- Babysitting: Available Saturdays from 9:00AM-12:30PM
- Religious Garments: As a sign of respect, a kippah (skull-cap) is worn by all males in the Synagogue. A talit (prayer shawl) is worn by adult Jewish males on Sabbath mornings; adult Jewish females are encouraged to wear a talit on Sabbath mornings as well.
- Dress: We ask all who attend to dress modestly, to reflect the sanctity of the Sabbath and the Synagogue. Additionally, everyone accepting honors must have their heads and shoulders covered.
- Books: The blue siddur contains prayers recited during the services. The red chumash contains the Five Books of Moses, with additional readings from the Prophets. Both are written in English and Hebrew and are read right to left. Both books are considered sacred, as they contain God's name.
- Electronics: The use of mobile phones, photographic devices, and writing implements are prohibited in the Synagogue on the Sabbath.

SILENT AUCTION

You won't want to miss the auction this year at the BBQ on Sunday, December 15th!

We have everything from hotel stays to Botox treatments. Some of your favorite stores and restaurants have graciously donated, so support the synagogue and consider paying at least market value for the items.

Restaurants that will have gift cards up for auction include: Jestine's Kitchen, Red Orchid, Andolinis, T-bonz, Mrs. Rose's and Hyman's Seafood.

Stay tuned next week for a list of some of the stores that have graciously donated, and get excited to bid!

WINDOWS

Our community outreach "Windows" program continues to provide a Jewish connection to residents of senior living facilities. Rabbi Rosenbaum visits The Palms in Mount Pleasant, first Thursday of the month, 10:30AM. He visits Harmony/The Crossings in West Ashley, the third Thursday of the month, 11:00AM. Volunteers are needed to accompany the rabbi on these meaningful visits. If you are interested, contact Allan Benezra, 914-329-8336 or allanbenezra@gmail.com.

KKBE BLUE BOOK

Please contact Bonnie Silverberg at 843-556-5670 to make any changes to your information for the upcoming Blue Book Directory.

We will gather and celebrate Hanukkah together! After lighting the menorah, we will shop for the Kasher Food Pantry. Each family equipped with a list of "most needed" foods will take their carts and shop and make this a night of giving.

A wonderful feeling of our community coming together to dedicate a night of Hanukkah to giving the gift of Tikkun Olam.
