

About Rabbi Hayim Herring, Ph.D

Rabbi Hayim Herring, Ph.D., is C.E.O. of HayimHerring.com, whose mission is "Preparing Today's Leaders for Tomorrow's Organizations™." He has served as a congregational rabbi of Beth El Synagogue in Minneapolis, MN., assistant executive director of the Minneapolis Jewish Federation, and founding executive director of STAR (Synagogues: Transformation and Renewal), a foundation created by Michael Steinhardt, Edgar Bronfman, and Lynn Schusterman for synagogue innovation and rabbinic leadership development. Hayim has published over 70 scholarly and popular articles and studies primarily on the American Jewish community. His doctoral dissertation was the only scientific study on the impact of the 1990 National Jewish Population Study on the federation system. Recent books include Connecting Generations: Bridging the Boomer, Gen X, and Millennial Divide (Rowman and Littlefield 2019); Leading Congregations and Nonprofit Organizations in a Connected World: Platforms, People and Purpose (Rowman and Littlefield 2016), co-authored with Dr. Terri Elton; and, Tomorrow's Synagogue Today: Creating Vibrant Centers of Jewish Life (Rowman/Alban Institute 2012). For more information about Rabbi Herring, click here. He is working on a new book, L'Dor va-Dor in a Digital Age, scheduled for publication in 2022.