Haveirim Y'karim – Dear Friends –

There's a long-standing secular tradition of making New Year's resolutions. While those often end up being the punchline of jokes because of people's very modest track record when it comes to keeping them, seizing the opportunity of the start of another calendar year to focus on self-improvement is actually a good idea.

Judaism doesn't encourage making resolutions on Rosh Hashanah, though. Rather, our tradition sees the entire High Holiday season as part of a year-long – and life-long – process.

We start that process with the beginning of the Jewish month of Elul, which starts on September 1 this year. We begin sounding the shofar each morning, a reminder of the upcoming Yamim Nora'im ("Days of Awe") of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, a literal and figurative wake-up call.

On the Saturday night preceding Rosh Hashanah (by at least three days) is S'lichot, the beginning of daily recitation of penitential prayers. The community-wide S'lichot service this year is on Saturday night, September 21.

Rosh Hashanah is ushered in on the evening of Sunday, September 29, and continues on September 30 and October 1. We count down Aseret Y'mei HaT'shuvah – the Ten Days of Repentance – to Yom Kippur, beginning with Kol Nidrei on the afternoon of Tuesday, October 8, and continuing through October 9.

The following Sunday evening, October 13, begins the Festival of Sukkot. Although it's known as the most joyful time of the year, Sukkot is also part of the year-long process of self-improvement. Identifying and cultivating sources of happiness in our lives is an

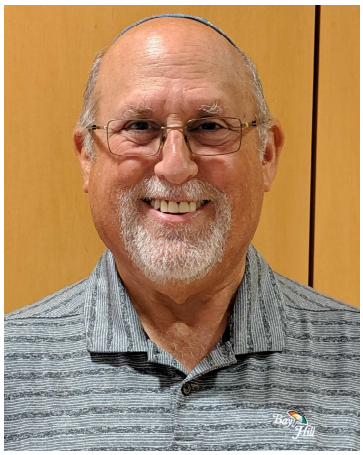
A NOTE FROM YOUR CANTOR



Dear Friends,

My contract to be the Cantor at Congregation Ohev Shalom has been quickly running out. In fact, I was supposed to be done August 31st this year. I am pleased to say that the Board of Trustees has, after a congregational vote, extended an offer to me for three more years. I have accepted. For most of you, there will be no change in when you see me around the synagogue. I will have a little more time off weekly and a few less responsibilities in the Hebrew School. It is an excellent combination of continuing, yet at a slightly different pace. I want to thank the Board of Trustees and the members of this synagogue who showed their support for me and encouraged the Board to negotiate this agreement with me. Next month it will be my privilege to lead High Holy Day services for the 29th straight year. It's hard to believe I have been here that long.

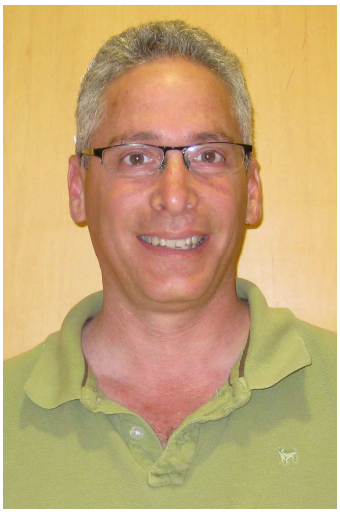
When I first became the Cantor at COS, I had very little intention of this becoming a life-long occupation. I was 35 years old and had already worked at several other jobs in music. In this field, it is not unusual to move from place to place or job to job as your career grows. Very few musicians work in the same venue for nearly 30 years. Even when I worked at Disney World playing piano, I had the opportunity to be assigned to several different shows and locations during my ten years of employment there, both full and part time. Before that I was a schoolteacher in Ohio. My original vision was to stay here between 3 – 7 years and then move on to something else. We all know how that plan worked out. In truth, I could not be happier with the way my life has unfolded. With the support of a wonderful wife and three amazing children, Orlando has become my hometown. I no longer answer "Cleveland" when asked where I am from, unless we are talking sports. In that domain I maintain a very strong connection to my original hometown. When it comes to friends, activities and lifestyle I am definitely a Floridian.

