SELLING CHAMETZ INSTRUCTIONS

Aside from it being forbidden for Jews to eat chametz on Pesach, it is also patently forbidden to own any chametz on Pesach. Chametz owned by any Jew over Pesach is not kosher, and can never be eaten even after Pesach ends.

It is not sufficient to merely clean our living areas of chametz and sequester it away in some protected place, we must sell the remainder to a non-Jew.

The instructions for selling chametz are listed below, along with a Power of Attorney form which can be used to empower Rabbi Zack to sell chametz on behalf of interested congregants, or to sublet the home of someone who will be away for Pesach.

1. Fill in the document carefully, listing the approximate values for the various categories of chametz whenever possible. If uncertain of the value, please overestimate. List your workplace(s) as well.
2. Only items which contain chametz, or items which may contain chametz, can be sold. (Selling an item can be used as a tool to avoid researching its contents and edibility.) Dishes, however, should not be included and any item which clearly does not contain grain or grain derivatives should not be included.
3. Although the shul's sale works for all forms of chametz, some have a family custom or have personally adopted a custom not to sell חמץ גמור (absolute chametz, like bread, cake, oat or wheat cereal, cookies, pretzels, rolled oats, crackers, beer, and whisky), and instead to give it away, eat it, or burn it.
4. In order for the sale to be legitimate, the non-Jew who purchases our chametz must have access to the chametz during Pesach. If you plan to be away during Pesach, therefore, please leave a key with a neighbor, and note on the Power of Attorney document that neighbor's phone number or your own cell phone number.
5. If you will not be home and are leaving it vacant during the entire holiday of Pesach, and you wish to sublet your entire home in order to be free of the obligation to clean and check your home, you may do so as long as you fulfill the mitzvah of bedikat chametz – checking for chametz – in the place where you are staying for Pesach. You should complete and return the Power of Attorney document to Rabbi Zack by THURSDAY, April 18th, and be out of your home before 8:55 p.m. that evening. If extenuating circumstances determine that you will not be able to leave your home before Thursday evening, April 18th, or that you will not be able to perform a search on Thursday night, April 18th, at your Pesach destination, then Rabbi Zack will sublet your entire home but exclude one room from the sublease (as indicated in the Power of Attorney document below) so that you will be able to perform the mitzvah of bedikat chametz in that room.
 - a. If you are travelling east of Columbus, where the time for selling chametz is earlier than it is in Columbus, please make sure that this is noted on your Power of Attorney form. Rabbi Zack will arrange an earlier sale time for your chametz.
 - b. If you are travelling west of Columbus, where the end of Pesach will occur later than it does in Columbus, please make sure that this is noted on your Power of Attorney form. Rabbi Zack will delay the return of any chametz to your possession after Pesach ends.
6. The form must be signed by the legal renter/owner of the property where the chametz is stored, and by the legal owner of the chametz. When these are NOT the same person, both people should be involved in delegating the power of the attorney to Rabbi Zack, and should consult with him.
7. All forms must be completed by personally appointing Rabbi Zack as your agent, and by delivering your form to him.

If you are traveling away before Thursday, April 18th, and are doing bedikat chametz at your home or workplace on Wednesday night, April 17th, or even prior to that, the berakhah is omitted.
