FROM THE BIMA Rabbi Randall Mark

I hope that your holidays were meaningful. From Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur to Sukkot to Simchat Torah, we had an abundance of Jewish holidays for every worshiper. For those who want solemn and intense services as on the High Holy Days to those who enjoy the joy of Simchat Torah, we had something for everyone! If you have any thoughts that you'd like to share with me from your holiday experience, give me a call, drop me a line, or come and see me—my door is always open. We are here to serve you and we seek to do so to the best of our ability.

In November we seek routine and the occasional special event. Over Teacher's Convention we are taking our teens to the Auschwitz exhibit at the Jewish Heritage Museum to try and give them an appropriate exposure to the horrors of our past. And of course, we will have our annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Service. We proudly join with the other houses of worship in our community to stand together in solidarity, helping to make this a more cohesive and caring community. Wayne has a history of anti-Semitic incidents that continue to our day. Everything we do together with others helps us to gain allies in the fight against hate. But we all have a moral imperative to fight against it.

We stand together with our Christian, Muslim, Buddhist and Hindu brothers and sisters saying that we are all one.

May your Thanksgiving be a peaceful one filled with family, friends and football, or whatever it is that you like to do.

Shalom,
Rabbi Randy Mark

From the President Barry Blecherman

When I left Simchat Torah services yesterday and all the Fall holidays were ended, my first thought was “winter is coming.” But then I realized that there’s a lot to enjoy at Shomrei Torah during the fall season – so why should I be thinking about winter now?

Three of Shomrei Torah’s younger members will be called to the Torah as B’nai Mitzvah during November. Also in November we have a Men’s Club Football Tailgate, a bowling event with Temple Beth Tikvah, an adult education program on end-of-life issues, a brunch honoring Dr. Abbie Salny, and many social opportunities for our kids. In December (before winter begins!) there’s more adult education, a Sisterhood event, a blood drive, the Wayne Township menorah lighting, the Men’s Club Man of the Year dinner – the list goes on and on. And of course there’s school and services.

So what’s my point?

We all lead busy lives. That’s the reality of 21st century existence in Metro NY. When you want to take a break from everything you can spend time alone streaming something on Netflix (I recommend “Somebody Feed Phil”) or, if you want to be with people, you can check out what is happening at 30 Hinchman. We exist because the Jewish community supports us. And that’s why we are here, creating community and meeting your needs. Stop by and see if what we are doing makes you feel good. And if we aren’t meeting your needs, we are open to your suggestions.

As a college professor I see tours of prospective students and their parents walk by me quite often. One of the things I hear parents say to their kids is, “My college years were great – you are going to have a blast. Wish I could go to college again!” We at Shomrei Torah cannot replicate a college experience for adult members BUT we do have a lot of fun. I hope to see you soon!

B’Shalom,

Barry

HIGH HOLIDAY APPEAL

Roberta Ort, Immediate Past President

In Case You Missed It on Rosh Hashanah

Hello everyone and Shana Tova! I am so excited to be up here addressing all of you today...mostly because this is the last time I have to do it!!!

For those of you who don't know me, I am Roberta Ort, the Immediate Past President of Shomrei Torah (in my second and final year – see the smile on my face?)

So ....how did I get here?

And ....why am I here?

I got here by following the path of MY Jewish journey.

And the reason I'm here today is to ask you about yours.

You thought I was going to say I'm here to ask you to contribute to the high holiday appeal.....but I'm not. I'd like you to think about your own Jewish Journey. Where did it begin? At home as child? As a teenager in summer camp? Or as a young married couple with influence from your spouse? Or even later.....when you had children of your own - at their bris, baby naming, taking them to Hebrew School.

My Jewish Journey began in Brooklyn, NY growing up in the 60's. That alone says a lot. We had scores of Jewish neighbors, classmates, store owners. We all had that same New York accent and we all had mothers who piled on the Jewish guilt. There was comfort in our commonality. Some of us went to an after school Hebrew school program, and others like me.....And this is for you Carol Fertig – attended the Rabbi Harry Halpern Day School of the East Midwood Jewish Center....the very same shul featured in several episodes of The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel. Whether we attended the after school program or the full day school, we were kids....so we hated it. It's part of being a kid! But on the holidays we gathered together, went to shul, schmoozed and then of course ate and ate and ate.... and it was good! Great memories and even better, a great foundation.

