Beth Sholom Congregation Parents' Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guide

Mazal Tov!

We are excited to work with you and your family to make your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah training and celebration a meaningful experience. We look forward to our journey together as your children transition from children to emerging young adults. We hope that their experiences here at Beth Sholom provide meaning and direction in their lives and will inspire them to lead lives of holiness.

Now is the time to start preparing for your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah. As the date approaches, you may find the answers to many of your questions in this booklet. The professional staff, our Office Staff and our Bar/Bat Mitzvah buddies will be glad to help you with any additional questions that you may have. Mazal Tov.

The Date

At Beth Sholom a child celebrates becoming Bar/Bat Mitzvah after their 13th birthday (according to the Hebrew calendar). B'nai Mitzvah are celebrated from September through June on (Shabbat) Saturday mornings. In certain circumstances a family and the synagogue may choose to schedule a Bar/Bat Mitzvah on Saturday afternoon to accommodate the particular educational needs of a child.

If the date you were assigned presents a conflict for you, please discuss alternative dates with Julie Atchick. We consider all requests for date changes and will try to accommodate your needs.

I. Requirements for Bar/Bat Mitzvah

- Student attends JQuest B'Yachad or Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy at the time of their Bar/Bat Mitzvah
- Student has at least five years of Jewish education before celebrating Bar/Bat Mitzvah
- Students are obligated to attend Shabbat services in 3rd through 6th grade. This includes all Shabbat Experiences plus 10 additional Shabbat services. We encourage you and your family to attend together and to attend as many Shabbat morning services as possible.
- Families are members in good standing of Beth Sholom Congregation

II. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah Week

During the week of a Bar/Bat Mitzvah, there are four times the child and their family participate in services. We believe these opportunities allow the congregation to more fully celebrate with you and will help your child to feel comfortable participating in services.

1. Preceding Shabbat: Your child will participate in Minhah, Ma'ariv and Havdallah services on the Shabbat afternoon preceding the Bar/Bat Mitzvah. The service begins 1 hour and 15 minutes after Shabbat begins. Please check the calendar for the exact time.
2. Morning Minyan: Your child will participate in the Morning Minyan on the Thursday morning before his or her date. Services begin at 7:20 am but please arrive at 7:10 am. In addition to leading parts of the service, your child will receive an aliyah and read from the Torah.
3. Friday Night: Your child will participate in Friday night services at 6:00 pm the night before his or her Bar/Bat Mitzvah.
4. Shabbat: By the time of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah morning your child will be prepared and relaxed –and ready to make you proud. We ask families to arrive at services at 9:00 am. The service begins at 9:15 am. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah also helps to lead Kiddush after their service.

III. Participation in Services

The centerpiece of a child's participation is the Torah service. A Bar/Bat Mitzvah student leads the Torah service, chants

Beth Sholom Congregation Parents' Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guide

Torah and Haftarah and prepares a D'var Torah (teaching). Each child will participate in the service to the extent that is appropriate given their level of comfort and competency. The Rabbis and Cantor will meet with families to determine goals for your child's participation.

IV. Instruction

The cornerstone of Bar/Bat Mitzvah training at Beth Sholom occurs in the years leading up to a child's 13th birthday. Attendance at school and at Shabbat Experiences is important. In addition, it is crucial that you begin to bring your child/ren to the main Saturday morning service as often as possible to provide the best preparation. Approximately 1 year before your Bar/Bat Mitzvah Julie Atchick will contact you regarding the details of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah year. Beginning approximately one year before the Bar/Bat Mitzvah your child will have individualized instruction in synagogue skills.

Family Education

Beth Sholom has 6 to 8 family (congregational) education programs every year called The Shabbat Experience. Please plan to attend these educational programs.

In addition, each year every grade has a Friday night dinner and a Saturday morning service.

Each year there will be a family educational program. The first meeting is for parents only. The rest are for parents/guardians and children:

3rd grade - Parent meeting to go over B'nai Mitzvah booklet

4th grade / 2nd half of the year - One family learning program with Rabbis

5th grade (near the end)- The idea of Mitzvah and Jewish actions

6th grade - How to write your D'var Torah

Chanting Torah/ Haftarah

Trope Class is a program in 5th and 6th grade in JQuest B'Yachad that teaches students Torah and Haftarah reading skills. The goal of the program is to teach students to independently prepare a Torah reading. In 6th grade students chant Torah in our congregational Shabbat afternoon service.

