PRAYERS OF REMEMBRANCE

2019 - 2020
Let Us Remember Together...

The souls of our loved ones live on through each of us as their values and deeds are perpetuated through the next generation. Four times a year, on Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret, Passover and Shavuot, we devote a portion of our holiday service to remembering our beloved deceased.

The Yizkor service consists of prayers, psalms, and meditations that help us recall, with great love and affection, our dear ones who no longer walk this earth. The gift of memory is a very special Jewish approach to keeping those whom we have loved close to us at all times and in all seasons.

Yizkor reminds us that there are some intangible things that cannot be taken away from us. And while life and death are so much beyond our understanding, we may take comfort in the fact that God also remembers our loved ones.

As we pray the Yizkor service together, we hope you will find the liturgy consoling, calming, hopeful, and spiritually uplifting - as we affirm that our parents, spouses, siblings, children, grandparents and other loving family members and friends will live on in our hearts, minds and souls.

The Talmud teaches that when we remember loved ones by quoting their name or by sharing a story or anecdote that they taught us, their lips move gently in the grave. Each time we do this, our tradition affirms their sense of peace at being remembered. Let us continue to share our beautiful and diverse recollections as we join in prayer with our congregational family. May the souls of our loved ones be bound up in the bond of life eternal, and their memories be for a blessing - this day and always.

We Remember Them

At the rising of the sun and at its going down
we remember them.

   At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter
   we remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring
we remember them.

   At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
   we remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn
we remember them.

   At the beginning of the year and when it ends
   we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

   When we are weary and in need of strength
   we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart
we remember them.

   When we have joy we crave to share
   we remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make
we remember them.

   When we have achievements that are based on theirs
   we remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.

Rabbi Sylvan Kamens
Rabbi Jack Riemer
Lord, what are we humans, that You have regard for us,
Mere mortals, that You take account of us?

We are like a breath,
Our days are like a fleeting shadow.

Teach us to number our days,
That we may attain a heart of wisdom.

The Lord redeems the lives of God’s servants;
And those who trust in God shall not feel forsaken.

Psalms 144:3-4, 90:12, 34:23

God is before me always, at my right hand - so that I will not falter.
Therefore I am glad, I am reassured; my body rests secure.

Psalms 16:8-9

Backward and Forward

Yizkor:
Looking backward, we recall our ancestry.

Looking forward, we confront our destiny.

Looking backward, we reflect on our origins.

Looking forward, we choose our path.

Remembering that we are a tree of life, not letting go, holding on, and holding to,
we walk into an unknown, beckoning future,
with our past beside us.

Rabbi Harold Schulweis (adapted in Mahzor Lev Shalem)
Filling the Empty Chair

Rav Nachman of Bratzlav once asked his student, “Is the chair you are sitting on empty?”

“Ridiculous!” replied the student. “How can it be? I’m sitting on it!”

But it IS possible for a person sitting on that chair to feel empty.

Then, the chair is empty – even when occupied….

… And so we recall when someone else filled the place next to us in synagogue – or at the head of the table for a holiday meal, or the chair closest to the kitchen.

Now, even though we, or someone else, may fill that seat, no one can fill that PLACE –

The seat of a loved one, in whose place now resides memories of love, of time spent together: How we miss them at these moments – at holidays, at family moments! No one can fill that feeling of emptiness!

At the simcha, when we smile and think, “She would have so enjoyed this experience.”

Or, “He would have been so proud.”

At the flash of doubt, when we cry:

“What would he have done in this situation?”

Or, “She would have comforted me, and things would have felt better.”

How do we fill their empty chairs?

We teach their life lessons.

We live out their legacy to us.

We fill ourselves with their inspiring stories.

We fill ourselves with their enduring love.

We feel their presence, within us.

We feel God’s Presence, among us.

And then, when others come to us, seeking advice,

As we are seated in that chair

That our loved one once occupied,

We pass on that same love,

We share those same teachings from those who came before us –

And we fill the void.

And our place,

in this world, without them,

Does not seem so lonely

Or empty

Anymore.

Rabbi Eric Scott Yanoff
When I stray from You, Adonai, my life is as death; but when I cleave to You, even in death I have life.

You embrace the souls of the living and the dead.
The earth inherits that which perishes.

The dust returns to dust; but the soul, which is God’s, is eternal.

Adonai is compassionate to all creation, granting us a share in unending life.
God redeems our life from the grave, joining us forever in the unending chain of life.

May we preserve the memory of those we love and are now gone, through charity in deed and thought.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we lovingly remember, this day, those who live on in our hearts.