Years passed and for me, my Jewish journey was put on hold. I went to a public high school and then off to college, got married and still lived in Brooklyn but didn't even belong to a shul. And then....we had kids. Now what? We moved to Wayne New Jersey, a town with three shuls – so I was sure it must have a strong Jewish presence. And I expected that my kids would have some similar experiences to mine....right? Not exactly. In fact – not even close – I mean I'm comparing it to Brooklyn in the 60's and 70's! So we joined Shomrei Torah and here we found our Jewish neighbors. We sent our kids to Hebrew school and they hated it! Now we knew we were on the right track!

We met other Jewish families, we socialized, we played Jewish geography, we found people who spoke like us (despite my ongoing effort to hide my NY accent). We found our natural commonalities. It is human nature to gather – we are for the most part – a social species. We join groups where we share mutual interests be it in our professions, or hobbies or cultural backgrounds. So, if we didn't have a place to gather to meet our fellow Jews, where would we find them?

My kids, now 28, 24, and 21 are in that same spot in their Jewish journey I was in at their age, in a hiatus. And that's OK. It's OK because I know at some point they will continue their Jewish journey with the foundation Jeff and I set by sending them here to Shomrei Torah and celebrating with our Jewish customs at home. Those of course which always center around a stupendously delicious abundance of food (thanks to my Chef husband) incorporating our traditional dishes – because what would a holiday be without stuffed cabbage and brisket? The kids sometimes cross paths with some of their peers they met either here at Shomrei or at summer camp – bumping into them in the city, at a work event, or even while traveling. They immediately fall into that comfort zone. They share something in their Jewish heritage and that is something they will have forever.

So back to the beginning.....where are YOU on your Jewish journey? Let's start with you are HERE at Shomrei Torah. And maybe your children and parents are with you, and maybe they aren't, but for the moment Shomrei Torah is here for you and your family. And maybe a few years from now you'll be in a different state, or a different country but I'd like to think that wherever that may be, there will be a place there, where you can find your fellow Jews. We need our gathering places.

We are all acutely aware that anti-semitism is on the rise. If we lose our foothold and the following generations don't have one – anti-semitism will win – because we know they won't stop trying. Whether Shomrei Torah is the place you come to pray, or socialize, to educate your children, or just to meet fellow Jews, it is my hope that it will be here for YOUR needs and for any other Jewish family that comes into Wayne - be it for a short stay or for the long haul. We need a place to find each other. To stand together. And to gather together.

And so I ask you, if you see a reason for Shomrei Torah in Wayne NJ to exist, please support us and by that, yes, I mean to contribute to the High Holiday Appeal. In any way you can. Any amount helps. Contribute to YOUR Jewish journey and to all Jewish families who may be looking for theirs. Shana Tova!

Wishing you all a healthy, happy and sweet new year!

P.S. Please see the form on the next page. Thank you so much for your contribution and support!

OPERATION ISAIAH 5780 UPDATE

Approximately 257 bags of paper goods, personal care items, and cleaning products were collected during the Operation Isaiah Basic Necessities Drive during the High Holidays. Additionally, $183.00 was collected and donated to the Wayne Interfaith Network for its ongoing work. Thank you to all those who participated these mitzvot. All congregants are encouraged to continue to bring non-perishable food and other basic necessities throughout the year, to be deposited in the WIN Collection Chest in the lobby.

Behind the scenes our Shomrei Torah Staff graciously helps in so many ways: David Speigelglas (Administrator) makes sure the time and space is what it needs to be, Suzanne Zofi (Administrative Assistant) gets all the communications out to the congregation, and Tommy D'Errico (Custodian) along with David and other Shomrei Torah volunteers physically take down the High Holidays and promptly replaces it with Operation Isaiah.

Kol Nidre was the culmination of the collection of grocery bags for Operation Isaiah. Welcoming the congregants and their Operation Isaiah bags were Lee Ann Beck, Betty Singer and our Shabbat and Holiday Custodian, Gloria Millan. Thanks for all your help!

