WISHING YOU FAIR WINDS AND FOLLOWING SEAS, ADE!

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE!

- Babysitting: Available Saturdays from 9:00AM-12:30PM
- Religious Garments: As a sign of respect, a kippah (skull-cap) is worn by all males in the Synagogue. A talit (prayer shawl) is worn by adult Jewish males on Sabbath mornings; adult Jewish females are encouraged to wear a talit on Sabbath mornings as well.
- Dress: We ask all who attend to dress modestly, to reflect the sanctity of the Sabbath and the Synagogue. Additionally, everyone accepting honors must have their heads and shoulders covered.
- Books: The blue siddur contains prayers recited during the services. The red chumash contains the Five Books of Moses, with additional readings from the Prophets. Both are written in English and Hebrew and are read right to left. Both books are considered sacred, as they contain God's name.
- Electronics: The use of mobile phones, photographic devices, and writing implements are prohibited in the Synagogue on the Sabbath.

Thank you!

Happy
PURIM

We are collecting food for the Kosher Food Bank. For each non-perishable food item you bring, you will receive a ticket. After each chapter of the Megillah reading, one lucky ticket will be drawn, and you could win one of many fabulous prizes! Helpful Hint: Bring a box of pasta to use as a gragger (noisemaker) and donate it afterward.

A NOTE ABOUT PASSOVER

We are proud of our annual tradition of hosting a Passover Seder in the Synagogue. This has provided members, local guests, and out-of-town guests a warm and meaningful experience for one of Judaism's most beloved traditions.

Unfortunately, due to the unsafe condition of the kitchen and very necessary refurbishment, we will be unable to host a Passover Seder this year. By informing you of this now, we recommend the following:

- If you are hosting Passover Seders at your home and are able to accommodate extra guests, especially those who do not have a Seder to attend, please contact the Synagogue office;
- If you need a Seder to attend, please contact the Synagogue office and we will try to link you with a home that has spots available;
- Regardless of your circumstance for this year's Passover, we can all agree that our annual congregational Seder is an important service to the synagogue and the wider community — one of many vital services that we cannot provide without a functioning kitchen. We hope you'll join us in donating to ensure that our renewed kitchen will nourish the community for years to come.

TORAH TIME: TERUMAH

While Moses remains on Mount Sinai, God provides detailed instructions regarding the construction and decoration of the Mishkan. This Tabernacle is to house the Ark and allow the Divine Presence to dwell among the people of Israel.
