

COLLEGE CAMPUS AND BEYOND

How Jewish engagement on campus
can lead to careers with social impact

March 31, 2021

7:00 - 8:30 PM EST

This Zoom event is free and open to all. Please register at bit.ly/jewishimpactaftercollege

For additional information, contact Helene Schonbrun: helene@wjcouncil.org.

Laura E. Adkins is the Opinion Editor at JTA and an adjunct professor of journalism at Yeshiva University's Stern College. She is the former deputy opinion editor at the Forward, the former editor-in-chief of Jewish Insider and former assistant blogs editor at the Times of Israel. Laura graduated from NYU, where she served as president of TorchPAC.

Justin Hayet is the COO of Bnai Zion, a U.S. nonprofit organization that funds transformative projects in Israel. He previously served as the Senior Advisor to the Israel Ambassador to the United Nations. Justin graduated from Binghamton University, where he was an Israel advocate, and appeared in the Jerusalem U film Crossing the Line.

Sofie Jacobs is the Director of Audience Development and Strategic Projects at The Lead, a media company that connects the brand and retail industry with the Global Silicon Valley. She is a board member of Jewish Women International's Young Women's Leadership Network and the co-author of the "Just Between Us" book series. She graduated from University of Michigan, where she founded a Jewish women's book club.

