

Congregation Ohev Shalom presents

People of the Book

One Book, One Community, One Summer

(Facilitated by Janet Friedman and Rabbi David Kay)

Join us as we read and discuss a significant book from Jewish literature. For our sixth summer, we'll answer a question that stands at the heart of faith...and the heart of Conservative Judaism.

Who Wrote the Bible?

by Richard Elliott Friedman

"A thought-provoking [and] perceptive guide [to the Bible's authorship]."-- NY Times Book Review

"Brilliantly presented: There is no other book like this one. It may well be unique."-- LA Times

"Remarkable...a legitimate intellectual contribution that is also a good read."-- Dallas Times Herald

"It is an event to have a book as readable and exciting as Who Wrote the Bible? It has about it the resounding smack of solid truth."-- Harvard Magazine

"People of the Book" will meet every other week, beginning June 9, 2018, after Shabbat morning services at Congregation Ohev Shalom. Join us at any time.
