

2nd Annual
Jewish-Latino Film Series
March 31-April 6,
2019

Congregation Or Hadash Presents

Five films inspired by actual events in the Jewish-Latino experience.

Sunday, March 31 @ 4:00 pm (Movie and Pizza) | THE YEAR MY PARENTS WENT ON VACATION (2006)

Drama; Brazil. A 12-year-old Brazilian boy is suddenly sent from a middle class existence to live in Sao Paulo's Born Retiro multi-ethnic district with his paternal grandfather as his left-wing parents are forced into hiding. Appropriate for middle schoolers and above.

Tuesday, April 2 @ 7:30 pm | NORA'S WILL (2008) Comedy/Drama; Mexico.

Set in Mexico City's Jewish community, we meet Jose, a nonbeliever, trying to organize a memorial for his ex-wife, Nora, who has committed suicide. He finds multiple complications including Passover preparations, and then comes the unexpected contents of Nora's will.

Wednesday, April 3 @ 7:30 pm | A KISS TO THIS LAND (1995) Documentary; Mexico.

An oral history of seven fascinating Jewish individuals who were welcomed to Mexico when US quotas denied them entry in the early 20th century. While remaining attached to their roots in Turkey, Poland, Syria and Ukraine, they embraced their new home's vibrant colors, foods, language and beauty.

Thursday, April 4 @ 7:30 pm | GOD'S SLAVE (2015) Thriller/Drama; Venezuela, Argentina.

Based on actual events of a 1994 bombing in Buenos Aires, the film follows Ahmed, a trained Islamic terrorist assigned to execute a suicide bombing at a synagogue, and David, a cold-blooded Israeli special agent who must stop the attack. However, neither man is defined solely by their extremist views.

Saturday, April 6 @ 7:00 pm (Dinner and a Movie) | THE LAST SUIT (2017) Drama; Argentina.

A Polish-born Holocaust survivor travels from Buenos Aires to Lodz to fulfill a promise he made nearly 70 years earlier. Both comedic and poignant in equal measure, this 88-year-old Jewish tailor encounters many characters on his journey that spark flashbacks which fill in his life's story. Dinner reservation required by Monday, April 1.

COST: A $5 security fee is included for each movie. Sunday movie/pizza ($10/person, $18/family); Tues-Wed-Thurs ($5/person/movie); Saturday dinner/movie ($30/person); TOTAL PACKAGE: Includes all of the above ($50/person). FOR RESERVATION DETAILS, PLEASE RSVP TO BIT.LY/COH-JLFS-2A