Private Instruction

Hazzan Weber will contact your family one year before your child becomes Bar/Bat Mitzvah to begin individual instruction. Weekly instruction will be 30 minutes and include training in Torah and Haftarah chanting and prayer leading. Members of the family may also arrange to chant Torah; please speak with Hazzan Weber. Your child may also be paired with a teen buddy to help them review. See Appendix A for a list of prayer goals.

Rabbis Meetings: Your child will meet with one of the Rabbis several months in advance of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah to prepare a D'var Torah. The entire family will meet with the Rabbis the Thursday prior to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah.

V. Honoring Relatives and Friends

Bar/Bat Mitzvah families may give out up to four aliyot to family and friends. (You do not have to use all of these honors.) This is in addition to the aliyah that the Bar/Bat Mitzvah student will have. Only those who are at or above the age of Bar/Bat Mitzvah and who are Jewish are eligible for these honors or may open the Ark for Aleinu, or dress or lift the Torah. The Conservative Movement defines "Jewish" as one born of a Jewish mother or one who converts to Judaism. If you have any questions about this, please contact the Rabbis.

Beth Sholom Congregation Parents' Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guide

Non-Jewish parents are warmly welcomed to participate with their Jewish spouse in blessing their Bar/Bat Mitzvah child on the bimah. In addition, non-Jewish parents and family members are warmly welcomed into our community and may lead an English reading at the service. Please speak with the Rabbis to arrange for this participation. See Appendix B for the form.

A copy of the Berakhot (blessings) that are recited by those who are honored with aliyot is on page 142 of Siddur Sim Shalom in Hebrew and transliteration.

VI. MAKING YOUR CHILD'S BAR/BAT MITZVAH MEANINGFUL

Attending Shabbat Services

When families share in the activities of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah year, the experience is enhanced immeasurably for you and your child. Please plan to attend all Shabbat Experiences and 10 other Shabbat services on Friday evening and Shabbat morning as often as possible during 5th and 6th grade. This will allow both you and your child to make Jewish prayer a part of your life and the life of your family.

VII. Tallit, T'fillin and Kippah

Please plan to purchase tallit, t'fillin and a kippah for your child. These are available in the Sisterhood Gift Shop. Boys are expected to wear t'fillin on the Thursday morning before their Bar Mitzvah; girls are strongly encouraged to do so. If purchasing these items is a financial hardship, please speak to the Rabbis.

VIII. Mitzvah /Hesed Projects

At JQuest B'yachad and at a 5th grade meeting, children study about hesed (acts of loving kindness, eg: visiting the sick, helping those in need, etc.) to prepare them to choose a hesed/volunteer activity that is meaningful for them. We ask that you work with your child to perform volunteer service to the Jewish or larger community in 7th grade. Many places require a parent to be on site with a twelve year old, so we see this as a good bonding experience for parents and children. For ideas about Mitzvah projects please speak to one of the Rabbis. Also see www.themitzvahbowl.com.

IX. Tzedakah

Another way to enhance the meaning of this joyous occasion is to teach your Bar/Bat Mitzvah child about the mitzvah of tzedakah as part of the celebration. Please consider asking your child to donate a small percentage of their Bar/Bat Mitzvah gift money to a tzedakah of their choice. The Rabbis will discuss this with your child in class and at their meeting. Some families also choose to replace the bimah flowers with food baskets for our Mitzvah Food pantry.

X. Candy and other Sisterhood Gift Shop items

It is our custom to shower our Bar/Bat Mitzvah with candy after their Haftarah blessings. Parents are invited to bring Sunkist Fruit gems to the service. Candy may be purchased at the Sisterhood Gift Shop. The Sisterhood Gift Shop offers kippot for your guests, wine for your celebration and a gift registry. Please contact them at 215.887.1342 ext. 114 for everything they offer.