At 11:00 am on the day after Yom Kippur our shlepping crew, consisting of Betty Singer, Sandy Rothstadt and Steve Gastwirth brought all the bags to the Social Hall to be counted so that the packing, sorting, car loading and driving crew of adults who gathered at 6:30 pm [Rhita Gastwirth, Steve Gastwirth, Betty Singer, Rabbi Mark and Diane Seltzer] could deliver the goods to the Wayne Interfaith Network Pantry Annex.

Thanks to anyone else who may have been accidentally overlooked.

Sarah Blecherman,
Chair, Operation Isaiah

SHOMREI TORAH SISTERHOOD

An evening filled with wonderful women, good food and a fabulous fashion show!

Close to 80 women came out on Wednesday, October 23rd for the Paid Up Membership Dinner. The social hall was filled with beautiful mums and lovely place settings. Rabbi Mark gave the D'var Torah and dinner was served. After a delicious meal, the highlight of the evening began: a fashion show courtesy of Chiccos of Ridgewood with 16 of our very own members as models. What a fun time we had! After desserts, the evening was topped off with prizes... one lucky gal won the 50/50 and 15 others were able to pick a gift from our huge selection of door prizes.

Now, these fantastic events do not happen by themselves. I had tons of help. A heartfelt thank you to Elyce Berenzweig, Sue Gordon, Phyllis Staloff, Judy Krantz, and our Suzanne and Gloria. Thank you also to all those who helped set-up, sold raffles and cleaned up. These marvelous woman made this evening a huge success! Yasher Koach ladies!!

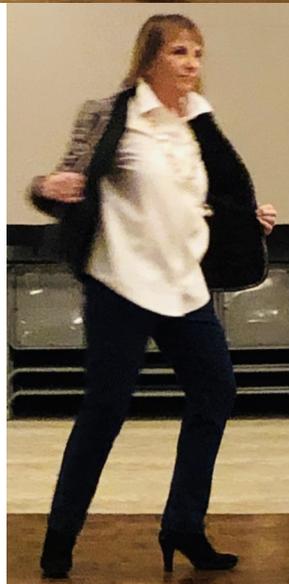

In addition a BIG thank you to our models: Elyce Berenweig, Ronnie Brass, Eva Brunwasser, Rhoda Fishler, Shelley Foster, Sue Gordon, Judy Krantz, Marcy Marcus, Laurie Nahum, Elaine Schlossberg, Alice Spira, Phyllis Staloff, Edith Voyticki, Carol Willner and Lisa Zevin. You all looked beautiful and did a great job!

Before we know it, Chanukah will be here. Now is the perfect time to stock up on SCRIP! Take your pick from Shop Rite, Fairway, Kosher Nosh, Panera, Dunkin' Donuts, Starbucks, Seasons, Macy's and so much more. Purchasing Scrip makes it so easy to shop and support Shomrei Torah at the same time. Just call Marcy Marcus at 201-396-6660, Phyllis Staloff at 973-495-0865, Roby Weiner at 973-595-5393 or the Synagogue office to purchase SCRIP to your favorite store.

The Gift Shop has relocated to the library. Check out all the new items! Lots of Chanukah goods are in. Lee Ann Beck, our wonderful shopkeeper, is usually available on Sunday mornings or can be reached at 973-628-1388 for an appointment.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday, November 5th at 8:00 pm . The meeting is open to everyone and I am looking forward to having you join us.

Linda Gaba, President

MEN'S CLUB NEWS

Men's Club is off to a great start in our new lunisolar year of 5780. We are now only two decades away from the seventh millennium of the world's existence, according to Bereshit (Genesis). Last year in Israel, archaeologists uncovered evidence of beer-making 13,000 years ago. So, we may ask the Rabbi, did beer come before creation? Keep reading this column for more local news about beer.

The Hagim have now passed, and we now enter into the late fall with shortened days and cooler weather. So what's happening with Men's Club? At the start of October, 73 members were paid up. That's a record for so early in the year. On the first Sunday in October, Jeff Appel's crew of Stu Millstein (and other tall people) put up our sukkah again. Thanks Jeff and Go Jets! At the same time, we also managed to liberate Rocky Raccoon from the dumpster (thanks to Wayne Animal Control). Next year at this time, there are plans for a new and wider sukkah. The only question is where it will fit on our property.

