Lunch and Learn Guest Speaker - Wednesday Feb. 28

Chava Kleinman is Director of Community Services of Shiloh, a community of 450 families in the Shomron, she manages emergency and crisis intervention. Since October 7th, they have been working around the clock to provide services and develop projects to deal with trauma now and after the war, for the entire community and especially for children. Soldiers from their community have been wounded and fallen in combat; a young man from the community has been taken hostage and is still being held by Hamas; they have been helping 130 families to cope while their husbands/fathers are away from home in reserve army service; as well as many of our young people who are in regular army service.
