Tot Shabbat, 9:30 am

All kids ages 0-6 and their grown ups and families are invited to celebrate Shabbat together with song, story, movement, prayer and craft! Join us the first Saturday of every month. Please note the later start time.

Jewish with Meaning, 11:00 am

Guest facilitated by Michele and Richard Jackman. See more information in below. Please note the later start time.

Jewish With Meaning

Saturday, September 7, 11:00 am

Jewish with Meaning on Saturday will be guest facilitated by Michele and Richard Jackman. This session will focus on your preparation for our High Holy Days, to include Elul and S'lichot. Special emphasis will be on the role and process of forgiveness and teshuvah, with recommended practices to enhance your Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur experiences. We will be exploring Rabbi Alan Lew's "This is Real and You Are Completely Unprepared", Dr. Alan Morinis, Dean of The Mussar Institute's "Everyday Holiness", and other source texts. Join us in our search for a deeper, more expansive, and meaningful High Holy Day experience. Your contribution to our potluck meal is welcomed. Please contact Michele and Richard at jackmanrm@aol.com with any questions.

HAPPENING THIS WEEK

Beit Sefer Orientation & Registration

Sunday, September 8, 10:00 am

If you have any children between the ages of 3 1/2 years and b'nai mitzvah age you'd like to register for Beit Sefer, join us for the first day of the new year from 10:00 am to noon. Contact Catherine at beitsefer@bethhatfiloh.org with any questions. Come to meet everyone and schmooze. We'd love to see you there!

The Detention Lottery

Monday, September 9, 7:00 pm

Join us for a staged reading of this dynamic and deeply moving play based on the experiences of Seattle immigration attorneys. The Detention Lottery is an immersive theatre experience set in a U.S. Immigration Detention Center. Attendees will receive an understanding of how our country enforces immigration laws including detention processes and courtroom proceedings, as well as information that equips you to stand up for immigrant protections and rights. Free admission with donations supporting AID Northwest.

FORKids Food Packing

Tuesday, September 10, 3:30 pm

School is starting and on the second Tuesday of September, TBH will be filling bags at the Tumwater branch of the Food Bank starting at 3:30 and lasting an hour or so. We hope to welcome back all of the many volunteers from last year and any new people that are interested. Please come and bring your children, parents and friends. Everyone is welcome. It is a very congenial group, and we now have been doing this for over 10 years. TBH provided the first volunteers to fill bags back when the program first began. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Elie at ehalpern7379@gmail.com or 360-357-8160.

COMING UP

Registration is Open: First Shabbat Salon of the Season!

Friday, September 13, 6:00 pm

Join us for the first Shabbat Salon of the season, featuring guest speaker Dave Fenner, affiliate faculty member at the Jackson School of International Studies at UW. He will be speaking on: "Citizen Responses to Authoritarianism."

We begin with a full Shabbat service at 6:00 pm followed by a catered dinner and speaker in the Social Hall at 7:00 pm. Register for the dinner by Wednesday the 11th at 5:00 pm on our event page or contact tbh@bethhatfiloh.org!

Active Shooter Response Lecture

Tuesday, September 17, 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Officer Jason Winner of the Olympia Police Department will provide Active Shooter Response Lecture. Useful video will precede the talk and there will be time for questions and answers following. This free event is open to all members of our congregation as topics will be tailored to our temple specifically. Please register on the event page to assist us with planning for the event. Hope to see you there!

CPR and First Aid Training

Sunday, September 22, 10:00 am

Did you know that our region has one of the highest survival rates from cardiac arrest? This has been attributed to so many of us in western Washington with CPR training! So if you would like this skill set, need a refresher, or want to be certified, please join us Sunday, September 22 from 10:00am-4:30pm for CPR and First Aid Training provided by Cascade Training. This class covers adult CPR primarily, but will also include children and infant CPR. The cost is $81 and includes materials. A pizza and salad lunch will be provided. Please register at the event page (limited to the first 20 people).

FROM THE OFFICE

Office Hours

Tuesday through Friday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Want to sponsor an oneg after Shabbat services?

We are looking for oneg hosts. Please contact tbh@bethhatfiloh.org or call (360) 754-8519.

High Holiday Mailing

High Holiday packets were mailed out last week, contact tbh@bethhatfiloh.org if you did not receive one. Click here for the 5780 High Holidays webpage and watch your email inboxes for more information!

Salon Help Needed

Does your teen need community service hours for high school credit or are they looking for a few hours a month of employment? TBH is looking for extra assistance to help wash dishes and clean up after our monthly salons. This would require approximately 4 hours of evening work once a month (second Friday of the month). Please contact Kayla in the office at tbh@bethhatfiloh.org for more information and inquiries.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Note: These events are not officially sponsored or endorsed by TBH, but they are listed as they have Jewish content and/or may be of interest to our community.

Olympia Sisterhood

Tuesday, September 10, 1:00 PM

Olympia Sisterhood, serving all of OLYMPIA regardless of congregational affiliation or not, invite Jewish women who are interested to attend a late summer potluck on Tuesday September 10, 1:00 PM, at the home of Robin Beck. Robin may be contacted at 360-628-3814 or robinbeck@gmail.com to let her know the dish you are bringing and for her home address.

A reminder that yearly dues will be collected and meeting programs will be chosen for the remainder of 2019. Questions? Please contact Jane Blustein, Chairwoman, at 708-910-8538.

Jewish Federation Survey

Help Us Set Legislative Priorities: Take the Survey! Every year, the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle advocates in Olympia on behalf of Jewish agencies and broader community concerns. You can help set our 2020 legislative agenda by taking the Policy Priorities Survey today. Make your voice heard!

Thurston's Hunger Walk

Sunday, September 22, 3:00 pm

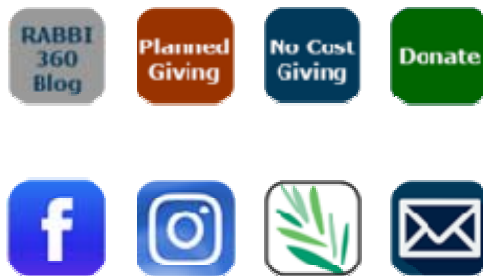

Walking around Capital Lake with caring members of our community is: fun, energizing, healthy, rewarding - in a word - a blast! This year's walk around Capital Lake benefits the Thurston County Food Bank as well as Senior Services for South Sound's and The Community Kitchen's feeding programs.

100% of all donations stay local to assist our hungry neighbors!! This walk was conceived to replace the retired Crop Walk, which was a decades-long joyous fundraising endeavor in our community. More info at: <http://bit.ly/hungerwalktc>.

Beginner Mah Jongg Class at the Senior Center

Carolyn Burtner will be teaching a beginner Mah Jongg class at the Senior Center starting Thursday, September 19th. Carolyn came to the showing of The Tiles that Bind at TBH this past spring and gave a quick orientation to the game. The class will run for 9 weeks on Thursdays at 10:30. Feel free to attend, regardless of your age. A donation to the Senior Center or joining the Senior Center is requested. Carolyn is a delightful teacher and the class is well-paced and entertaining. You will enjoy the class and hopefully we can develop a cohort of players at TBH. The Senior Center also has groups that play Mah Jongg on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons.