XI. Parent Blessings

Parents are invited to bless their child on the bimah. The Rabbis have two prayer options or parents are invited to write a two-paragraph blessing to share with their child at their Bar/Bat Mitzvah. If you choose to write your own, please show a copy of your prayer to the Rabbis.

XII. Program Handout

Please see Appendix C of this booklet for samples of program handouts. Programs include an introduction to the day and lists the names of all those being honored as well as their relationship to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah. You are welcome to use any parts of the samples or write your own. Program handouts are due to Julie Atchick 6 weeks prior to your simchah.

Beth Sholom Congregation Parents' Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guide

XIII. Sponsorships

Many families choose to participate in the following:

- Seudah Sh'lishit after the Torah reading the Saturday afternoon before the Bar or Bat Mitzvah. A family can bring a kosher cake, cookies or other dairy or pareve treats.
- Minyan breakfast after Morning Minyan on Thursday. Contact Julie Atchick at 215.887.1342 ext. 216 or jatchick@bethsholomcongregation.org to make arrangements. As of July 2017, the price of sponsoring breakfast is $150.
- Extended Kiddush for the congregation on Saturday morning. Please contact Julie Atchick to make these arrangements at least six months before your event. See Appendix C for menu options and pricing.

XIV. Commemorating Your Child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah

You may choose to have your child's name permanently affixed to the beautiful Bar/Bat Mitzvah Scroll outside the Administration Office. All who attend Beth Sholom will be able to note this milestone in your child's life, and your family will forever be a part of Beth Sholom. The cost of each brass leaf is $250.* Engraving takes two weeks. Some families have chosen to mark their child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah by purchasing a plaque on the Simhah Board just outside Rabbi Glanzberg-Krainin's study in the hallway near the Administrative Office. This plaque may be purchased in addition to or in place of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah scroll. The cost is $500 and engraving takes two weeks. Plaques may be ordered by calling Karen Sandler in the Administration Office at 215.887.1342 ext.101.

XV. Facility Reservations & Kiddush Lunch

We encourage you to mark this special occasion with a se'udat mitzvah (festive meal or reception) at Beth Sholom. You may use one of our approved kosher caterers or opt for our in-house extended Kiddush. Currently our approved caterers include:

Barclay Caterers 215.612.2837

Betty the Caterer 215.224.8400

Food Designs 215.843.2292

Please contact Julie Atchick at ext. 216 or jatchick@bethsholomcongregation.org as soon as possible after you receive your Bar/Bat Mitzvah date to reserve the room(s) you wish to use for your reception. A contract will be mailed to you and requires your signature. When we receive the signed contract, together with one half of the facility rental fee, we will enter your reservation into the congregational calendar. See Appendix D for pricing.

Our Facilities

The Fischman Memorial Auditorium graciously accommodates 100 to 350 people with a band and dance floor. The N. Herman Bornstein Auditorium comfortably accommodates up to 125 people. Both rooms offer tremendous flexibility in planning your decorations.

See Appendix D for rental costs for the Fischman or Bornstein Auditoriums: Please remember that catering, florist, entertainment, photographic and videographic arrangements and charges are separate. Cloakroom attendants can be arranged through Julie Atchick at a charge to be determined.

Kiddush

After Shabbat services your child will participate in Kiddush, the blessings over the wine and hallah. Your family will join the clergy at the head of the Kiddush table. After your child recites the blessings, the congregation partakes of the wine, hallah and Kiddush lunch. Beth Sholom, based on the number of guests you expect, orders Kiddush cake and wine. Many families take pleasure in enhancing Kiddush in one of the following ways:

You may choose to sponsor an extended Kiddush for the entire congregation. Since you are hosting the congregation and creating a special feeling of Shabbat sharing, there will not be a room rental fee. You will arrange your menu and other details directly with Julie Atchick, the approved caterer of your choice or you may use our in-house catering option.

Alternatively, you may sponsor an extended Kiddush for your family's guests only. In this case, there is a charge for the use of a separate room. In the spirit of Shabbat and community, the congregation strongly encourages families who can do so to sponsor a congregational extended Kiddush.