Rabbi Jules Harlow

“The soul of a human being is a light unto God” ~
IN MEMORY OF A FATHER:

May God remember the soul of my father _____________, who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family. May he rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A MOTHER:

May God remember the soul of my mother _____________, who has gone to her eternal home. In loving testimony to her life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which she blessed me. May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with her memory and with our entire family. May she rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.
IN MEMORY OF A HUSBAND:

May God remember the soul of my husband ____________ , who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. Love is as strong as death; deep bonds of love are indissoluble. The memory of our companionship and love leads me out of loneliness into all that we shared which still endures. May he rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A WIFE:

May God remember the soul of my wife ____________ , who has gone to her eternal home. In loving testimony to her life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of life. “Many women have done superbly, but you surpass them all.” Love is as strong as death; deep bonds of love are indissoluble. The memory of our companionship and love leads me out of loneliness into all that we shared which still endures. May she rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.
In memory of a brother:

May God remember the soul of my brother ____________, who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. I am thankful for the support, love, and friendship that we shared and for the memories of family togetherness that now give me strength and solace. May he rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

In memory of a sister:

May God remember the soul of my sister ____________, who has gone to her eternal home. In loving testimony to her life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of life. I am thankful for the support, love, and friendship that we shared and for the memories of family togetherness that now give me strength and solace. May she rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.
IN MEMORY OF A SON:
May God remember the soul of my beloved son _____________, who has gone to his eternal home. In loving testimony to his life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is his soul bound up in the bond of life. I am grateful for the sweet joys he afforded me in his lifetime. May he rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF A DAUGHTER:
May God remember the soul of my daughter _____________, who has gone to her eternal home. In loving testimony to her life, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to her. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is her soul bound up in the bond of life. I am grateful for the sweet joys she afforded me in her lifetime. May she rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF OTHER RELATIVES AND FRIENDS:
May God remember the soul of _____________ and of all relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal home. In loving testimony to their lives, I pledge to perpetuate ideals important to them. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, are their souls bound up in the bond of life. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link me to their memory. May they rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

Yom Kippur Martyrology: “These I Recall”

In every generation, we recall those whose sacrifice has enabled Judaism to endure into the next generation. On Yom Kippur, we ask God to remember that others have died so that we can live as Jews. Today, we recall the stories of martyrs throughout history – so that we may be inspired to cherish our own Jewish lives.

These I recall, and my soul melts with sorrow;
for the bitter course of our history, tears pour from my eyes.

Ancient Words of Faith:

Following the destruction of the Second Temple in the year 70, the Roman control of Judaea is unbearable. Facing a prohibition against learning Torah, Rabbi Akiva asks: What is the point of living, if we are deprived of our reason to live? He holds the Torah so dear that he cannot live without it.

Rabbi Akiva is caught teaching, and the Romans torture him by scraping the flesh from his body, while his students are forced to watch. As the day nears its end and it is time to recite the Shema, Rabbi Akiva, amidst his agony, says, “All my life, I said the Shema, commanding me to love God with all my heart, with all my soul and life, and with all my might. I never knew how to love God with my very life – until now.” And as the day came to an end, with his last breath, Rabbi Akiva pronounced the last words of a martyr:

Shema, Yisrael - Adonai Eloheinu, Adonai echad.
Hear O Israel, Adonai is our God; Adonai alone.
Seeking Redemption Amidst the Darkness:

By the end of the Twelfth Century, the Crusades have left the Jews in a state of panic. So many Jews fear for continued loss of life that they invent a new service of memory, which would come to be known as Yizkor. In the midst of this, Maimonides (or Rambam) has taken leadership positions as a rabbi and physician throughout Europe and North Africa.

The Jews need something to bring meaning to their countless dead, and so Maimonides composes words that offer hope and consolation: Ani Maamin – I believe, with perfect faith, in the coming of a Messianic Age, a better time, a more perfect world – and though this redemption may be delayed in coming, though great pain and anguish may be our lot at this time – still, Ani Maamin – we must still believe.

Ani ma’amin be-emunah sheleimah b’vi’at ha-Mashiach.
I believe with perfect faith in the coming of a Messianic Age - And though it may be delayed, I will wait for it, whenever it may come.

The Need to Remember - More Powerful Than Ever:

During the Holocaust, Channah Senesh, living in what was then Palestine, parachuted back into Yugoslavia to join the partisans in an attempt to save the Jews of Hungary. A military hero and a poet, Senesh was captured and tortured. Her words of hope live on – a reminder that we should be inspired to live and appreciate God’s world, despite the sadness of these martyrs’ tragic losses. At this time, we also remember another Israeli paratrooper, native Philadelphian Michael Levin, who lost his life defending Israel in 2006. Channah Senesh wrote words that embody her sacrifice, Michael’s sacrifice, and the sacrifice of all those who defend Israel and the Jewish People; she wrote, “Eli, Eli – My God, my God – some things must never end....” Her last words also describe the fragility of life, but the eternity of honor and dignity of humanity: “Blessed is the match which is consumed as it makes flame.”

