We Are Witnesses

Rabbi Harold M. Schulweis [z”l]

We are Witnesses

Witnesses are we to the possibilities within the universe to the potentialities within and between us.

Witnesses are we to the unity, oneness of God's universe.

Witnesses are we to the capacity of men, women and children to join hearts and hands and bind the severed fabric of our lives.

Witnesses are we to the indescribable joys of wholeness, the healing of togetherness, the hope of oneness.

Witnesses are we before God and humanity that only in the embrace of togetherness is the tear mended and the fragments made whole.
