Shabbat Morning

Saturday, January 26

Talmud Study, 9:00 am

(Note the start time!) The Talmud is a compendium of law and lore that is the basis on which biblical interpretation and contemporary Jewish practice rest. Rabbi Seth will lead us as we dive deep into this complex and fascinating text. Note the 9:00 start time for this month only.

Talmud Study will begin at the regular time of 9:30 am in February.

Shabbat Morning Service, 10:00 am

This is a special shabbat morning service open to all. The earth-based, feminist service will begin at 10:00 am, with Torah service from 12:00 to 1:00. It will be led by Nomy Lamm and Rebekah Erev, who are also offering a workshop in the afternoon. There is no charge for the service and potluck which follows it. Workshop requires registration--see details below.

Tu Bishvat Tisch (and Potluck)!

Friday, January 25, 6:00 pm

It's the New Year of the Trees! Join us as we celebrate Shabbat and another new year. Rather than a regular service, we will gather in the Social Hall for a tisch ("table") with song and story to celebrate these two events. For Tu Bishvat we will have a Seder full of symbolic foods as we connect with the natural world and different layers of mystical understanding. Please bring some dairy/vegetarian food to share! 6:00 pm. (Note earlier time!)

HAPPENING THIS WEEK

Registration is open for the Earth/Assiyah: Embodying the Tree of Life Workshop

Saturday, January 26, 2:00 pm

Join Kohanot Nomy Lamm and Rebekah Erev in an ongoing series to cultivate a relationship with the elements through a Jewish lens. In this workshop we will explore the roots of Judaism through embodying the archetypes of trees in Jewish teachings. We'll pay reverence to the sacred tree of life explored in the Kabbalah, relate to the physical body of the Torah made of animal skin and plant matter, and create art that explores our commitment to taking care of the earth and trees we love. We'll sing, pray, eat, tend our bodies and plant seeds. No Hebrew or Singing Experience required. Beginners welcome. Learn more and find out how to register on our website.

The TBH Film Series returns with Norman: The Moderate Rise & Tragic Fall of a New York Fixer

Saturday, January 26, 7:00 pm

Persistent wheeler dealer Norman (masterfully played by Richard Gere) falls in with an Israeli politician (Lior Ashkenazi) on the rise. Norman is revealed to be a complicated, lonely man -- a macher, a schnorrer, and a mensch. Selected by Tablet Magazine as the best Jewish film of 2017. Free event. Donations welcome.

Immigration and Refugee Task Force Meeting

Tuesday, January 29, 6:00 pm

Learn and participate in TBH efforts to make a positive impact around the ongoing issue of providing sanctuary in the greater Olympia community.

COMING UP

Sewing Workshop #2

Saturday, February 2, 1:00 pm

If you like to sew and want some friends to do it with, we are holding Sewing Workshop # 2 on Saturday, February 2 from 1-4 pm in the TBH social hall. If you want to bring your own machine, please do so. We will have three sewing machines available to work on, and two projects ready to go.

Project 1: Make a seasonal table runner. This project takes about 90 minutes from cutting to finish and makes a two-sided table runner that is about 40 inches long. Material for a Shabbat runner or a Valentine's runner will be available.

Project 2: Make a pillowcase. This project also takes about 90 minutes and makes a nice standard-size pillowcase with a contrasting end-piece.

For those looking for something quick to make, we have patterns for an around-the-collar dog bandana that takes about 45 minutes to complete. The workshop is free, if you use my yardage there is a $20 fee. You are also free to bring your own materials to use. There will be at least two experienced sewers to assist with measuring, cutting, and sewing. Bring a friend and we'll see you there! If you have questions, please email barbroseman2018@gmail.com.

Eitan at TBH

Sunday, February 3, 10:30 am

Come meet the StandWithUs Northwest shaliach (Israel Educator) for this year,

Eitan Teiger on Sunday, February 3rd from 10:30 am to noon. After a brief introduction, Eitan will share some fascinating facts about the history of the Jewish people and its 3,300 year history in the Land of Israel. Eitan will then help explain key points in the history of Zionism, the Arab-Israeli conflict, and the peace process. Most importantly, Eitan is excited to engage with you and answer all your questions about Israel! No RSVP necessary.

February Shabbat Salon

Friday, February 8, 6:00 pm

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Note: These events are not officially sponsored or endorsed by TBH, but they are listed as they have Jewish content and may be of interest to our community.

Hebrew Free Loan Association

The Hebrew Free Loan Association is offering help to those furloughed by the government shutdown. There are no loan fees and repayment schedules will be customized to meet the needs of those furloughed. Click here to apply.

Promoting Peace in Palestine: BDS and Its Alternatives

Monday, February 4, 4:00 pm

The Evergreen State College

Dr. Cary Nelson will be speaking at Evergreen in Purce Hall. Download the PDF flyer for more information.

Olympia Sisterhood

Tuesday, February 5, 1:30 pm

Join us for our monthly Sisterhood gathering at TBH. Join us for a walk down memory lane to learn about what it was like in Catskills. After the Senior Schmooze we will have a program of Jewish humor. We have obtained a copy of Mickey Katz (Joel Grey's father), who performed in the Catskills as a comedian and clarinetist. Come listen to Mickey Katz Greatest Shticks. Program is from 1:30 to 3:00 pm at TBH. And, the best part is that it is free.

Mariners Season Opener - Group Ticket Offer

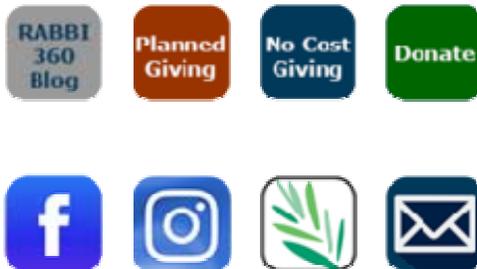

Thursday, March 28, 4:00 pm

NOTE THE TIME IS INCORRECT IN THE FLYER. THE GAME STARTS AT 4:00 PM, NOT 7:10 PM. Interested in going to the Mariners season opener against the Boston Red Sox? If so, here is your chance to purchase seats for $35 each. Download the PDF sheet to sign up and pay for tickets.

2019 Need-Based Camp Scholarship Application Is Live!

The Federation's need-based camp scholarships program helps Washington State families with the cost of Jewish overnight camp tuition. By providing you with a variety of funding options, our goal is to ensure that you receive the assistance you need so that your child/children can participate in a Jewish overnight camp experience.