Please note: Our facilities are made available on a first-come, first-served basis. Therefore, it is imperative that you finalize your plans as early as possible to avoid a conflict with another family's reception. We will, of course, do everything we can to make it possible for you to celebrate your simhah here at Beth Sholom.

Please note as well: Catering policy states that only one caterer* may work in Beth Sholom's kitchen at a given time on any given day. *Please a list of approved caterers above.

Only food obtained from one of Beth Sholom's caterers is permitted. Some bakery items from approved bakeries are also permitted. Please contact Julie Atchick with questions.

If you choose to have your celebration elsewhere please consider kosher catering, or a dairy or vegetarian meal to reflect the Jewish values that we are celebrating.

XVI. Photography /Videography on Shabbat

Photographers

If your se`udat mitzvah takes place during Shabbat, videotaping from a fixed position and still photography are permitted using available light only. After Shabbat, all photography is permitted. Pictures may not be taken during services on Shabbat. Many families arrange to have a photo session either before or after the Bar/Bat Mitzvah so they can have a permanent record of their simhah. If you wish to do so, please call Julie Atchick at ext. 216 or email at jatchick@bethsholomcongregation.org. Please also let Julie know if you wish to have the clergy available for your pictures.

DVD of the Service

There is video equipment in our Main Sanctuary that is programmed in advance of Shabbat to record the entire Bar/Bat Mitzvah service. Two stationary cameras record simultaneously on two separate recorders. One captures the entire bimah while the other focuses on a close-up of the reader's table. There is no cost for these DVDs.

XVII. Music

During Shabbat, only modern Israeli and Jewish music may be played to enhance your celebration. If you wish to have a Saturday evening se`udat mitzvah, you may begin your reception with a cocktail hour prior to the conclusion of Shabbat. During this time, all rules pertaining to Shabbat must be observed. Please contact the synagogue before scheduling your se`udat mitzvah to find out what time Shabbat concludes. After Shabbat, all types of music and photography are permitted.

Chai. Your Invitation

Shabbat services begin at 9:15 am promptly. Shabbat Minhah services begin according to sunset. Please check our calendar. At 9:00 am you will be invited to visit with one of the Rabbis in their Sanctuary study. Please see our staff if you would like help to include Hebrew on your invitation.

XIX. Connections

Your child will be featured in Connections, our congregational newsletter, in the issue that includes the month of his/her Bar/Bat Mitzvah. You will be asked to complete a form and supply a photo of your child about 3 months in advance of the Connections publication deadline. Please check this deadline with Julie Atchick.

Beth Sholom Congregation Parents' Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guide

XX. Contractors

IMPORTANT NOTE: All contractors involved in your celebration (musicians, florists, photographers, videographers, entertainers, decorators, etc.) MUST carry sufficient Workers' Compensation, Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability Insurance. Please furnish the Facilities Coordinator with the name and phone number of everyone you engage so we can obtain current Certification of Insurance naming Beth Sholom Congregation as "Additional Insured". If any contractor you have selected does not carry Liability Insurance, he/she will have to secure the coverage or you will have to find another provider for that service. The Board of Directors has mandated that there are no exceptions to this policy.

Florists and decorators: Florists and decorators are expressly prohibited from using any fastening devices such as wire, staples or nails on walls, woodwork, curtains or tables in their decorations. Any requests for decorations to be hung from the ceilings must have prior approval of the Executive Director. All decorations used must be flame retardant. Smog and fog producing devices may not be used as they interfere with our smoke detectors. The use of glitter and confetti is not permitted in the building.

XXI. Security at Your Party

To ensure the safety of the children attending your party, and to preserve and protect the appearance of our building the Bar/Bat Mitzvah, House and Religious Committees have instituted a policy that all who hold a celebration at Beth Sholom must employ one security guard for every 40 children attending. The security guard should be scheduled from one half hour before the party begins until the end of the party. You are responsible for making these arrangements and for paying for this service. Please contact US Security Care at 215.591.2513 or another bonded and licensed security service.