Eli, Eli, she-lo yigamer l’olam:
Ha-chol v’ha-yam, rishrush shel ha-mayim, b’rak ha-shamayim, tefillat ha-adam.
My God, my God, I pray that these things never end: The sand and the sea, the rush of the waters, The flash of the Heavens, the prayer of humankind.
IN MEMORY OF THE SIX MILLION:

May God remember the souls of all our brethren, men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered and suffocated and burned to ashes in the Shoah. In their memory, I pledge to uphold their cherished ideals. May their bravery, dedication, and purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of Your eternal Presence. Amen.

IN MEMORY OF ISRAEL’S HEROES THROUGHOUT HISTORY:

May God remember the souls of our brothers and sisters throughout history, who have given their lives in the sanctification of God’s name, the Jewish People, and the Land of Israel. We remember those lost in the Shoah. We remember those lost by acts of terror and violence in Israel. And we remember those lost in every generation who sacrificed everything - for kiyum ha-Am, the endurance and thriving of Judaism for all time. In their memory, we commit ourselves to upholding and maintaining their cherished ideals. May their bravery, dedication, and purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest forever in dignity and peace, with fullness of joy in the comfort of God’s eternal Presence. And let us say: Amen.
Memorial Prayer ~

Exalted, compassionate God, grant infinite rest in Your sheltering Presence, among the holy and the pure, to the souls of our beloved who have gone to their eternal home. Merciful One, we ask that our loved ones find perfect peace in Your tender embrace. May their memory endure, inspiring truth and loyalty in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they forever rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.
The Lord is my Shepherd...

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

God makes me lie down in green pastures, and leads me beside the still waters.

God revives my spirit, and guides me in paths of righteousness, for the sake of God’s Name.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me.

Your rod and Your staff - they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my foes.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm 23

May all of us who mourn, and all of us who cherish loving memories on this day, open our hearts to God, our Source of strength, our Ruler and Redeemer, our eternal Source of comfort, our ever-present Hope, as we recite the sacred words of the Mourners’ Kaddish.
Mourners:

Yitgaddal v’yitkaddash sh’mei rabba, b’alma di v’ra, ki-r’uteih, v’yamlikh malkhuteih b’hayyeikhon u-v’yomeikhon u-v’hayyei d’hay yamlikh malkhuteih b’hayyei d’khol beit Yisrael, ba-agala u-viz’man kariv, v’imru AMEN.

Entire congregation, including mourners:

Y’hei sh’mei rabba m’varakh l’alam u-l’almei almayya.

Mourners:

Yitbarakh v’yishtabbah v’yitpa-ar v’yitromam v’yitnassei v’yit-haddar v’yit-alleh v’yit-hallal sh’mei d’kudsha, b’rikh hu, l’eilla (u-l’eilla mi-kol) min kol birkhata v’shirata tushb’hata v’nehemata da-amiran b’alma, v’imru AMEN.

Y’hei sh’lama rabba min sh’mayya v’hayyim aleinu v’al kol Yisrael, v’imru AMEN.

Oseh shalom bi-m’romav hu ya’aseh shalom aleinu v’al kol Yisrael, v’imru AMEN.
May God’s great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God’s wish. May God’s sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the House of Israel. And we respond: AMEN.

May God’s great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed - though God, Who is blessed (b’rikh hu), is truly far beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And we respond: AMEN.

May abundant peace from heaven, and life, come to us and to all Israel. And we respond: AMEN.

May the One Who brings harmony on high, bring harmony to us and to all Israel. And we respond: AMEN.

The History and Meaning of Yizkor: Judaism and the Gift of Memory

We come together as a sacred community of comfort to recite the words of the Yizkor service. This practice dates to the time of the Crusades, when the anguish over the loss of loved ones caused Jews to embrace these prayers of remembrance and commemoration.

During this holy moment of Yizkor, as we are surrounded by the comfort of our community, we are blessed with the gift of memory.

Furthermore, throughout the Jewish year, our tradition provides us with many ways to sanctify memory:

- It is a sacred custom to light a memorial candle and recite the Mourners’ Kaddish for a loved one on the day of the yahrzeit, the Hebrew anniversary of a death, beginning the night before. At Adath Israel, we read the name of every yahrzeit on the date of this commemoration, at daily services, on Shabbat, and on holidays.

- In keeping with the tradition of giving tzedakah to honor our loved ones’ memory, memorial plaques and stained glass windows may be purchased as a lasting tribute; also, family and friends may send synagogue fund tributes printed in the bulletin, or establish permanent funds, to honor those whom we have lost.

As always, your clergy are available to help in any way and at any time to help ease the pain of loss, and to help ensure that all our loved ones will be tz’rurim b’tzror hachayyim - bound up in the bond of life eternal.