I hope to stay in Orlando until the city is finally done. When and if that day ever comes, it will be an even greater place to be. For now, I stay off I-4 whenever possible and avoid construction if I can. When I first came here, one of the first jokes I learned was "what is the state bird of Florida?" The answer, of course, is the construction crane. I have lived in one duplex, two apartments and five homes since I arrived. I have only had one synagogue where I felt at home. Congregation Ohev Shalom. It is a part of me and a part of my life that I will always cherish.

Fondly,

Cantor Robuck

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE



Shalom,

It's amazing that I am writing this article as we approach the High Holy Days of 5780. This past year seems to have gone by so fast, and to think we had two Adars this year! There are quite a few things that have happened since last year's High Holy Days and I wanted to take up a little bit of space talking about some of them.

I don't know why, but I did a search on USCJ's The commons to get ideas to include in this article. I searched for 5780 and the only pages returned were three items discussing security for the High Holy Days. Since last year, as everyone knows, there have been two shootings at synagogues, The Tree of Life in Pittsburgh, and the Chabad of Poway in Poway, Ca. It is a new reality that we must plan for the possibility of these events and first and foremost ways to mitigate them from happening again. As usual we will have our armed security officers supplemented by Maitland police officers. Many staff participated in and have become certified in CPR. It is our plan to have as many staff, board members and ushers take part in something called Stop the Bleed, to provide us with training on how to respond should the need arise. New walkie-talkies have been purchased to allow communication among our staff and security officers throughout the building. Other security measures have been and will be in place as well. I would like to ensure everyone that the leadership of Ohev Shalom has worked diligently to make security a priority, not just for the coming holidays but every time you come to Ohev Shalom for Shabbat, school or other programs.

As president I had the experience, for the first time, of attending all the holidays in this upcoming holiday season, not just Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. I encourage all of you to not wait as I did to become president of a shul to attend as many of these services as you can, I think you will be spiritually and intellectually rewarded if you do – and hey, the food afterwards is pretty good too!

For those who may not have been to Ohev Shalom for a while, I want to remind everyone that we have had a new Audio Frequency Induction Loop system installed. The hearing loop system is a reality as a result of a donation by Sara and Louis Stern, in loving memory of Charlotte and Marvin Nathan, and Carol and Henry Stern. This system will be in place anywhere you might be sitting, the sanctuary, chapel or ballroom areas. If you use a hearing aid, please learn how you can use it with our new system.

I wanted to also let you know of two new programs that have just recently begun and encourage everyone to attend both of them. The first is Piano Shabbat, featuring Cantor Robuck, which will take place once a month on Fridays beginning at 7 p.m. The other is Learning T'fillah, taught be Alan Rusonik, held from 10:30-11:30 on Shabbat mornings – also once a month. The next two upcoming dates for each are September 13th for Piano Shabbat and September 14th for Learning T'filah. Please join us for both.

On September 14th, we welcome you to participate in Havadallah and then learn about and taste different apple and honey varieties. We will also have wine and cheese. The event begins at 8 p.m. and is free to any member, but is for adults only. I hope to see you at this event as well.

There will be other new programs throughout the year; I hope to meet as many of you as I can this year.

L'Shanah Tovah Tikatevu V'taihatem,

Steven Hornik, President

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MESSAGE

This has been another busy summer at Ohev Shalom. The planning for the High Holidays has been on-going for several months with the committee, under the leadership of Lori Brenner, meeting since early May. The Strategic Planning process has been in the implementation phase and the committee, with Debby Gendzier as chair, continues its work. Watch future bulletins for more information.

Included in this issue of the Bulletin is the schedule for our High Holiday services. Your tickets for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur will be mailed out separately. A gentle reminder that our by-laws state that 50% of your yearly dues must be paid prior to the start of the High Holy Days. To those of you who have paid your annual dues or have made arrangements, thank you. If you need to make arrangements to ensure that you receive tickets before Rosh Hashanah please contact the bookkeeping department or me to make the necessary arrangements.

