Young Israel of White Plains

Schedule Vayishlach, Erev Chanukah, Chanukah: December 1 - December 8 (18 Kislev - 25 Kislev)

SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE

DEC 1-2

in memory of Sigi Bessler,

Shalom Shraga Ben Dov A"H

For almost 2 decades, Rav Gav Friedman has been studying and teaching about Judaism, relationships, and simply life. He's a beloved teacher in Aish HaTorah in Yerushalayim. He's funny, he's deep, and he's inspiring. Come and enjoy the ride!

TEHILLIM

Join us EVERY Night at 8:50pm to say Tehillim together for the safety of our local Chayalim and the entire IDF. May their endeavors be blessed and may the hostages and all of Klal Yisroel be sheltered in security and peace. SOON בקרוב !

Please do not remain silent and indifferent at this time: every Tifilah is meaningful.

Women's Initiative for Jewish Studies - Tuesday, December 5 @8:15pm via Zoom

a presentation by Abigail H. Meyer, Art Historian, Curator and Museum Educator. Ms. Meyer will speak on the topic: "Looking Forward, Looking Back: A Survey of Contemporary Jewish Art." In this lecture, she will present an exploration of innovative contemporary art both celebrating Jewish traditional sources and challenging boundaries of the modern Jewish world.

Ms. Meyer is a specialist in Jewish visual arts and material culture, with experience in various art-world sectors including collection management and practices, museum interpretation, connoisseurship and provenance research. She was the Head of Department of Ceremonial Objects and Fine Art at the leading boutique auction house specializing in Judaica in New York City for nearly two decades, and the researcher for Judaica at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the Department of European Sculpture and Decorative Arts. Abigail consults for museums, universities, libraries, research institutions and private collectors as an independent visual-arts professional specializing in rare Hebrew books, illuminated manuscripts, ritual objects and fine art.

All WIJS programming is open to women and men. Please visit <http://www.yinr.org/wijs> to view the complete WIJS 2023-24 schedule.

For more information, to be added to the WIJS email list, or for Zoom information, please call 914-636-2215 or email: wijs@yinr.org. Individuals on the WIJS mailing list will automatically receive the Zoom information.
