SPOTLIGHT

CBH offers a variety of programs this month, for many appetites and tastes. Take a look at the offerings and try something new.

BASEBALL, Sat., Sept. 10, 7:10pm, at Turner Field
This special members-only event takes you out to the ball game. In honor of member Vita Leo-Brown. RSVP required.

LESBIAN GAME NIGHT, Games, Gab, & Grub, Sun., Sept. 11, 4:30pm
Whether you are a lesbian, former lesbian, future lesbian, or just know a lesbian, join in game night with a fun crowd.

COMBATting TERRORISM
Sun., Sept. 11, 10:30am, The Friends School
What is the future of terrorism and what is the world doing to end it? Learn and discuss with Professor Jenna Jordan.

BREMAN MUSEUM, Sun., Sept. 25, 10:30am
CBH members tour the museum and hear stories of resistance and rescue.

ELUL EVENTS

MOVING THROUGH: REFLECTING ON 5776 THROUGH MOVEMENT

Tues., Sept. 13, 7:30pm
Join Audrey Galex and Joyce Kinnard to use movement and story sharing as a medium for reflection in this Elul-inspired interplay gathering. Using the gentle incremental steps of this improvisational system we will speak to one another in the marvelous flexible language of movement, voice, storytelling and stillness. Bring a yoga mat and a water bottle.

MEET YOUR FUTURE SELF: A CHESBON HANEFESH WORKSHOP

Wed., Sept. 21, 7:30pm with Val Wolpe.
As we approach the Days of Awe, we are asked to engage in chesbon hanefesh, an accounting of the soul. In this tradition, we introspectively turn our gaze inward to account for our character and actions. Imagine meeting your Future Self who can offer you great perspective, refreshing honesty and wise conversation about how to live according to what matters most to you.

Find more information about all of these events and RSVP on the CBH Events Calendar

MAKE HIGH HOLIDAYS GREAT

We need your help to keep our High Holidays running smoothly.

There are several ways you can help at High Holidays

- Be a greeter or usher
- Hand out books
- Bring food to an oneg
- Do a reading during a service
- Volunteer in the children's area

Please contact the office today to let us know how you will participate. Or check <http://www.congregationbethaverim.org/highholidayscentral> for all the links you need to sign up online to help out.

Rosh Hashanah
Oct. 2-4

Yom Kippur
Oct. 11-12

CBH HIGH HOLIDAYS TRADITIONS

TICKETS: Services are ticket-free. Just come and find a seat. Seats fill up so do come early.

LOCATION: All services will be held at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, 1790 LaVista Road NE, unless otherwise noted.

SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETATION: We will have sign language interpretation at Erev Rosh Hashanah and Kol Nidre services.

CHILDREN: Children's services will be held Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur mornings.

There will be an Intergenerational Kol Nidre service, designed for all ages. Childcare is available for infants and children's programming is available for children up to age 10 for First Day Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur morning, but SPACE IS LIMITED! Please reserve your spot early. Register online or use form in August mailing.

PARKING: There is a parking lot behind St. Bartholomew's, and it typically fills up during services. Parking throughout the neighborhood is permissible (but not on LaVista Road).

CBH TRADITIONS:

These are opportunities to experience a sense of belonging in different ways. Please participate as you are so moved.

Oneg - Please sign up to bring something to one of our onegs at Rosh Hashanah, or to the break the fast gathering. Look for the links to sign up in emails.

Yizkor Memorial Booklet - Submit names of loved ones to be read aloud during Yizkor Services. Online form available or use the form in the August mailing.

Prayer Wall - Our prayer wall is an opportunity to offer up private prayers and place them together as an expression of personal and communal longing.

Memorial Table - On Yom Kippur, we will be presenting a memorial table where you will be invited to bring pictures or other mementos of those that you are remembering. (All items can be collected when needed.)

Communal Al Chet - Submit your Al Chet to the community. It may be read aloud on Yom Kippur. Form available online and in this August mailing.

Purchase a gift of honey - Purchase honey for friends and family at <http://orthoney.com/CBH/>

Volunteer to help (need ushers, greeters, people to bring items to oneg & break the fast, & more.) Email or call the office for more information. Sign up link can be found at High Holidays Central.

Step Up for CBH

Step Up for CBH is our new initiative for emerging leaders, to help members to engage their creativity, build community ties, and cultivate their talents to enrich our communal life.

Step Up for CBH

- Deepens your understanding of what makes CBH such an exceptional community;
 - Demystifies how CBH works and unlocks the remarkable resources for lay leaders;
 - Helps you identify the intersections of your creative gifts and the needs of our community; and
- Builds personal relationships and strengthens your connection to your spiritual community
Spaces are limited to ensure individual attention. We will host sessions once a month from January through June, and participants are asked to commit to all 6 sessions.

If you have been wondering how to get involved but haven't wanted to join the board or do traditional "committee work", this series is perfect for you. Be a part of our inaugural leadership group
