SHOMREI TORAH ADULT EDUCATION

SESSION 1

HALAKHAH IN A CHANGING WORLD

In a world of rapid technological change, dazzling scientific discoveries, and changing ethical sensibilities, how can halakhah (Jewish law) serve as our guide? Study recent Conservative teshuvot (rabbinic responsa), illuminating the process of halakhic decision making and demonstrating the tremendous breadth and flexibility of Jewish law to address complex and pressing questions.

AN INSIDER’S GUIDE TO THE LAW COMMITTEE

- Tuesdays @ 8:15 pm
- January 18
- February 15
- March 1

SESSION 2

PERETZ/KAFKA/CHAGALL

Jewish writers and artists engaged modernity's blessings and challenges through a variety of forms. We will consider paradigmatic works by three key figures from the early 20th century—Y.L. Peretz, Franz Kafka, and Marc Chagall—focusing on shared themes and divergent modes of expression. Course will cover a series of interwar paintings by Chagall from Vitebsk and Paris and short readings for Peretz and Kafka.

A JEWISH MODERNIST TRIPTYCH

HENRY RAMER

Quite a year, this past 2021 was. Just when you thought it was safe to go back into the synagogue (or department store, or movies, or any of a dozen similar kinds of destinations), up popped a new health statistic or government rule to make you want to stay home. New variants of the disease now get identified with Greek letters.

Here’s wishing that 2022 brings us better health and less anxiety than the past year. May you, your families and loved ones have a peaceful, happy and healthy 2022.

Men’s Club “Man of the Year”: Ivan Gerstein & “Youth of the Year”: Leah Kressel

Mazal Tov!
THANKSGIVING THANKS FROM W.I.N.

Shomrei Torah and her congregants came through for WIN once again. In addition to regular food and basic necessities donated at this time of year, financial donations from individuals along with a very generous donation from the Ritual Committee totaled over $400.00. Sisterhood provided $250.00 in Shop Rite scrip — a wonderfully thoughtful and appreciated gesture.

Wishing everyone good health in 2022!

Betty Singer,
Shomrei Torah Representative to the Wayne Interfaith Network.
An Ongoing Fundraising Project throughout the year!
