SPECIAL EVENTS

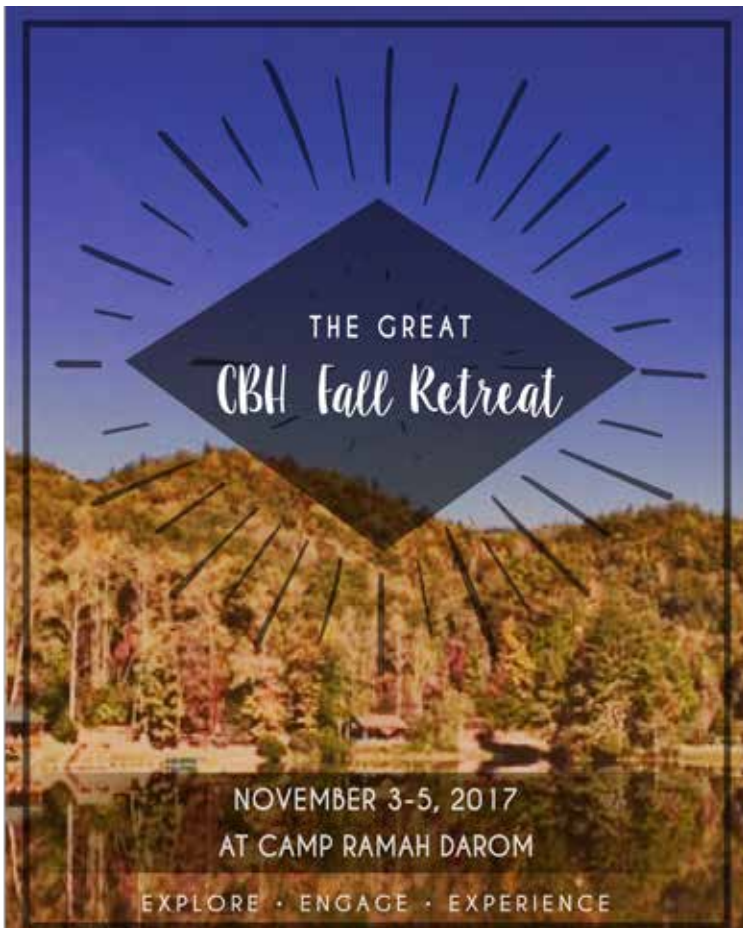

Poet Miriam Jacobs, a Jewish poet and teacher, will lead CBH members on a journey of reading and analyzing Psalms that explore themes of reflection and renewal.

Attendees may also write and share their own Psalms.

This cultural event comes to you thanks to the support of the Vita Leo Brown Fund for Creativity and the Arts.

This event is for CBH members only. RSVP online.

HIGH HOLY DAYS 5778 - 2017

TICKETS: Services are ticket-free. Just come and find a seat. Seats fill up, so do come early. Guests please RSVP online in advance at:
<https://www.congregationbethaverim.org/guestrsvp>

LOCATION: All services will be held at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church, 1790 LaVista Road NE, unless otherwise noted.

SIGN LANGUAGE INTERPRETATION: If you require sign language interpretation, please let us know so and we will try to arrange it.

CHILDREN: On Rosh Hashanah first day & Yom Kippur morning, we will have children's services and programs available for 0-10 years old. Please register for childcare - space is limited. All ages, from babies to bobbies, are welcome at our Intergenerational Kol Nidre service. Forms due by Sept. 5.

PARKING: There is a parking lot behind St. Bartholomew's, and it typically fills up during services. Parking throughout the neighborhood is permissible (but not on LaVista Road).

CBH TRADITIONS:

These are opportunities to experience a sense of belonging in different ways. Please participate as you are so moved.

ONEG: Please sign up to bring something to one of our onegs during Rosh Hashanah or to the Yom Kippur break fast. Look for the sign-up links in Holiday emails.

YIZKOR MEMORIAL BOOKLET: Submit names of loved ones to be read aloud during Yizkor Services. Complete paper or online form by Friday, Sept. 15.

MEMORIAL TABLE: On Yom Kippur, we will have a memorial table where you are invited to bring pictures or other mementos of those whom you are remembering. (All items can be collected when needed.)

COMMUNAL AL CHET - Submit your Al Chet (confession of sins) to the community. Submissions are typically anonymous. Form available online.

VOLUNTEER TO HELP: ushers, greeters, people to bring items to oneg & break the fast, & more. Email or call the office for more information. Sign up link can be found at High Holidays Central.
