FROM THE DESK OF RABBI RAVSKI

Last year we tried to organize a Congregational trip to Israel. Unfortunately, and to be honest a little disappointingly, it didn't happen. Having to call those who had signed up, some who were anticipating their first trip and others who recognized that at their age it might be one of the last times they could travel so far, and tell them that the trip was off was heartbreaking. Though I was giving them disappointing news, I also made a promise, try again we would, and we will. During the High Holidays we will talk more about Israel, with whats happening there, how we can approach it, why visiting and experiencing Israel as Congregation is so important. You'll be reminded that if you are curious and perhaps this year is different, we will be holding an interest and informational meeting on November 14th, with the hopes of fulfilling the powerful statement of L'shanah Haba'ah B'Yirushalayim, Next Year in Jerusalem!

Going to Israel as a Congregation or even on a family trip is a special, unique experience. I remember the first time I went to Israel, with my family in 1992. It was the first international trip that I or my siblings had taken, it was a chance for us to see the places we had learned about in school and synagogue, heard about in the stories from the Torah. Likewise, the next family trip there was incredible. But for me, and so many other Jewish kids and teens, Israel is also the first international trip they take without their parents. As a teenager I took two separate trips to Israel, my 8th grade day school trip and Ramah Seminar as a summer program. Whether it's a two-week trip as a 14-year-old, or six weeks as a 17-year-old, being in Israel with your closest friends is nothing like going with your parents! Not only is the experience of Israel different, the connection that you forge with the country, your friends and Judaism are wholly your own. Inspired and built on the values instilled in you, of course, but it is those memories and experiences, I believe, that form the bedrock foundation of a life-long love for and relationship with Israel.

So how do we provide this type of experience for our children? How do we find the not-so-inexpensive means of sending them on programs like Addlestone's 8th grade trip, Ramah Seminar or USY Pilgrimage? Because of our love for Israel, as a congregation and a community, I want to highlight two programs, one established and one new, that will help our congregation send all our children to Israel as teenagers for less than the cost of the actual round-trip plane ticket.

For a generation Synagogue Emanu-El has been a supporter of the Israel Education Fellowship Program (IEF) in partnership with Charleston Jewish Federation, and we are proud that we have more families participating in this program, by a wide margin, than any other synagogue in the area. This program quadruples the money that a family puts aside for a child's trip to Israel. Eligibility for the program begins when a child is in 3rd grade, when they enroll their family contributes $200/child for seven consecutive years. At the end of each year we, as a synagogue match that donation and Federation matches both donations. By the end of the seventh year, a family has contributed just $1,400, but the child has $5,600 (!) to use for an extended trip to Israel (and yes, it can be applied to the Addlestone Israel trip a year early!).

The second program is brand new to Emanu-El and starts this year. In partnership with United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism and RootOne, every bnai mitzvah will receive a $3,000 voucher which can be used on the same, or different, Israel trip. Through these two incredible partnerships, Synagogue Emanu-El is helping to provide nearly $9,000 to send our teens to Israel for incredible experiences.

We are grateful to our partners in these endeavors. Visiting Israel, loving and supporting Israel is like no other Jewish value. It is our religious homeland, a place where Judaism can be felt at every turn and in every season. As a congregation we will return there, I hope you will join me and make it possible this coming year. In the meantime, let us celebrate the opportunities our congregation and community can provide every teenager and wish them all a Nisijah Tonah, a safe trip to Israel and we can't wait to hear about your trip!

Don't have a teen to send to Israel? Consider supporting CJF's Annual campaign which helps in the matching of IEF Funds. Use your phone to scan the QR code or click here to help support this program.

PRESIDENT-AL HAWKINS

Welcome to the dog days of summer, y'all. I hope your AC is doing its job and keeping you cool. We've got you covered Fridays and Saturdays at shul if you like! Or Minyan during the week. As we move into August I am reminded of how close September/October is getting and how busy things get at SEE during these months. I don't intend to diminish your remaining month of summer, but I would be remiss if I didn't help you be prepared for what's to come. Here are just a few of the events to mark your calendars with. First, be sure to get your Honors request into the office ASAP. Second, please contact the office for seat reservations and purchases. Third, please contact Rhonda or Charles Richards if you are able to be a greeter (year-round) or an usher for the High Holidays. This is a vital role in our synagogue so help when you can. Lastly, our awesome Religious School starts September 10th. We cannot wait to see your children return for another exciting year of Jewish learning and fun. The staff has been working hard to make this year better than ever.

As we head deeper into hurricane season, please take time to review your emergency preparedness plans. You can never be too ready. We always plan for the worst but hope for the best.

I also want to take this time to invite you all to synagogue events and Shabbat services during August. Join us on August 4th for Shabbat on the Beach, August 6th for Jewish Heritage night at the Joe, August 16th we volunteer at Neighbors Together, August 19th is the Bar Mitzvah of Mason Segal, August 25th Shabbat services followed by Shabbat dinner. It is wonderful to see all the smiling faces in shul. I look forward to seeing you and/or hearing from you.

Enjoy your summer,
Al

SISTERHOOD

The Women's League for Conservative Judaism 2023 Convention was held in Schaumburg, IL (near Chicago) on July 16th-19th. Jessica Solomon, Lydia Mandel, and Gloria Adelson represented Charleston and Synagogue Emanu-El at the convention. Sisterhood affiliates from North America, across the US and Canada, were represented. As first time attendees, Jessica and Lydia were excited to learn about programs that WLCJ supports, make connections with other Sisterhood Presidents, and play "Jewish geography!" Did you know Women's League supports a birthing center in Uganda? Additionally, a Ziegler rabbinical student and his wife spoke about their Jewish community in Uganda, the Abayudaya, a group of devout Jews. Did you know there were 30 women who celebrated their B'nai Mitzvah at convention? Did you know that Masorti Judaism is worldwide, not just in Israel? Did you know the Masorti Movement helped relocate Ukrainian refugees? These are things that we now know. Thank you for supporting us in our Sisterhood endeavors.

At home, before we left town, we had a wonderful event, "Food Addiction 911." We learned about why we have food cravings and got tips on healthy eating. We were served a healthy meal, too! The event was very well received. Also, please remember we have two events coming up: Mah Jongg on August 30th, and Paid Up Brunch on September 10th. Hope to see you there!

Sisterhood sponsored our first Pop-up event of the 2023-2024 season with Food Addiction 911 presented by Melissa Currey of Habits for Health. Sisterhood members were provided great information on why we have food cravings and ideas to end food addiction. We received a take home booklet with reminders and healthy recipes to enhance our journey. We laughed, enjoyed tasty food samples and great company! Look for announcements on additional Pop-up events and contact Nanci Kestenbaum (nfkaye29407@gmail.com) if you have a Pop-up idea you'd like to share.

WE NEED YOU!!

IN JEWISH TRADITION, ACTS THAT GO ABOVE AND BEYOND OUR EVERYDAY BEHAVIOR ARE CALLED ACTS OF CHESSED.

Tradition teaches that chesed is one of the three pillars that is said to hold up the world, and that the Torah- our foundational text -begins and ends with acts of chesed.

If you or someone you know is in need of a helping hand or goodwill, a phone call or a little cheer in these unprecedented times please contact Heather Levy

843-729-2084 or email levyht72@yahoo.com

We rely on our synagogue members, their friends and families, to let us know when someone is hospitalized, suffering an illness, or bereavement.

We would also like to hear the good news, such as celebrating a birth, graduation, special award, promotion or any other simcha.

In order to better keep everyone informed, please share this information with us by calling the office at 843-571-3264.
