Congregation Or Hadash presents its second annual Jewish-Latino Film Series

Hot on the heels of the Atlanta Jewish Film Festival (AJFF), Congregation Or Hadash, in Sandy Springs, is presenting its second annual Jewish-Latino Film Series (Cine Latino Judío), March 31-April 6. The series, open to the general public, showcases five films from Latin America, concluding with last year's AJFF acclaimed closing night film, The Last Suit.

Guest speakers will introduce each film and provide historical context. Or Hadash's husband-and-wife (and native Argentinean) team of Rabbi Mario Karpuj and Rabbi Dr. Analia Bortz will be on hand after each film to moderate Q & A's and share their personal reflections.

The series will include:

Sunday, March 31, 4:00 p.m. — Movie and Pizza Night, featuring The Year My Parents Went on Vacation (English subtitles, 2006). Appropriate for middle-schoolers and older.

Tuesday, April 2, 7:30 p.m. — Nora's Will (English subtitles, 2008).

Wednesday, April 3, 7:30 p.m. — A Kiss to the Land (English subtitles, 2015).

Thursday, April 4, 7:30 p.m. — God's Slave (English subtitles, 2015).

Saturday, April 6, 6:30 p.m. — Dinner and a Movie, featuring The Last Suit (English subtitles, 2017). A festive Latino-style dinner and wine bar begins at 7:00 p.m. Havdalah begins at 8:15 p.m. followed by the movie at 8:30 p.m. There will be a post-screening dessert oneg at 10:00 p.m. Reservations are required by Monday, April 1.

All screenings will take place at Congregation Or Hadash, 7460 Trowbridge Road, in Sandy Springs, and are open to the public. Reservations can be made at BIT.LY/COH-JLFS-2A.

Doors open 30 minutes prior to all screening times, except Saturday, when doors will open at 6:30 p.m. Admission is $10/person or $18/family on Sunday; $5/person Tuesday-Thursday, and $30/person Saturday. (RSVP by Monday, April 1 required for Saturday event.) Admission to the entire series is $50/person. A $5 security fee is included for each movie.
