COMING UP

Strudel Demonstration

Sunday, March 1, 2:00 pm

Calling all pastry practitioners (and promising putterers): Blintzapalooza is rapidly approaching and that means Bake-off bragging rights are up for grabs again. This year we're calling for strudel makers to show their stuff and stuff their strudel.

In case you missed Edie Bean's master class in January, she has graciously agreed to reprise and will be demonstrating her virtuoso technique one more time: Sunday March 1, 2:00 PM at the TBH kitchen. See you there!

Film Series: Foxtrot (2018)

Saturday, March 7, 7:00 pm

Foxtrot opens with Michael and Dafna's gut-wrenching grief when army officials show up at their home to announce the death of their son, followed by the surreal military experiences of their son in a desert outpost. "Israeli writer-director Samuel Maoz creates an elegant allegory of self-examination and the unmaking of myth, employing symbolism, theatricality and misdirection to question some of the most reassuring stories his home country tells itself." (Hornaday, Washington Post) "An intricate, dazzling cinematic dance." (Turan, Los Angeles Times) Israel's submission to the Academy Awards. (108 minutes, Hebrew with subtitles)

Purim Party

Monday, March 9, 6:00 pm

Join us for our annual Purim celebration! Food, crafts, games, music, the famous Purim Pinata and the reading of the megillah! Come in costume! Please bring a box of dry macaroni and cheese (or something comparable)--first you can use it as a grogger and then we can collect them as a donation for the Food Bank.

Grounds Work

Sunday, March 15, 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Grounds work will be starting again in March! Join Catherine from 10 am to noon to help coordinate grounds cleanup and maintenance. Bring your own gloves and small gardening tools if you have them. We'll have supplies here, too. Many hands make light work! Join us for all or any part of the morning. Contact Catherine at beitsefer@bethhatfiloh.org if you have any questions.

2020 Gala: Call for Donations!

TBH is holding the Gala this year on May 17th and we're looking for donations! At the last gala, the most popular items were donations or experiences made or sponsored by congregational members. Popular items included:

- A hotel stay in Jerusalem
- 2 hand-crafted/designed wood tables

- 7 nights in Norway
- Edie's famous Chopped Liver class
- A stay in a Maui condo
- A sailing trip

There won't be a silent auction, so we won't be accepting small objets d'art or similar items.

If you would like to make a donation, please fill out the Live Auction Donation Form. Due to limited space, we may not be able to accept all donations; but, the Gala Committee will review all submissions and respond as soon as possible. Thank you! See more information about the Gala and purchase tickets on the event page.

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Note: These events are not officially sponsored or endorsed by TBH, but they are listed as they have Jewish content and/or may be of interest to our community.

World Zionist Congress Elections

Reconstructing Judaism is partnering with the Union for Reform Judaism in support of the ARZA slate in this important election. See more information here.

Jewish Weekly Planner

Local artist and educator, Mo Golden has co-created a weekly planner that integrates the Hebrew and Gregorian dates in a portable and beautiful form. For many of us, our lives are Jewish AND not, and we need a planner that can walk between these two worlds with us. Many of you may have seen The Jewish Planner last year and will be excited to find out the Kickstarter is live for the second year's planner. Please support the amazing work of our community member by backing the campaign and sharing the info with others.
