Steven D. Reece worked as a photojournalist for ten years before entering religious and charitable work. He is an ordained Baptist minister and is a graduate of Baylor University and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is also certified Holocaust educator through Yad Vashem and Tel Aviv University and an advisor for the European Jewish Cemeteries Advisory Network (EJCAN).

Steven has gone from telling stories as a photojournalist to continuing the story of Poland's Jewish heritage as the Founder and CEO of The Matzevah Foundation, a nonprofit organization incorporated in Georgia in 2010. He leads Foundation members and volunteers to educate the public about the Holocaust and restore Jewish cemeteries in Poland. Its purpose is to remember and honor the Jewish heritage of Poland, restore what was lost, and reconcile Jews and Gentiles through a common mitzvah, or good deed.