On October 20th, the congregation enjoyed a "Falafel Fest" dinner on Erev Shemini Atzeret. 60 of us showed up and dined on Middle Eastern fare catered from Fair Lawn and Teaneck and no one went away hungry! Beverage selections included soda, juice, coffee, tea, seltzer, Arak and three kinds of whisky. There was enough food left over to provide a Kiddush on Simhat Torah. It was a great way to end the hagim.

Our next program is coming up soon. Thanks to Dan Schlossberg, the congregation will again be treated to "Brats, Burgers & Beer" on November 17. The program includes a football tailgate party, when the Jets are away in Landover, Maryland. The hops come from our very own garden (thanks to Henry Ramer). The cost to attend is $10. Come and enjoy the game and the camaraderie. The beer will be brewed, and then a month later, attendees will receive their own bottle of home "he-BREW".

On Sunday December 8, the Man of the Year gala evening will be held at Temple Beth Ahm Yisrael in Springfield. Our honorees this year are Zev Friede and Felicia Shechtman as Youth of the Year. If you have not yet signed up to attend, reach out to reservations chair Phil Nuccetelli. This event is always the largest gathering of Conservative Jews in the state, with a sumptuous cocktail hour (plan to arrive before 4pm), open bar and dessert reception. You will have a great night, filled fun and ruach. The event is the embodiment of the expression, Hinei Ma Tov – how goodly it is to dwell together!

With football season in full swing, the Shomrei Torah "There's A Sucker Born Every Minute" Super Bowl box pool is running again. Invest $20 in a box. You might win big. Last year, Scott Delman won both the third quarter and full game. This year, the four prizes are $100, $250, $150 and $500. That's $1000 total – and one person can win the entire pot, if the score does not change from quarter to quarter.

Finally, the Men's Club wishes everyone a Hag HaHoda'ah Sameah... aka Happy Thanksgiving. The first day (of the long holiday weekend) is on Thursday November 24, when we can all re-create the Sukkah experience. That's what the original pilgrims did, as they followed the Hebrew bible literally. Invite a guest to your TG dinner. And remember to stuff the bird with stale bread (that's an old joke from Stan Freberg, about the original White House Thanksgiving celebration).

BAT MITZVAH OF FARYAH SCHWARZ
NOVEMBER 9, 2019 / 11 CHESHVAN 5780

My name is Faryah Schwarz. I will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on November 9, 2019. I am a 7th grader at Schuyler Colfax Middle school. I enjoy playing tennis and dancing. I look forward to skiing with my family in Utah. Playing piano is my passion, which I have studied since 2nd grade. I am currently working towards my Junior Black Belt at Mayer’s Karate. I mostly focus on my studies in school. I spend my summers at camp in New York State.

My parashat is Lech Lecha which is in the book of Bereshit (Genesis). In Lech Lecha 100-year-old Abraham and 99-year-old Sarah leave for Canaan at God’s command. It discusses how Avram’s name was changed to Abraham, and how Sarai’s name was changed to Sarah. Lech Lecha also features the birth of Isaac and the conversation with God prior to it.

For my Mitzvah project I have been accepted into the Bergen County Zoological Junior Volunteer Program. This will bring my love for animals, nature and the environment into the community by helping with special monthly projects at the zoo.

I would like to thank all my teachers at Shomrei Torah since kindergarten. Special thanks to Beth Julie for her support and patience as a tutor. Special thanks to Rabbi Mark and my parents for all their help.

I hope you will join me and my family for Shabbat services Friday evening November 8th and Saturday morning November 9th as we celebrate my becoming a Bat Mitzvah.

BAR MITZVAH OF AARON SCHWARZ
NOVEMBER 9, 2019 / 11 CHESHVAN 5780

My name is Aaron Schwarz. I will be called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah on November 9, 2019. I am a 7th grader at Schuyler Colfax Middle School. I enjoy playing tennis. I look forward to skiing with my family in Utah this winter. Playing clarinet in the band is my passion. I am a Junior Black Belt in karate and working towards my Black Belt at Mayer’s Karate. I mostly focus on my studies in school. I spend my summers at camp in New York State.

