TEMPLE SINAI
Atlanta, Georgia

ADOPTED ON MAY 20, 2018

PREAMBLE

In the spirit of Reform Judaism, and with the belief in our future as an active and progressive community of Jews, Temple Sinai continues to pursue our commitment to Torah and the practice of Mitzvot, our search for God and a sense of greater spirituality, and the building of Kehillah, true congregation.

As a congregation, we believe that egalitarian principles and full participation from our diverse and broad based membership will enable us to fulfill this mission.

ARTICLE I - NAME

This congregation shall be known as Temple Sinai (hereafter “Temple Sinai”, the “Congregation” and/or the “Corporation”).

ARTICLE II - AFFILIATION

This congregation is affiliated with the Union for Reform Judaism and it shall remain a member in good standing.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP, PRIVILEGES AND DUES

Section 1. Membership and Definitions. Membership in the Congregation is by choice of the individual, subject to the consent of the Board of Trustees (as defined under ARTICLE VII). For purposes of this Article III, the following definitions will apply:

A. Membership Classifications. There will be two membership classifications, each having specific associated membership criteria, rights and privileges: (i) Regular Member and (ii) Associate Member. The Board of Trustees of the Congregation may establish, from time to time, such further classifications of membership as it shall deem necessary and proper, provided, however, that no classification of membership shall be established which takes into account the relative ability, inability, willingness or reluctance to pay any particular sum of money or donate goods or services of any kind.

B. Regular Member. A Regular Member of the Congregation must satisfy the following criteria:

(i) Be at least 18 years old;

(ii) Be either (a) Jewish; or (b) a non-Jewish spouse or non-Jewish domestic partner of a Jewish Member (including a non-Jew who becomes divorced or widowed from his or her spouse who, at the time, was a Jewish Regular Member, or similarly becomes disengaged from or a survivor of a domestic partner who, at the time, was a Jewish Regular Member); and

(iii) Not be a Regular Member's child who is either (a) a full-time student, or (b) a dependent of that Regular Member.

C. Associate Member. An Associate Member must satisfy the following criteria:

- (i) Be a regular member in good standing in another Jewish congregation in the metropolitan Atlanta area, or have a domicile and principal place of residence which is located at least 75 miles from the City of Sandy Springs (or such other distance as determined by the Board of Trustees from time to time);
- (ii) Be otherwise eligible to be a Regular Member; and
- (iii) Espouse that such individual's principal purpose for association with the Congregation is to provide support to the Congregation, rather than to participate in the activities of the Congregation.

E. Member. Members shall consist of Regular Members and Associate Members, each as defined in this Section 1.

F. Membership Household. One or more Members and their dependents who live together in a single household.

G. Good Standing. A Member shall be in good standing if he or she is current in all financial obligations to the Congregation, including but not limited to all dues, assessments and other financial pledges and obligations, as may be certified upon request by the Executive Director of the Congregation

Section 2. Membership Privileges.

A. General. Except as provided otherwise in this Section, only Regular Members in Good Standing and children of Regular Members in Good Standing will have the full rights and privileges of membership in the Congregation. Such rights include participation in religious school programs, becoming Bar or Bat Mitzvah and having other life cycle events. Associate Members will have those rights and privileges as determined by the Board of Trustees from time to time.

B. Voting Rights. All Regular Members in Good Standing shall have the right to vote at all Congregational meetings. Associate Members may not vote.

C. Certain Membership Privileges Reserved for Jewish Members. Only Jewish Members are eligible to serve (a) on the Board of Trustees, (b) as an elected officer, (c) on the Nominating Committee; and (d) as Vice President – Spiritual Life or any other committee with respect to which the Board of Trustees deems, in its discretion, that service as chair by a Jewish Member is in the best interests of the Congregation. The clergy may reserve certain ritual rights and privileges to Jewish Members where they deem it appropriate.

D. Preschool Preference. The children of Regular and Associate Members will have preference over the children of non-Members in enrollment in the Congregation's preschool at the beginning of each school year and the children of Regular Members will have preference over the children of Associate Members in enrollment in the Congregation's preschool at the beginning of each school year.

E. Non-Member Participation. From time to time, the Board of Trustees (i) may provide for non-Member participation in Congregational activities and the use of the Congregation's facilities, or (ii) may allow Members' guests or visitors, or members of out-of-town Union for Reform Judaism member Congregations, to attend High Holy Day services.

Section 3. Dues and Assessments. The Board of Trustees will maintain a system of dues and assessments, the specific details of which will be determined by the Board of Trustees. Dues and assessments will be charged or assessed per Membership Household, and will require each Membership Household to contribute to the support of the Congregation principally based upon the financial means and ability of the Membership Household and such other factors as may be appropriate.

Section 4. Divorced Regular Members. If two Members become divorced from each other (or terminate their domestic partnership), each such Member will be considered to live in a separate Membership Household for purposes of dues and assessments charged or assessed after such divorce or termination. Each such Member will be jointly and severally responsible for any unpaid dues or assessments charged or assessed prior to such divorce or termination, including any outstanding pledges or similar obligations in effect prior to such divorce or termination.

Section 5. Approval, Suspension and Termination of Membership. The Board of Trustees will maintain written policies governing the process for membership approval, suspension of a Member's rights and privileges, and the termination of a Member's membership. Such policies (A) may take into account those factors that the Board of Trustees deems reasonable and appropriate to further the best interests of the Congregation; (B) may include the right, under appropriate circumstances, to waive any application requirement, to waive a failure of a Member to maintain Good Standing, or to waive, extend or modify any financial obligation owing from a Member; and (C) may include the right to suspend or terminate a Member's membership for, among other reasons, failure to meet financial obligations owing to the Congregation or disruption of the Temple Sinai community in ways that threaten its educational, spiritual, or community-based missions. Potential members whose applications are rejected and Members whose memberships are suspended or terminated may contest such actions to the Board of Trustees, which reserves sole discretion in the final determination of Membership.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

(b) Under the circumstances prescribed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of this article, the Corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, foundation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation; provided, however, that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of this Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this article, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

(d) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this article and except as may be ordered by a court, any indemnification under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this article shall be made by the Corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by the firm of independent legal counsel then employed by the Corporation in a written opinion.

APPENDIX "A"
