Rabbi's Message

BS"D

It is considered extremely meritorious for an individual to accept one thing to improve upon in the new year, as a meaningful resolution is a way of demonstrating to G-d that we are on the right path, that we are dedicated to developing further and changing for the better. The resolution should be a commitment that is realistic and easily assessable. Whether it is to increase one's daily Torah study, not to speak lashon hara during a specific hour of the day, to silence your cellphone when davening, or to do one act of kindness a day, any kabbalah, any acceptance of a new pledge to assist in growth, is a very vital ingredient in ensuring that this upcoming year be unlike any other.

On behalf of Lea, myself, and our entire family, I wish you a year of chaim, simcha, nachas, and beracha.

May 5779 be a year of Revelation and Redemption, and blessings for us all. Good Shabbos and Shana Tova.

* The mikvah will be open for men from 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM. If you can volunteer at the Mikvah on Erev Rosh Hashana please contact the Rabbi. ****
