Part II—The Tragic History of Christian Anti-Semitism

Professor Brendan Murphy,

a leading Christian Scholar on this subject, concludes series

Sunday, August 21, 2016

10:30 am to 12:30 pm

- We will explore early and medieval Christian theology and practice and its impact on anti-Semitism.
- Learn about the catalyst that incited a cultural anti-Judaism and centuries of hostility & antipathy.
- Discover the conditions that helped make the Shoah possible.
- Discuss the future and consider ways to overcome this tragic history following the example of contemporary Christian and Jewish leaders.
