FROM THE BIMA

The Fall Jewish holidays are always overwhelming at the synagogue; there are too many of them, they are too close together and the preparation for the High Holy Days is all consuming leaving little left to properly prepare for Sukkot and Simchat Torah. In spite of that, I love them! I love the fact that I get to see so many of you – this year I saw some of you as you picked up or dropped of your Mahzorim, others I saw during services. It is a tremendous endeavor! Kudos to our staff who work long hours to help get everything ready for us. As always it was nice working with Stuart Skolnick as my partner on the bima. It was a pleasure listening to him. Volunteers, too many to mention here, put in time both before and during the holidays to help insure that everything would work. Special thanks to David Kleinstein for making our remote connection so successful, as well as to Steve Gastwirth, Ivan Gerstein and Karen Weiss, who did a multitude of tasks too numerous to list.

By the time we get to Simchat Torah everyone is tired, but it is the best service of them all. If you were not there, put it in your calendar for next year! We honor members with the last aliyah of the Torah and with the first aliyah as we start over again. Our final aliyah, Chatan Torah was Alan Asarch. Alan and Sheri joined our congregation less than ten years ago and already Alan serves on our Board of Trustees. They can be found around here on most Sunday mornings after dropping Laryn off for Religious School, and they are always willing to help out.. Most recently , it was to help make a minyan on Hoshanah Rabbah!

Our Chatan Bereshit was Gene Fisher. Gene has been a member here since before I arrived! Gene is a Shabbat regular and a skilled participant who helps to lead services. He is also a minyan regular both morning and evening. He is an active Zoom minyan host as well as leader. He is an active member of our Ritual committee. We would be hard pressed to do everything we do without his help; he is integral to our operation.

Traditionally, these honors are given at the morning service, but we have long done them at night when we have more people present and so that our students can see us end the Torah and begin again. As neither Alan or Gene were able to be with us in the morning, I looked for two more worthy honorees for these special aliyot. Our Kallat Torah was Tova Friede and our Chatan Torah was Phil Nuccetelli. For those who know them, they are both longtime members and yet still active volunteers. They are both minyan regulars both morning and evening. They have been Zoom hosts for us. Tova reads Torah and Phil leads services. Phil is often our Shamash/Ritual Usher handing out parts to people during services. Tova serves on our Board and more committees than I can keep track of. They are two of the most reliable people we have amongst many others.

We are truly blessed as a congregation to have people like Alan, Gene, Tova and Phil; and we wish them Yashar Koach on being honored this year!

Shalom,
Rabbi Randy Mark

FROM THE PRESIDENT
Sheri Taback

As many of you know, I am currently in Israel with the Momentum Mission on behalf of Hadassah. I look forward to sharing with you details of what I'm sure will be an exciting and inspiring trip in our next issue.

With Love,
Sheri Taback
President

Sunday With Sokol

At 12:30 PM, Sunday November 13, Shomrei Torah - Wayne Conservative Congregation, 30 Hinchman Avenue, Wayne, will be showing a video of music played by a variety of nickelodeons. All of the music you will hear is produced mechanically, not by musicians. Most of the songs you will hear were written between the early 1900s through the 1950s. Most nickelodeons include player pianos, with a variety of additional mechanically operated instruments. There is no charge for admission or for refreshments. RSVPs are appreciated, but not required. For further information, please contact Charles Sokol, 973-694-7613.

WIN THANKSGIVING 2022

We're told that change "is what it is."So, in order to accommodate some kind of (maybe still temporary?) "new normal'," WIN will once again offer clients added gift cards and items for Thanksgiving rather than traditional Baskets.

This year, however, we have a new wrinkle or two for those who really love the hands-on participation of donating food. Here are your choices for making Wayne neighbors' holiday a cornucopia of good things to eat.

1. Send your check directly to and payable to WIN (PO Box 3341, Wayne, NJ 06474-3411) and marked for Shomrei Torah/Thanksgiving in the memo area. Please mail your check by November 7th.

2. Donate $15 Shop Rite Gift Cards. Either mail them as above or drop them at the Shomrei Torah office to the attention of WIN. Please use November 7th as a guideline for getting them to us and make sure we know it's for Shomrei Torah/Thanksgiving.

3. WIN will accept Holiday Non-Perishables (please bring them to the WIN Collection Chest in the lobby of the synagogue) by November 7th.

These are the appropriate items:

Stove Top Stuffing, gravy, cranberry sauce, canned yams, canned corn, canned string beans, commercially baked and packaged cookies.

Please — WIN is NOT requesting turkeys or chickens or any other perishable items. Thank you.

Happy Thanksgiving!

BTW if you prefer to go online http://www.winfoodpantry.org be sure to indicate that your donation is for Shomrei Torah/Thanksgiving). Thank you!
Lee Ann Beck and Betty Singer

What a wonderful and delicious Sabbath dinner the Temple provided us with during my time of need. It was meaningful and so much appreciated.
With so much love,

Religious School News

I am pleased to report that our Religious school managed to start successfully in the midst of all the Jewish holidays which this year disrupted our regular schedule significantly. However, we made the most of the opportunities granted. We held school Tashlich ceremonies on the Sunday between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. We did Sukkah decorating on the Sunday before Sukkot. We held school on Sukkot itself, a relatively new innovation that allowed our students to celebrate in the Sukkah and with the Lulav during Sukkot. And we invited our students to join us for Simchat Torah.