XXII. After The Day

Bar/Bat Mitzvah is a significant milestone. It symbolizes the attainment of a stage in your child's religious education. We are very proud that almost all of our students continue their religious studies at Jewish Teen Collaborative, the Jewish Community High School, Gratz College or Jack M. Barrack Hebrew Academy after their Bar/Bat Mitzvah. We encourage all teens to chant Torah at Beth Sholom. Please discuss these options for your child's continued growth and learning with our Rabbis.

XXIII. Your Buddy

If you choose, during the year before your date, you can be assigned a "buddy" who can assist you with questions regarding your Bar/Bat Mitzvah. If you would like a buddy, contact Julie Atchick at 215.887.1342 ext. 216 or jatchick@bethsholomcongregation.org.

XXIV. Fees

Your Bar/Bat Mitzvah fee will appear 3 years before your simhah and is payable in 3 annual installments after you receive your date. Beth Sholom Board of Directors policy requires that all synagogue dues and fees be paid in full six months prior to the Bar/Bat Mitzvah date. Questions concerning outstanding charges should be directed to the Executive Director. The Bar/Bat Mitzvah fee, which is subsidized by the congregation, includes training and material costs, sponsorship of the Oneg Shabbat and Kiddush, cake and wine for your guests, and flowers for the bimah (pulpit). The cost of sponsoring the Seudah Sh'lishit and Morning Minyan breakfast is also separate from the Bar/Bat Mitzvah fee. If you elect to have a separate Kiddush for your family and guests, you will be charged a room rental fee. Please note: The Board of Directors reviews all fees annually. The current fee schedule is available through the Administration Office, subject to change.

Beth Sholom Congregation Parents' Bar/Bat Mitzvah Guide

We hope this manual is helpful to you. There is, however, no substitute for personal contact with the clergy and members of the staff. Please feel free to raise any questions or concerns you may have directly, by phone or by e-mail. We will do everything we can to ensure your child's Bar/Bat Mitzvah and your family's simhah are truly memorable.

Bar Mitzvah Sample 1

It is with great pride and pleasure that we welcome our guests to Beth Sholom Congregation in celebration of Brian's Bar Mitzvah. We are honoring some of Brian's closest family members by having them participate in today's service. We hope that by knowing the names and relationships of those who are honored with aliyot (being called to the bimah to recite blessings before and after the Torah reading) you will feel more a part of the service and appreciate the loving relationships that are the foundation of this great simhah.

What is the Bar Mitzvah ceremony?

We welcome you with great joy to Beth Sholom Congregation to the celebration of Brian's Bar Mitzvah service this Shabbat morning. We are celebrating his transition from childhood to adulthood as he is called to the Torah, and now officially recognized in the eyes of Judaism as an adult. Today he is accepting the responsibility of fulfilling his personal and religious obligation according to the tradition of Judaism. As he is maturing on many levels: physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual, the congregation recognizes this passage by permitting him to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba'al Koreh (Torah Reader).

Dear Family and Friends,

The significance of a Bar Mitzvah is one of commencement, not conclusion: of joining, not of leaving. This ceremony offers Brian, our family, friends, and the entire Jewish community the opportunity to celebrate a heritage and tradition steeped in centuries of history. Brian's Bar Mitzvah is a vital moment in the reaffirmation of that tradition. When Brian is called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah, we'll remember our family members, name and name, no longer with us. We know how proud they would have been of Brian on the bimah reading from the Torah and chanting his Haftarah.

We are delighted that our family and friends are gathered to share this simhah with us. We are blessed with a wonderful family and dear friends with whom we have had many special moments. We are grateful to God for having reached this happy occasion.

Shabbat Shalom!

What is the Bar Mitzvah ceremony?

Bar Mitzvah means one living under the Mitzvot. While all Jewish boys become adults in the eyes of the community at age 13, this morning's Shabbat service marks that passage. A great deal of study, not just of Torah and prayers, but also of Jewish history, culture and customs precedes today's ceremony. Key to the experience is being called to the Torah for an aliyah. Jewish adulthood also confers the right to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba`al Koreh (Torah Reader) and to chant the Haftarah. From this point forward, the Bar Mitzvah boy can be counted among a minyan, a quorum of ten Jewish adults gathered for prayer. He also assumes the lifelong responsibilities of Jewish adulthood for which his study has prepared him.