My parashat is Lech Lecha, which is when Avram leaves his home to go to the Land of Canaan at God’s direction. Avram’s name is also changed to Avraham and Sari’s name is changed to Sarah.

For my Mitzvah project I created a music composition for the 6th Grade band to give back to the community. Teaching students the importance of music and how it enriches everyday life is very important.

I would like to thank all my teachers at Shomrei Torah since kindergarten. Special thanks to Stuart Skolnick for his support and patience as a tutor. Special thanks to Rabbi Mark, Beth Julie and my parents for all their help.

I hope you will join me and my family for Shabbat services Friday evening November 8th and Saturday morning November 9th as we celebrate my becoming a Bar Mitzvah

BAT MITZVAH OF MARLEY FARA SMITH

Parshat Chayei Sarah

Hi my name is Marley Smith and I will be called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, November 23rd. My Torah portion, Chayei Sarah, is very cool as it is the only one named after a woman. It is found in the Book of Bereshit (Genesis).

I am a 7th grade student at Schuyler Colfax Middle School. When I'm not studying, I enjoy cheerleading, competitive dance, theater, horse-back riding and fashion design. I also love spending time with my friends, especially at Starbucks ☺

I also enjoy my Jewish studies. I have Rabbi Mark and all of my Shomrei Torah teachers since Kindergarten to thank for that. And a special thank you goes to Morah Beth – you are so much more than a teacher/tutor. Thank you for always going above and beyond. It means the world to me.

And another special thank you goes to my parents and sister for always supporting me and for their constant love and encouragement. Lastly, thank you to everyone who donated sneakers and money to my Mitzvah project! For every pair of sneakers received a dollar goes to the children's cancer charity, the Max Cure Foundation.

I hope you, my Shomrei Torah Family, will join me for Shabbat services on Friday evening, November 22nd and Saturday morning, November 23rd when I am called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah.

THANKSGIVING IS A TIME FOR SHARING

Each year Shomrei Torah contributes to the preparation of W.I.N. Thanksgiving Baskets for families in Wayne who cannot afford to buy their own Thanksgiving meal. Various synagogues, churches and service organizations each contribute one or two food items to each of the dinner baskets.

Our job, at Shomrei Torah, is to provide commercially made and packaged COOKIES for each of the families.

Please bring one package of cookies between now and Sunday, November 24th. Packages may be placed in the chest in the lobby which is for WIN donations.

Because the number of families has increased over the years and the cost of turkeys has quadrupled, Shomrei Torah is being asked to provide at least two frozen turkeys for the Baskets. This can be accomplished if anyone who qualifies for a 'free' turkey from their supermarket (even if they don't need it themselves) takes advantage of the offer .

If you are able to donate a FROZEN TURKEY OR FROZEN TURKEY BREAST, it must be brought to the synagogue by 10:30 AM on Sunday, November 24th. Storage space for the frozen turkeys is NOT available. Fresh turkeys cannot be accepted.

Also, there will be a COOKIE JAR in the office where you can contribute cash toward the purchase of cookies or other Thanksgiving items. Checks made payable to WIN, or Shop Rite Scrip may also be deposited. (Please note that Cash, Checks or Scrip may be used by WIN for general purchases for the Pantry other than for Thanksgiving).

Thank you in advance for your participation. If you have any questions, please call Lee Ann Beck at 973-628-1388.

This is a wonderful way to celebrate THANKSGIVING, TZEDAKAH and TIKKUN OLAM!

Join us in thanking Dr. Abbie Salny for her family's generosity that recognizes the importance of youth to our synagogue's future.

We have the distinction of being the first non-profit, community-owned funeral home in the United States. The Jewish Memorial Chapel was founded by a civic-minded group of Jewish businessmen in 1921.

We uphold the highest standards of Jewish law pertaining to funerals. We are a Shomer Shabbos facility and have a state-of-the-art chapel in Clifton that is near local cemeteries. We also make other state and world-wide arrangements.
