FROM THE DESK OF RABBI RAVSKI

Summer approaches, the hours of daylight are increasing, as is the humidity in the Lowcountry. The onset of Summer is noticeably felt in Judaism because of the role the sun plays in determining "Jewish time." On the Hebrew calendar, the new day begins at nightfall, when three stars are visible in the night sky. For holidays, such as Shabbat, we back this time up to just before sunset so that there is never a question of accidental trespass on the holiday. Even so, in Charleston in the Summer months, the average official start of Shabbat each week is sometime around 8:00pm. While it might seem inconvenient to begin Shabbat so late, or to think about first sitting down to dinner at that time, Jewish Law permits us to begin the celebration of Shabbat early. In doing so, we are able to celebrate Shabbat at a time when the restrictions of the day are not yet incumbent upon us. This allows us to be more flexible in the ways we can welcome Shabbat and the programs we can hold on Friday evenings.

Over the past three years we have used the late start time of Shabbat to help expand our Friday Night Kabbalat Shabbat Service with the addition of Kabbalat Shabbat at the Beach. This monthly program has brought us to beaches all over Charleston, where we gather to play and pray in the sand! We have regularly had 30-40 people at these services and look forward to seeing even more people this year as we head to the Isle of Palms County Park each month.

While playing and praying in the sand is fun, there is still more that we can do, still more that we want to do. One of my favorite stories from when we first moved the Charleston was that I had to go to the County Assessor's office, the city had mistakenly classified our home as a 'vacation home' for tax purposes and I needed to fix it. While standing in line, the person in front of me turned around and said "hello Rabbi, I have a question- what do you think about musical instruments on Shabbat?" in front of me was none other than Jacobo Mintzer, a past president of Synagogue Emanu-El. A wonderful discussion kept us occupied while we waited, and we parted with the hopes of finding a way that both guards the Sabbath and brings more musicality to our services. This Summer, thanks to the generous support of Federation, we will be experimenting with ways to bring more music into our Shabbat observances and services. Each month during the summer we will be bringing in an artist in residence. We will use the late starting time of Shabbat to allow for the use of Musical instruments during Kabbalat Shabbat and perhaps even learn a new tune or two to add to our repertoire. The first Musical Kabbalat Shabbat will be June 23rd, and we are excited that our very own Yuriy Bekker will be bringing his incredible talent to our sanctuary and our prayers.

So whether you love the beach and ocean or the beautiful, musical sounds of instruments, join us this Summer for Kabbalat Shabbat and more!

Techeilet: The Color of Tzitzit

Sunday, June 4th @ 9:45am

Rabbi Ravski will be teaching about the lost, and rediscovered, Biblical blue color known as techeilet.

Techeilet is best known as the color of tzitzit, the ritual fringes of a tallit. At the end of the class, we will learn how to tie tzitzit, and, for those who would like, a set of techeilet tzitzit can be purchased from Rabbi Ravski to add to and enhance your tallit.

You do not need to purchase the tzitzit to join the class.*

PRESIDENT-AL HAWKINS

Happy June, everyone. I hope you had a chance to participate in one of the many events at SEE this past month. It all came together with the 75th Gala. What a party! Happy birthday Synagogue Emanu-El. I can't wait to see what happens over the next 75 years.

Now on to June. We open the month with a lesson on Talit by Rabbi Ravski (Sunday, June 4th at 9:45 AM). This will provide everything you were afraid to ask plus more (learning about the blue thread and how to tie the knots to name two). June also starts our Kabbalat Shabbats at The Beach. This is where we hold services at the beach (IOP County Park). The fun starts at 4 PM with services at 6 PM once a month. June 9th is the first one this summer. Watch the calendar for July and August.

Thank you to all the volunteers who have given their time and energy to the synagogue. We can really use more volunteers. There are always more ways to volunteer your knowledge: be a board member, be a board committee member, be a greeter on Shabbat, offer to host a dinner for guests or new members, reach out to the office staff and ask how you can help, attend at least one minyan a week/month. Our synagogue is a living, breathing entity and thrives on its members. If you have time (and any extra energy), please ask how you can help.

Shalom,

SISTERHOOD

Hey everyone! Happy Summer! We have a great deal to report from Sisterhood. First of all, Sisterhood Shabbat was a huge success! This all women-led service was very inspiring and beautiful. A huge thank you goes out to Mindy Hawkins, Lisa Isaacson and Nanci Kestenbaum for their hard work to make this event happen! Also, a big thanks to everyone who participated and worked behind the scenes. If you would like to participate next year the date has already been set: Jan 20, 2024. Mark your calendars!

Our first meeting of the new Sisterhood board was very lively. It was so exciting to hear all the great ideas flying around. We will have a lot to do next year, so ladies, be sure to join for 2023-24. Look for membership emails in July; Paid Up Brunch will be September 10th. Another event this year will be "Get Your Mah Jongg!" All skill levels are invited, beginner to expert, for this Jewish-Chinese game. If you can teach how to play, we need you, too! There will be prizes and lots of fun!

Also, Sisterhood sponsored HaGafen is back! You can honor someone special by contacting Nanci Kestenbaum (nfkaye29407@gmail.com) and Sisterhood will make sure you are recognized as the HaGafen sponsor in the bulletin. Our policy is that multiple sponsors are allowed for any given week - the more the merrier!

Beginning June 5th, join Sisterhood on Monday mornings to enjoy physical, spiritual and community engagement. All ages welcome at 6:30am for 45 minutes of outdoor, low impact movement followed by minyan at 7:30am. We will meet near the synagogue playground. Bring water, insect repellent, a small towel and your smile! You can workout with friends, then pray at minyan. It's a winning combination!

B'Shalom,
Lydia and Jessica

SISTERHOOD BOOK CLUB— LISA ISAACSON

On Wednesday, May 17th, the Sisterhood Book Club met on Zoom to discuss "Lucy By the Sea". Ava Kleinman did a great job leading the discussion. We talked about how we all got through the quarantine period of COVID, as well as the character development. Our next meeting, June 21st, will be in person.

Email me for details on location at lisajanetisaacson@gmail.com

HAGAFEN FOR SHABBAT

To honor a special Simcha, consider sponsoring the grape juice and wine (only $36.00!) and have the honoree's name(s), occasion and your name appear in the weekly handout.

Contact Nanci Kestenbaum to sponsor (nfkaye29407@gmail.com)

PHYSICAL, SPIRITUAL, COMMUNITY

Join our Sisterhood and Synagogue communities on the playground, Monday mornings at 6:30am (light rain or shine) for 45 minutes of movement followed by Minyan at 7:30am.

Bring a yoga mat or beach towel, small "sweat" towel, hydration and your smile.

Walk, stretch, balance, strength – we'll switch it up each week and have some fun!

All ages welcome!

Please consider this fund for your philanthropic endeavors.

When surprises come to the budget, like an act of G-d destroying the sukkah, this is where we go to make the necessities happen.

As the fiscal year draws to a close, we are looking back, and planning for the future we want to grow. Support for this fund goes to supporting every aspect of synagogue life from fresh, warm challah in new member baskets to buying a new sukkah days before Sukkot.