A few important notes for the holidays:

ALTERNATE SERVICE: The High Holiday Committee felt strongly that our COS community be together on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur as we were last year. As a result, there is no Alternate Service this year.

PARKING: Please remember that Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are business days for our neighbors. PLEASE DO NOT PARK in front of or along the side of 790 Concourse Parkway Medical building or in the lot for the building in front of the Synagogue. This parking is for patients in need of medical services. Parking will be available in the COS lot and at the JCC. Shuttle buses will run every few minutes between the synagogue and the JCC parking lot.

TRAFFIC FLOW: Last year at this time, the work was being completed on the curb-cut in front of the synagogue. That work has been completed. To ease the exit at the end of services, you will only be able to make a right turn (eastbound) onto Maitland Blvd. from the curb-cut. If you are heading west on Maitland Blvd. towards I-4 you will need to use the traffic light at the end of Concourse Parkway. Thank you for understanding and cooperation.

YOM KIPPUR STUDY SESSION: As we did last year during the afternoon break on Yom Kippur, Rabbi Maurice Kaprow will be leading a study session for those of you who are interested. There will still be time to get in a nap before Minchah.

On a completely different subject, as I have been reporting in the Bulletin, COS is participating in the Life and Legacy program. This program is a partnership of the Harold Grinspoon Foundation (the funder of the PJ Library program across the country among many things) that assists commu-

Twenty three years ago my daughter Sarah had the privilege of attending USY on Wheels. Why is this important now! As we approach the Jewish New Year let us pray in Shul and then eat a hardy meal with family and friends. I am reminded of the times when my mom, raising six children while working full time, would come home with bags of chickens and potatoes. It was a feast in my home.

So getting back to Wheels. Sarah was fortunate to visit a restaurant in California owned and operated by Steven Spielberg's mom. Sarah brought me home a cook book from the restaurant and I want to share with you one of the recipes. Sponge Cake for Rosh Hashanah. It was so joyous from my heart that even someone like Steven Spielberg still maintained through his mom the joy and celebrations of the Holiday. The name of the book is Beyond Milk and Honey - Traditional Recipes for an Israeli Kitchen.

Historically the Jewish Holidays are filled with customary dishes linked to the specific Holiday that has been passed down from generation to generation. We always have wine, apples, honey, Challah and of course Matzah Ball Soup. My husband, may his memory be a blessing, was the chef in my home. But I must say my soup out does his. He would be astonished as I am!!

As a young child, I remember sitting at my Grandparent's table. It was all in Hebrew and the sounds and tastes will forever be etched in my memory. As far as my Grandma's Apple Cake, we are still on the hunt for the recipe.

PLEASE ENJOY THE RECEIPE AND MY WISH IS FOR EVERYONE TO HAVE A HEALTY, PROSPERSUS, AND A GOOD NEW YEAR.

With my hugs,
Linda

Sift flour, salt, baking powder, baking soda, cinnamon, nutmeg cloves and ginger together.

Beat eggs, gradually adding the sugar. Beat until thick and light in color. Beat in oil, coffee and honey; stir in flour mixture and nuts.

Grease an 11x16x4 inch baking pan and line with aluminum foil. Empty batter in to the pan and bake 325 degrees for 1-1/4 hours. Cool on baking rack before removing from pan.

3 ½ cups	Sifted flour
¼ tsp	Salt
1 ½ tsp	Baking powder
1 tsp	Baking soda
1 ½ cups	Chopped walnuts or almonds
4	Eggs
¾ cups	Sugar
4 tsp	Vegetable oil
2 cups	Dark honey
½ cup	Brewed coffee

OPTIONAL

½ tsp	Cinnamon
¼ tsp	Nutmeg
1/8 tsp	Powdered cloves
½ tsp	Ginger
	Have fun and enjoy.

