We have all heard that the Halakhot around abortion are extremely complicated. Learn with Reb Jeff from the pesukim in the Torah to the teshuvot of the 20th century. We will come to appreciate the echoes of both the pro-life and pro-choice positions from the contemporary American discourse within the Halakhic system. What does it mean if the Supreme Court in fact strikes down Roe v. Wade? Are their cases in which Halakha would permit, or perhaps even require, an abortion but certain States may choose to prohibit?