Dear Family, Friends and Fellow Congregants,

We are delighted to have you share in this celebration of David's Bar Mitzvah. This service allows David, our family, friends, and the entire congregation to share in the continuation of a rich heritage and sacred tradition. As we watch David on the bimah, we will think of his two great-grandfathers whose names he carries, and the generations of Jews who have celebrated Bar Mitzvah through the centuries.

Thank you for joining us today to witness David's acceptance of the responsibilities of being a Jewish adult – a continuing commitment, as explained in today's Haftarah portion, to a life of doing justly, loving mercy and walking humbly with God.

Shabbat Shalom!

Love,
Bob, Joan, and David

Special occasions are meant to be shared with family and friends. It is with great pride and pleasure that we welcome our guests and our extended Beth Sholom family to celebrate with us the joy of Alex becoming a Bar Mitzvah. By knowing the names and relationships of those who are honored with aliyot, we hope you will feel more a part of the service.

What is the Bar Mitzvah ceremony?

The Bar Mitzvah ceremony marks the first time the Jewish community officially recognizes our son as a young man. To mark this transition from child to responsible adult, Alexander is given the opportunity to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba`al Koreh and to chant the Haftarah. Alexander has spent a great deal of time in preparation for this day. He has studied Jewish history, learned about our sacred traditions and understands our rich heritage. Today he will take that knowledge and assume a lifelong responsibility of Jewish adulthood.

Dear Family and Friends,

Today is a special day for Alex, his family and for those who know and love him. The sense of achievement and joy come from having mastered a difficult and complex task as well as learning about Jewish history. Recognition of the influence of thousands of years and the expectations for the future reaffirm this as a meaningful point in Alex's life. Alex has been training for this day for many years by attending Hebrew school, services, Torah study classes and Bar Mitzvah lessons.

We are truly honored that our family and friends have chosen to celebrate this joyous and momentous occasion with us.

Shabbat Shalom!

Love,

Janice and Arthur Block

What is the Bar Mitzvah ceremony?

The Bar Mitzvah ceremony is the rite of passage into the adult Jewish community. From the Bar Mitzvah student's perspective, he has worked long and hard to participate actively in the Shabbat service. From the community's perspective the child is ready to assume the religious obligations of an adult, and is counted in a minyan, a quorum of ten Jewish adults gathered for prayer. He is maturing on many levels: physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual. The congregation recognizes this passage by permitting him to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba'al Koreh (Torah Reader).

Dear Family and Friends,

We welcome you with great joy to the celebration of Saul's Bar Mitzvah this Shabbat morning. The significance of a Bar Mitzvah is one of commencement, not conclusion: of joining, not leaving. We feel privileged to have our family, friends, and the Beth Sholom community join us for this ceremony which is steeped in centuries of history and tradition

Saul is blessed to have three grandparents here today to celebrate this simhah. We are additionally blessed to have a wonderful family and dear friends who have shared many special moments with us. We are thankful and grateful to God for having reached this happy occasion and for having you here to share this Shabbat with us.

Shabbat Shalom!

It is with great pride and pleasure that we welcome our guests to Beth Sholom Congregation in celebration of Sharon's Bat Mitzvah. We are honoring some of Sharon's closest family members by having them participate in today's service. We hope that by knowing the names and relationships of those who are honored with aliyot (being called to the bimah to recite blessings before and after the Torah reading) you will feel more a part of the service and appreciate the loving relationships that are the foundation of this great simhah.

What is the Bat Mitzvah ceremony?

The Bat Mitzvah ceremony commemorates the first time the Jewish community officially recognizes a girl as a young woman and a responsible adult. During the ceremony she is given the opportunity to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba'alat Keriah and to chant the Haftarah according to the proper cantillations. She has spent much time in preparation for today's ceremony, learning about Jewish history, Israel and the mitzvot (religious obligations).

