat Torah) are the final two days of the Tishrei holiday season. On Saturday, we begin to recite “Mashiv Haruach” during the Mussaf Amidah; praising G-D for the blessing of rain.

Yizkor – Memorial Services

On Shmini Atzeret, Tuesday, September 28, Yizkor is recited during the morning services. This is a special prayer said for a dear departed one in which we pledge charity on their behalf.

Simchat Torah – Celebration

Tuesday evening and Wednesday, September 28 & 29, 2021

A Transcendent Joy

Simchat Torah is the culmination of a month filled with uplifting experiences. We have stood in awe before the King of the Universe; we have been forgiven by His mercy; we have experienced the joy of uniting with G-dliness through His beautiful commandments. Now, we rejoice with His Torah. The Torah is the epicenter of our Simchat Torah celebration. We take the sacred scrolls in our arms and dance together, scholar and novice alike. By dancing around the Torah in a circle, we are all equidistant, we all relate equally to the Torah. During the dancing, the scrolls remain in their cover, for this is not time for study but for dancing. The joy of Simchat Torah is far greater than any delight we may derive from intellectual understanding. Here again, we emphasize the sublime level of the Jewish soul where we are all one.

On the eve of Simchat Torah, we resume eating meals indoors. On this evening (and in some communities, on the previous evening of Shmini Atzeret as well), we make seven ‘hakafot’ (circling) around the Bima, singing and dancing with the Torah scrolls.

On the morning of Simchat Torah, the final portion of the Torah is read, completing the yearly cycle. Then we immediately start reading from Bereishit, the beginning. Thus, we continue to nourish ourselves from the infinite wisdom of G-D’s Torah – the eternal force that has bound us together and sustained us for more than 3,000 years.
