

LEARNING. SERVING. BELONGING.

Welcome to Synagogue Emanu-El! We are Charleston's Conservative, egalitarian congregation. Through worship, learning, and social action, we are a community of caring for our congregation and K'lal Yisrael. We hope you enjoy Shabbat services and will make this one of your Charleston homes.

- Dress: We ask all who attend to dress modestly, to reflect the sanctity of the Sabbath and the Synagogue. Additionally, everyone accepting honors must have their heads and shoulders covered.
- Books: The blue siddur contains prayers recited during the services. The red chumash contains the Five Books of Moses, with additional readings from the Prophets. TIKUN OLAM 5780: CIRCLE OF LIFE
 December/January/February
FILL THE CRIB

TORAH TIME: VAYETZE

As he begins his journey away from his furious brother, Jacob dreams of angels, ascending and descending the heavens. Awed, he vows to return from this journey and follow God's ways. After reaching Haran, he marries Laban's daughters, Leah (accidentally) and Rachel (on purpose), sires children, and prospers while raising cattle for Laban. After 20 years, Jacob finally breaks free from Laban and prepares to fulfill his pledge to return to Canaan.