Dear Family and Friends,

We are thrilled to welcome you to the celebration of Sharon's Bat Mitzvah. A Bat Mitzvah represents commencement and joining, not conclusion or leaving. For Sharon, it is a milestone in her personal Jewish life and her association with the Jewish community. We feel privileged to have our family, friends, and the Beth Sholom community join us for this ceremony, which is steeped in centuries of history and tradition

We are very happy that each of you has come to celebrate this simhah with us. We are blessed with a wonderful family and dear friends with whom we have shared many special moments. We are thankful and grateful to God for having reached this happy occasion.

What is the Bat Mitzvah ceremony?

We welcome you with great joy to Beth Sholom Congregation to the celebration of Brittany's Bat Mitzvah service this Shabbat morning. We are celebrating her transition from childhood to adulthood as she is called to the Torah, and now officially recognized in the eyes of Judaism as an adult. Today she is accepting the responsibility of fulfilling her personal and religious obligation according to the tradition of Judaism. As she is maturing on many levels: physical, emotional, intellectual and spiritual, the congregation recognizes this passage by permitting her to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba'alat Keriah (Torah Reader).

Dear Family and Friends,

The significance of a Bat Mitzvah is one of commencement, not conclusion: of joining, not of leaving. This ceremony offers Brittany, our family and friends, as well as the entire Jewish community, the opportunity to celebrate a heritage and tradition steeped in many centuries of history. Brittany's Bat Mitzvah is a vital moment in the reaffirmation of that tradition. When Brittany is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah, we'll remember our family members, Sue Miller and Herman Goldstein, no longer with us. We know how proud they would be of Brittany on the bimah reading from the Torah and chanting her Haftarah.

We are delighted that our family and friends are gathered to share this simhah with us. We have been blessed with a wonderful family and dear friends who have shared many special moments with us. We are grateful to God for having reached this happy occasion and for having you here to share the day with us.

Shabbat Shalom!

What is the Bat Mitzvah ceremony?

The Bat Mitzvah ceremony marks the first time the Jewish community officially recognizes our daughter as a young woman. The transition from child to responsible adult affords Jane the opportunity to assume the religious obligations of an adult and to be counted on in a Minyan, a quorum of ten Jewish adults gathered together for prayer. The congregation recognizes this passage by permitting Jane to read from the Sefer Torah as Ba'alat Keriah (Torah Reader). We are delighted that you are able to join us in the observance of the Bat Mitzvah tradition.

Dear Family and Friends,

We are truly honored to share this special day in our lives with each and every one of you. The Bat Mitzvah ceremony offers Jane, our family and friends, and the entire congregation the opportunity to celebrate together a rich heritage and sacred tradition that has been observed for thousands of years. Jane's Bat Mitzvah is a vital moment in the affirmation of that tradition.

We are blessed with a wonderful family and dear friends who have shared many special moments with us. We are grateful to God for having reached this happy occasion and for having you here to share and celebrate this simhah with us.

What is the Bat Mitzvah ceremony?

Bat Mitzvah means one obligated to observe the mitzvot. This milestone is about taking one's place in the community as a Jew. Before age 13, the child's family takes responsibility for religious training and participation in the Jewish community. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah acknowledges a young woman as a part of the Jewish community. As a young adult, the Bat Mitzvah is expected to demonstrate her ability to read from the Torah and chant the Haftarah, thus rejoicing in a century old tradition.

Dear Family and Friends,

We welcome each of you and feel privileged that you could attend from near and far to honor Laura as she starts her life as a young Jewish woman. You will observe Laura leading the Shabbat Service this morning. During the Torah service, a few family members will be called to the bimah with Laura and recite blessings over the Torah. This is considered a very special honor, when family members share in the celebration of our Jewish heritage and the sacred traditions that have been performed for thousands of years. When Laura is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah, we'll remember her grandfather, Edward Smith, of blessed memory. We know how proud he would be of Laura reading from the Torah and chanting her Haftarah.

We feel blessed to celebrate such a happy occasion with the people in our lives who are most dear to us. The support of family, friends and community are both the heart and soul that have enriched our family beyond words. We believe that this day will be one that continues to enrich Laura's Jewish life. We are all blessed to have reached this day.

Shabbat Shalom!

Love,

Sarah, Joseph, and David