Our teachers were incredibly flexible, making sure the students knew about as well as celebrated these Tishrei holidays. I was so proud that every teacher was present on Sukkot to share their love of the holiday with their students. And now we are ready to establish some routine. Hebrew, Tefillah (prayer), holidays and Israel are part of what every class learns about at their level.

We have brought some previous practices back and hope that school families will participate. One Friday each month we will have a 5pm Tot Shabbat for our youngest which will be followed by a Family service that involves the students, has a story and a birthday blessing. And then on Shabbat morning we will have Jr. Congregation and a fun Kiddush to follow. This month they will take place on Nov. 18 & 19. On the 18th we will also be having a Shabbat Dinner and on the 19th we will also a special Havdalah and Smores. Then on the 20th we will be offering Family Challah Baking. It should be a fun filled weekend, mark your calendars and spend it with us!

7:00 pm

This year's interfaith service continues our community's 30+ year tradition of giving thanks together and to share the joy of Thanksgiving with neighbors and friends!

Please bring a Non-Perishable item to be donated to the WIN Food Pantry!

We are excited to be able to gather together in person once again!

Dear Congregation:

As you know, every year the Men's Club of Shomrei Torah participates in a program offered by the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs. Individual synagogues choose a Youth of the Year and a Man of the Year to be honored for their dedication of time, talent, and effort above and beyond, in support of the children and general congregation experience. The YOY is chosen by the Rabbi while the MOY is selected by the Men's Club.

This year we are proud to be honoring Robyn Frankel as Youth of the Year and David Kleinstein as Man of the Year. They will be honored at the Northern New Jersey Region dinner on Sunday December 4th, 2022 at Temple Beth Ahm Yisrael 60 Temple Drive Springfield, NJ. where they will receive their appropriate recognition. In the past we have acknowledged this achievement and recognition by having a contingent from Shomrei in attendance for the evening's festivities. I urge congregation membership, family, and friends of the honorees to partake in this event. Please contact the office as soon as possible to make your reservation. Checks should be made out to Shomrei Torah, with a notation in the memo that it is for the Man of the Year Dinner.

For those who cannot be there in person or wish to further acknowledge these individuals, there is an opportunity to show your appreciation to our honorees by participating in an ad journal with a note of congratulations, appreciation, or a simple thank you for their hard work

Looking forward to seeing you there.

SHOMREI TORAH
WAYNE CONSERVATIVE CONGREGATION

Dear Congregants,

In an effort to enhance our religious experience at Shomrei Torah, our Ritual Committee recommended the adoption of the new Conservative Movement Shabbat/Holiday Siddur Lev Shalem. It was unanimously approved by the Ritual Committee because of its fresh approach to liturgy with antidotal commentaries which add significance and clarity to our davening experience. Many of you have already experienced the style of the book during the High Holidays as it was created as a companion to our Machzor Lev Shalem, which has received very positive reviews from our membership. Our Board of Trustees has approved the change in siddur.

We invite you to dedicate volumes of this new siddur for use in our sanctuary. You can do this in memory or honor of someone by filling out the form below. We hope to begin using the new siddur in the fall. Look for information coming soon on the "Transitional Shabbat" where we will switch from Sim Shalom to Lev Shalem.

No More Whispers.

Let's end the whispering about mental illness and addiction. There is no shame. You can't catch it, and like many other diseases, no one asks for it. It affects all ages, ethnicities, income levels and genders. We all know someone. Don't fear it. Don't judge it. Understand it. Let's not whisper anymore.

Mindful Caregiving Five-Part Online Series

In honor of caregivers, The Thomas Glasser Caregivers Center at Overlook Medical Center is pleased to introduce a five-part online series to provide caregivers with mindfulness-based tools and approaches. Through this series, participants can expect to gain strength and resilience enabling them to better support their loved ones. Come join us in reducing stress and increasing happiness!

Location: Zoom live webinar

Dates and Times: Wednesdays, 2:00 to 3:00pm • November 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30

Cost: Free

Sessions:

November 2 & November 30	Mindfulness Tools: Mindfulness is bringing our awareness to the present moment, and when integrated with breathwork, is a recipe for calming and nourishing the mind and body. Combine this with the Art of Jin Shin Jyutsu Self-Help, a gentle, non-invasive, light touch, and one's stress melts away. Learn some simple and readily available tools for relaxation of the mind, and ease of the body. We will also explore how to translate these self-care tools for helping our family members to relax as well. Led by Julianne Dow, MA, JSJCP, E-RYT® 200, RYT® 500. This part will be done in two sessions.
November 9	Expressive Writing for Caregivers: The practice of expressive writing allows us to process our feelings from many different perspectives. Please join us for lively readings and writing prompts. Everyone has a story, and this offers you a chance to share your story in a safe and supportive way. You do not have to be a writer or poet to participate. Led by Thomas Dooley, Poet in Residence, Overlook Medical Center
November 16	Music Therapy: Mindfulness through music to help caregivers relax and recharge. The purpose of the session is to reduce stress and anxiety and improve sleep. No prior musical experience is needed to benefit. Led by Daniel Marain, MSW, MT-BC
November 23	Mindful Movement: A body/mind workout that combines the best elements of fitness, meditation, Qigong and traditional Tai Chi. There is no routine or choreography to memorize. All you have to do is open your mind, heart and breath while following the instructor's lead. Led by Marian Teehan, MSW, LCSW

Preregistration required:
