

HANASSI: OPERATING RULES DURING CORONAVIRUS

- Masks must be worn properly and social distancing must be maintained; failure to comply with this most basic medical safety precaution will end the davening.
- Bring your own siddur/chumash/tallit and anything else you might need
- Entrance to the shul is limited to 20 people for each minyan; please follow instructions regarding restroom usage
- A registration form must be submitted in order to ensure that we stay within the allowable number of people: link --> Hanassi Minyan Registration Form;
 - Registering is the best way to ensure your ability to join a minyan
- People with underlying medical conditions are advised not to attend; for example
 - Obesity, diabetes, pulmonary, cardiovascular or kidney problems, people currently undergoing cancer treatment, hypertension
- In addition to the chronic conditions mentioned above, the following also disqualifies anyone from attending:
 - People who have been in proximity of someone infected with Coronavirus within the past 2 weeks
 - People who have come from overseas within the past 2 weeks
 - People running temperature of 38 degrees or above
 - People with a cough or generally not feeling well
 - People who cannot properly wear a mask for the entire davening
