Rabbi's Message

BS"D

"Tamim Tihyeh im Hashem Elokecha"

"You shall be wholehearted with Hashem, your God." (18:13)

When put into the overall context of the perek in which it is found, the simple meaning of the abovementioned verse is that the Jewish People should not consult with sorcerers or astrologers. Rav Levi Yitzchak of Bereditchev sees an additional message in this pasuk. He explains that the word 'tamim' literally means 'whole,' or 'complete.' As such, with some creative reading, the verse is telling us that when one is "with Hashem, your God," then "you shall be complete." A person who lives with the Torah as his or her constant guide, never deviating from the path of God, such an individual will find nothing lacking from life.

Have a great Shabbos and a Kesiva v'Chasima tova.