MEMBERSHIP MINUTE

As we approach our High Holy Day season, this is a good time to welcome the many new families and individuals who have recently joined our COS family. New members are the life blood of our congregation. For our long-term members, now is the time to recognize and personally welcome any new faces you see when you are at synagogue whether for services, an event, or religious school. If you are a new member that I have not had a chance to talk to personally, please give me a call so that I may get to know you a little bit. My phone number is 407-761-4803. I hope you were able to attend our recent membership Shabbat dinner and piano Shabbat in the round with Cantor Allan Robuck on August 16th. Many thanks to our Membership committee, who cooked, set up and served for our delicious Shabbat dinner. Our next piano Shabbat will be Friday, September 13th. Please mark your calendar as you and your family will not want to miss this!!!

equally important part of self-evaluation.

The fall Jewish holidays conclude with Sh'mini Atzeret, an almost wistful conclusion to three weeks of sacred days and an opportunity to recall loved ones in the Yizkor service. Finally, there is a jubilant celebration of Simchat Torah, complete with dancing and singing as we celebrate the gift of Torah.

But it doesn't end there, either. The month that follows, Cheshvan, has no holidays. That can serve as a reminder that we need to be able to navigate the most mundane aspects of life, along with the most exciting and the most challenging.

As we move through the rest of the Jewish year, the theme of self-improvement continues: Hanukkah and its emphasis on rededication; Tu B'Sh'vat and the importance of our stewardship of nature; Purim and the benefit of humor; Pesach and the deeper understanding of freedom.

I look forward to sharing a year of insight, celebration, and community with all of you. Shanah tovah u'm'tukah – may 5780 be a year of goodness, sweetness, and profound meaning.

L'shalom,
David

Youth and Family Education

From Amy Geboff, Director of Youth and Family Education

The new school year has begun and we are off to a wonderful start. It was a joyous reunion with friends we haven't seen all summer and the start of creating bonds with new friends, staff and Madrichim. Prior to the start of the school year many members of the teaching staff became CPR certified. Many attended a community teacher workshop with sessions on Understanding Autism, Dealing with Anti Semitism and LGBT issues. All three of our youth groups, Olim, Kadima and USY had wonderful kick off events and the youth boards are working diligently to create a welcoming , inclusive Jewish community of peers.

We are excited about the focus of DDD, Dinner, Daber and Dvar this year. This is our formal Jewish education program for 8th-12th graders that meets on specific Wednesday evenings. Our focus is learning the history of Anti Semitism, Holocaust and Establishment of the State of Israel. Students will not only learn the history but also explore stereotypes and be given tools to address hatred when they are confronted with it. Education is the key. The program is being coordinated by Michelle Silver who is a staff member of our Hebrew School, has a degree in Holocaust studies and is a guidance counselor for Seminole County Public schools. Michelle's knowledge and skill set will enable students to share personal stories and gain tools to address it as well as support. Throughout the year guest speakers and teachers will come to the class. This is designed to be interactive. We thank JTEN of the Jewish Federation of Greater Orlando for providing a grant to help underwrite this important program.

We are pleased to be offering a full schedule of programs for families with young children, all of which are open to the community. The programs

COS MEN'S CLUB UPDATE

Men's Club News

How quickly time passes --- we are entering yet another new year. And with it, Men's Club offers another year of ritual, social events and service to our synagogue and to its youth.

But before looking at next year, a statement of pride for last year. Yet again, Ohev Shalom's Men's Club chapter received awards from the International Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs (FJMC) at its biennial convention, this year held in Toronto. Specifically, our Club received a Gold Torch Award for its World Wide Wrap, and a Silver Award for Best Overall Programming. The programming content for last year's World Wide Wrap was prepared and planned by our new Co-President, Steve Herman.

On Sunday, August 18, our club came out to welcome parents at the Parents Meet and Greet on the first day of Religious School. We are honored and pleased to provide both financial support and active participation for our youth throughout the year.

New and old members alike attended our annual New Members social event at board member Ken Davis' home on September 8. Meeting new friends, enjoying each other's company, and consuming Andy Rosen's smoked brisket sandwiches --- what could be better?

Men's Club again is providing door ushers for High Holiday services this year. But we still need volunteers to usher at our weekly Shabbat morning services. Remember --- it doesn't matter how much time any one usher devotes to this service. Whether you have much or little time to spare, we would be grateful for your help. So please help out our congregation by assisting us with this important service for the High Holidays, for Shabbat, or for both!

