From the Desk of Rabbi Fel

Dear Haverim Y'karim - Precious Friends,

The Hebrew month of Tishrei, with its sacred Festivals and Shabatot, carry the promise of hope, forgiveness, and renewal. I sincerely hope you will give yourself the opportunity to embrace the gravity and significance of the Days of Awe and experience the joy of Sukkot and Simḥat Torah.

As a thriving and growing community, we recognize that each of us possesses unique interests and preferences. Therefore, we take immense pride in offering a diverse range of services and experiences that, we hope, will cater to everyone's needs.

Cantor Mayer and the awe-inspiring Temple Emanu-El Choir invite you to experience the grandeur and beauty of the High Holy Days in our majestic Sanctuary Service. With seating in the round, Rabbi Fel and professional musician, Six13's, Josh Sauer, will lead the Meeting House Service, fusing traditional liturgy with classic compositions and modern melodies, leaving you inspired for the new year. Lastly, Rabbi Alan Flam and Judy Kaye invite you to embark on a spiritual journey in the Soulful Service, where sacred chant, moments of profound silence, and graceful movement converge to guide us in the sacred work of t'shuvah (repentance).

We cherish our youngest community members and are delighted to offer age-specific and family services, ensuring that our children too can embrace the spirit of the High Holy Days in a way that resonates with them. This year, we are also proud to offer babysitting, allowing parents to fully engage in the services while knowing their little ones are well cared for.

Beyond our worship services, there are numerous other avenues for connecting with the community. We have reimagined our S'lihot evening, are excited to introduce a community break-the-fast, and continue to honor our most senior members at Simḥat Torah.

Let us come together as one united community and embrace the spirit of this sacred season.

L'Shanah Tovah Tikkateivu – May you and your loved ones be inscribed for a good year!

Rabbi Michael M. Fel

Lulav and Etrog

The Torah instructs us to take four species in hand to celebrate Sukkot – willow, palm, myrtle, and citron. Order your lulav and etrog by Tuesday, September 19, 2023, by calling the Temple office or scanning the QR code below.

Mahzorim (Prayer Books)

If you plan to participate from home using the Livestream, having your own prayer book will make every aspect of the High Holy Days more accessible and meaningful. Reserve your prayer book by calling the Temple office or scanning the QR code below.

Scroll of Remembrance

Each holiday is a chance to remember the impact loved ones have made on our lives. A Scroll of Remembrance will be printed commemorating the departed members of your family. To inscribe the names of loved ones in the Scroll, visit the High Holy Days page on our website by scanning the QR code below, or return the enclosed form by September 15.

Yom Kippur Congregational Break-the-Fast

Join us for our break-the-fast meal after Ne'ilah service! This is a catered meal that will take place indoors.

Sukkot on the Rhode

Temple Emanu-El is looking for a few sukkot to host 15-20 people for a Sukkot Celebration on October 5. We will take care of the food and snacks - you just need to provide the sukkah. We are looking for people all over Rhode Island. Please use the QR code or go to our website to volunteer to host.

High Holy Days Babysitting

Temple Emanu-El is bringing back babysitting for children 1-4 years old on the High Holy Days. Please register your children by going to the registration page on our website or using the QR code here.

Scan this QR code to register.

Selected Prayer Service Descriptions for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur

We are proud to offer a variety of different services and styles to match everyone's spiritual needs and interests. Feel free to experiment and move around the building throughout the High Holy Days until you find the right spot for you.

MORNING SERVICE:

Daniel Herzberg Mayer

Rabbi Michael Fel

Led by Daniel Herzberg Mayer and Rabbi Fel, the early part of the morning service features Birkhot HaShahar (Blessings for a New Day), P'sukei D'Zimra (Verses of Song), and the Shahrut Service, which includes Barkhu, the Sh'ma, and the Amidah.

MEETING HOUSE SERVICE:

Rabbi Michael Fel

Josh Sauer

Rabbi Fel and Josh Sauer serving as a Shaliach Tzibbur (prayer leader) fuse traditional liturgy with modern melodies and classic compositions in the Meeting House service. With seating in the round and an emphasis on communal singing, the service will feature music by Joey Weisenberg, Josh Warshawsky, and Yishai Ribo. You can get a flavor for the service by visiting our website. See pages 6 and 8 to see when Rabbi Fel will address the congregation each day.

SANCTUARY SERVICE:

Music for the High Holy Days is sponsored by the Bonnie & Donald Dwares High Holy Days Music Fund

Cantor Brian Mayer

Stephanie Markoff-Cohen

Hannah Pearlman

Jason Switzer

Stephanie Trachtenberg

David Herzberg Mayer

Raphael Herzberg Mayer

Daniel Herzberg Mayer

Jonah Herzberg Mayer

Randall Rosenbaum, Conductor

Cantor Mayer and the Temple Emanu-El choir bring all the beauty and majesty of the High Holy Days. The newly reimagined Sanctuary Musaf Service invites you to reflect on the year that was and inspires you in the year to come. Through communal singing, personal prayer, English explanations, and choral music, the service is meant to keep you engaged and focused on the sacred work of t'shuvah. See pages 6 and 8 to see when Rabbi Fel will address the congregation during each day.

SOULFUL SERVICE:

Rabbi Alan Flam

Judy Kaye

Led by Rabbi Alan Flam and Judy Kaye, Soulful Services encourage people to spiritually stretch - in prayer and in t'shuvah work (reflection). We slow down the traditional pace of prayer and focus on key prayers and themes of the Holy Days. Soulful prayer is a blend of traditional davening, silence, chant, movement, and poetry so that our whole selves - mind, body, breath, and heart can be engaged in prayer. Drumming and guitar will accompany us in creating a joyous and reflective Soulful community. We will read and discuss the stories of Hagar, Ishmael, Sarah, Avraham, and Isaac. The Prayer for Healing and sermon/discussion will follow the Torah reading. The Soulful Musaf will focus on the U-netaneh Tokef prayer, extending and receiving blessings, shofar and concluding prayers.

Family & Teen Services and Programs

We are proud to offer a variety of services to meet the unique needs of youth and families from birth through teenage years. All are welcome! If you would like to talk through specific accessibility needs for your family, please reach out to Director of Youth Education and Engagement, Rachel Cohn: rcohn@teprov.org

CONNECT, COMFORT, AND KEVER AVOT

Sunday, September 24, 2023 | 11:00 AM
Lincoln Park Cemetery

On Holy Days, in the Temple in Jerusalem, mourners and others who had experienced difficulty during the year would circle the Temple grounds in one direction while other worshipers would circle in the other. As a result, they would bump into each other and one could offer support to the other. This year, we will combine Connect and Comfort with our Kever Avot service, where we will have a chance to remember and draw inspiration from those who are no longer with us. We invite you to join us on Sunday morning so that we can connect with each other, offer words of comfort, and wish each other a Shanah Tovah.

Yom Kippur Schedule

Join us for a 25-hour spiritual journey focussing more deeply on the themes of forgiveness and atonement.