It is never too early to start planning for our now-third annual, hugely popular and successful Men's Night Out. The first event in 2017 attracted 165 men; over 200 attended in 2018. Thanks to our loyal, returning sponsors, and to new sponsors, we are able to provide first class, nationally-recognized entertainment. This year we will present comedian Johnny Lampert. Also, a local magician will be roaming around and performing his tricks during the cocktail hour. Food will be provided by Arthur's Catering, featuring prime rib as well as some chicken and vegetarian options. You do not want to miss this. Men's Night Out will take place on Thursday evening, November 7, 2019. Look for your invitation in the mail in the near future.

As always, we appreciate the opportunity to provide programming and service to our congregation, and to share in its strong sense of community.

L'Shanah Tova Tikatevu! A happy and sweet new year to all, and an easy fast.

Dear Rabbi—
Tattoos are pretty popular these days. I always heard that if you have a tattoo, you can't be buried in a Jewish cemetery. Does it matter?

I Need Knowledge

Dear INK –

In the section known as the Holiness Code, the Torah explicitly prohibits making "incised writing" on our bodies (Leviticus 19:28). This appears in the same verse with the prohibition against making "gashes in your flesh for the dead" and concludes with the declaration, "I am Adonai". Elsewhere in the Tanakh (Hebrew Bible), there are references to what might be understood as tattooing, but they are likely metaphors and don't have the legal weight of a Torah commandment.

Many traditional sources and modern scholars concur that the Torah's ban on "incised writing" has to do mostly with idolatry and pagan practices. Early interpretations understand it to prohibit tattooing the name of a foreign deity (or even a Hebrew name of God) on one's body. Later rulings expand the prohibition to include all forms of permanent "pricked-in" marks on the skin.

Since the human body is considered a direct divine creation, it is held as sacred and should not be deliberately altered or disfigured for unnecessary purposes. Even decorative tattoos would fall into this category. By contrast, an involuntary tattoo, such as those given to prisoners in concentration camps during World War II, or a necessary tattoo, such as those used in radiation treatments for cancer, would not be a violation of halakhah (Jewish law).

The notion that Jews with tattoos can't be buried in Jewish cemeteries was probably a reaction to the rise in popularity of tattoos in the 20th century, mostly associated with those serving in the military. The spike in tattooing in the 21st century makes the issue more pressing.

However, there is no basis in halakhah for denying burial to a Jew with tattoos. On the contrary, it is the aim of our tradition to provide a proper Jewish burial to every Jew. We don't hesitate to bury in Jewish cemeteries those Jews who have violated other, more central commandments of the Torah (e.g., dietary laws or Shabbat) – why would we single out those who violated this one?

are able to meet different work schedules and age groups and we look forward to introducing our youngest children to the beauty of Judaism and being part of a wonderful community.

September and October will be busy with Shabbatonim, 1st grade Consecration and all of the holidays! We have a full High Holiday program for children 18 months through 8th grade on the first day of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. On the second day of Rosh Hashanah we have a Preschool family service and a Family service geared toward K-5th grade families.

Kugel Konnection is growing in popularity and an incredibly enjoyable evening. Participants cook, taste, nosh, schmooze, learn, discuss, laugh and if they have energy leftover dance. It is for anyone in 6th grade and older. It is never too late to be part of the fun! Please join us on September 9.

Safety, Security and community are the top goals of the Youth, Family and Education programs. When making policies and decisions about programs safety and security are at the forefront of our planning. This year the COS board of directors and leadership is discussing the book" Relational Judaism." The focus is the importance of creating relationships in everything we do. It is through relationships that we create community, commitment and love for Judaism. We strive to do our best to accomplish this and are not always perfect. At the same time, we can't create community if the building blocks are not there. Please take advantage of the many programs we offer throughout the year so together we can create community.

As we come upon 5780 let's all make a personal goal of be welcoming, open to new experiences and ideas and treat each other with kindness. On behalf of the Youth Education and Family Staff and leadership, I wish you L'Shana Tova Tikateivu
